

FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENTS.
[From our Fayetteville Correspondent.]
FAYETTEVILLE, Nov. 3, 1838.
The business of our place, during the present week, has been brisk, when compared with the former two or three. Country Produce, during the week, has risen in price, and is now in demand at our quotations, which you will perceive, is a small advance on the price of last week. Our highest prices quoted, are in exchange for Goods or Groceries; our lowest, Cash.
The Missouri Cotton Plant, with bolls attached, arrived on Thursday, 21st October, with full freight, for sundry portions of this town and the interior. Also, on yesterday noon, Henrietta Co's best Dilligence, with goods groceries, &c., for sundry persons in this place and the interior; among which are—J. Conlon, Evans & Nettie, F. Foster, and E. W. Horn. Also one lot Machinery for Plowing manufacturing Co., in this town. Now on the way up, and expected to arrive during the coming week—Henrietta Co's best Post Boy and Nelson, with full loads for sundry persons here, and the interior; among which, are—Geo. W. Brown, Wm. Albright, Wheeler & Buron, Lee, Co., J. Kridler, Cross & Roger, T. L. Cowan, Lusk & Co., B. C. Daulton, J. Worth, A. H. Marsh, J. Luckie & Co., Hunt & Gayne, Michael Brown, Gov. Dudley, C. Manly, and others.
There is sufficient water in our rivers for Steamboats at present—B. Carolina money is taken at par, in all sales made here now, and in exchange for N. Carolina, at 1 1/4 per ct. Exchange on New York, 1 per ct.
Respectfully, yours,

THE NORTH CAROLINA JUSTICE.
WE regret exceedingly that the appearance of this Work has been so long delayed; and we again assure the public that every exertion has been made to complete it by the time it was expected. The plan of the work, since it was first advertised, has been so improved as to cost many times the quantity of labor then anticipated. And besides, northern materials had to be procured, which could not be brought on till the late rains had swollen the waters. We have no hesitation in assuring our patrons and the public, that the printing and binding will be completed at Raleigh, and the Book ready for delivery, just as soon as practicable.
THE PROPRIETOR.

ITEMS.
The Charleston Mercury of the 31st ult., states that a heavy white frost had been visible a few mornings before and that the danger from disease being entirely removed, no apprehension need be entertained by those desiring to visit the City.
The Citizens of Wilmington held a public meeting on Wednesday the 30th ult.,—at which a Committee was appointed to invite the Members of the Legislature, the Governor and Council, and the Board of Internal Improvement to visit that Town, via the Wilmington and Raleigh Railroad, and partake of its hospitalities.

DIED.
In Concord, N. C., on Sunday evening the 21st inst. MARY OCTAVIA, only daughter of Col. Daniel, and Mrs. Maria N. Coleman, aged two years, 9 months and 12 days.
It has seldom fallen to our lot to record the death of so promising and interesting a child as MARY OCTAVIA was. She possessed a mind of no ordinary character, and from the great improvement of which it was susceptible, she had already become a pleasing companion for persons who were advanced in life. Death, however, has in this instance afforded another proof, that he is no respecter of persons, and that he not infrequently selects as his victims, the loveliest and most endearing objects. The subject of this notice appeared to be too attractive a flower to bloom long in this waste and howling wilderness. We doubt not it has been removed to a fairer clime, to one infinitely better adapted to the unfolding of its beauties.
And shall we then mourn, since our loss is her unexpressed gain? True 'tis hard from those we love to part. 'Tis deeply trying to the feelings of our nature, to be separated from those around whom all the affections of our hearts are entwined. But as christians, we should "morrow not as those without hope;" and though we must necessarily give vent to the feelings of our nature, our feelings should ever be regulated by reason; and especially by our holy Religion.
FAYE assures us that "this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality." We, therefore, confidently anticipate a meeting with our friends, and the objects of our affection in that bright world, where those ties and connections which have been dissolved by death, shall be re-established never again to be broken off nor interrupted.
"The morning flowers display their sweets And gay their silken leaves unfold, As careless of the noon-day heats, And fearless of the evening cold. Nipt by the wind's outstirring blast, Parched by the sun's directer ray, The momentary glories waste, The short-lived beauties die away. Yet these, new rising from the tomb, With lustre, brighter far shall shine, Revive with ever-during bloom, Safe from diseases and decline."

