THE FAMILY BIBLE. How painfully pleasing the fond recollection Of youthful connexions and innocent joys, When blest with parental advice and affection, Surrounded with mercies—with peace from on high...

Ye scenes of tranquility, long have we parted, My hopes all gone, and my parents no more, In sorrow and sadness I live broken hearted, And wander unknown on a far distant shore...

Blest Bible, the light and the guide to the stranger, With thee I seem circled by parents and friends, Thy kind admonitions shall guide me from danger, On thee my last lingering hope then depends...

Hail rising the brightest and best of the morning, The star which has guided my parents safe home; A beam of thy glory my pathway adorning, Shall scatter the darkness and brighten my gloom...

Though age and misfortune press hard on my feelings, I'll die to the Bible and trust in the Lord, Though darkness should cover his merciful dealings, My soul is still cheer'd by his heavenly word...
