

Encourage the Enterprising!

Warren Gheen, Cabinet-Maker,

RESPECTFULLY informs his old customers, his friends and the public, that he is still at his old stand, on main street, nearly opposite the Salisbury Hotel, where he is fully prepared to execute all orders for cabinet work in a very superior manner. Owing to the "pressure" of the times, the scarcity of specie, and the depreciation of all "bank paper," he is determined to work as cheap, and execute his work in as good style, as any other workman in these parts—his timber being good and his workmen better. W. G. will always keep on hand for sale,

FIRST RATE SIDE BOARDS, TABLES, BUREAUS, Secretaries, Beds, &c.

and every other article generally manufactured in similar establishments. He invites buyers to give him a call.

N. B. An Apprentice, of sober, industrious habits, will be taken to the above business, if application be made soon.

FRESH PATENT DRUGS AND MEDICINES.

JUST received, and for sale at THIS OFFICE, the following Invaluable Patent Drugs and Medicines, viz:

MONTAGUE'S BALM;—
AN INDIAN CURE FOR TOOTH-ACHE.

THE established reputation and constantly increasing demand for this effectual remedy of pain and preservative of the Teeth, has induced the subscriber to offer it to the American Public. Arrangements have been made to supply agents in all the principal cities and towns of the U. States, so as to place it within the reach of those suffering, and likely to suffer, with the most harassing of all aches, (tooth-ache.) When applied according to directions given on the bottle, it has never failed to afford immediate and permanent relief.—It also arrests the decay in defective teeth and relieves that soreness which so frequently renders a strong tooth useless.

The application and remedy are simple, innocent, and not unpleasant; and the large number of persons, in various sections of the country, that have already experienced such delightful and salutary benefits from the use of the Balm, are ready to bear (for the public good) their testimony to its unrivalled qualities.

It is an Indian remedy, obtained singularly and unexpectedly, and may be regarded by the civilized world as the most valuable discovery of the Red Man of the Woods.