THE DADA INSTITUTE.—The Territorial Government of Florida has directed her Representatives to use their exertions to obtain from Congress, the grant of a Township of land for the establishment of a charitable institution to be called the "Dada Institute;" in commemoration of the brave men who fell in the "bloody massacre," a story which is familiar to our readers, and fills the darkest page in the history of the disastrous Seminole War.
The object intended, is the education of the Orphans of all those who have died in the Florida service. The Institution has been chartered by the Legislative Council of the Territory.

THE LONDON GLOBE newspaper gives the following account of the Queen's wholesome dormitory apparatus. It is worth imitation by all young ladies:
"The visitors of Buckingham Palace, who have an opportunity of seeing the Queen's bed, and who are accustomed to conclude that royalty and rank must repose on feather beds and downy pillows, will be astonished to have pointed out to them a small camp bed, with a hard mattress and one small pillow, as the couch of royalty. Yet such is the fact—If ladies generally would follow her example, they would feel the benefit of it in the improvement of their persons and figures, and the uniform flow of health and spirits it would secure."

PROSPECTUS OF THE AMERICAN MUSEUM OF LITERATURE AND THE ARTS, which will combine the solidity of a review with the lighter miscellany of a magazine; besides impartial reviews of important works and short notices of minor literary productions by the Editors, it will embrace essays, tales, histories, poetry, literary and scientific intelligence, and translations from standard and periodical works in other languages, contributed by some of the ablest writers of the day. The Magazine will also contain a series of reviews of such writers as have, by their talents, shed lustre upon American literature. These reviews will be accompanied by portraits of the authors, engraved on steel by the best artist. The work will be beautifully printed, with new type upon fine paper, and will make two volumes each year, of more than 500 pages each. Agencies will be established in the principal cities, and arrangements made to deliver the work free of postage. As the Museum is printed on a medium and a-half-sheet, the highest postage that can be charged in any part of the country, for one year, will be $1.05 cents. Persons desirous of acting as agents, will please apply post paid. Terms, $5 per annum, payable on the delivery of the first number—five copies $20.

PROSPECTUS OF THE AMERICAN MUSEUM OF LITERATURE AND THE ARTS, which will combine the solidity of a review with the lighter miscellany of a magazine; besides impartial reviews of important works and short notices of minor literary productions by the Editors, it will embrace essays, tales, histories, poetry, literary and scientific intelligence, and translations from standard and periodical works in other languages, contributed by some of the ablest writers of the day. The Magazine will also contain a series of reviews of such writers as have, by their talents, shed lustre upon American literature. These reviews will be accompanied by portraits of the authors, engraved on steel by the best artist. The work will be beautifully printed, with new type upon fine paper, and will make two volumes each year, of more than 500 pages each. Agencies will be established in the principal cities, and arrangements made to deliver the work free of postage. As the Museum is printed on a medium and a-half-sheet, the highest postage that can be charged in any part of the country, for one year, will be $1.05 cents. Persons desirous of acting as agents, will please apply post paid. Terms, $5 per annum, payable on the delivery of the first number—five copies $20.

NOTICE.
THE Subscriber offers for Sale, upon reasonable Terms, his valuable Mills on Hunting Creek, in Iredell County, formerly owned by Capt. W. Brown. They are situated on a never failing stream, with great falls, and have run during all the severest droughts—well suited for Factories of almost any kind. They are now in good repair; the Saw mill newly built and Great mills lately repaired, together with 250 ACRES OF LAND, with suitable houses. About 30 acres of the Land is cleared, the balance in woods—situated in a healthy region, eleven miles from Mocksville.
Persons desiring such property would do well to call and view the premises and hear the terms, which are accommodating.

NOTICE.
THE Subscriber has been engaged for upwards of ten years in the improved plan of BUSHING MILLS, and other Machinery when worn, or heated. By his method, Irons of either upright, or horizontal Gudgeons, as also the bush for the Spindle and Lark, run much lighter and sturdier than those on the old plan. To great trouble of working and repairing the Spindles, Cranks, and Gudgeons are saved when run on, or in these Bushes and Links.
Any person wishing to procure machinery of this kind can be supplied by making application to the Subscriber by letter, at Mocksville, Davie county, N. C.
September 20, 1838.
The Subscriber would refer any one wishing information on the subject, to Dr. Austin, one of the Editors of the "Carolinian."
