[Editors' Currespondence.]

FANGULANTILLE, June I, 1839. Business is at a stand; very little of any thing doing; not many country waggens country in and all that come are engaged to haut goods, &c., for the back country merchants.

The principal articles of produce brought here for sale new are corn, flour, bacon, &c. Corn brings from waggens $1 05 a 1 10,—from stere $1 15 a 1 20;—its present high price of ours here has induced many of the larmers down the Cape Fear to bring their corn up by the way of the river to our market. Flour from waggens brings $5 50 a 6 25; bacon as in quality 10; a 11. There has not been sales sufficient to fix a price on cotton the past week; very little offering and bayers are very careless; we quote $12; a 14; feathers 45; been wax 25 a 26; lard 11 a 12.

Greecies of every hind are plenty; we appear a fixed to the content of the past week;

General 20 a 20; land 11 a 12.

General of every kind are plenty; we quote coffee 121 a 131; sugar, New Orleans, S₁ a 91; Porto Rico and Santa Cruz 91 a 11; moiassae. New Orleans, 40 a 42; dato common 34 a 37; oatis 74 a 8; iroa, English rolled, 5 a 51; Swede do. 51 a 6; Liverpool salt, sack, 82 50 a 2 75; do. bushel 80 a 90; alum salt 70 a 75.

There is sufficient water for steamboats to come up here sow. Arrived, May 31st, D. O. Hanlon's boat, James Sen-Arrived, May 31st, D. O. Hanlon's boat, James Sca-well, with goods, groceries, &c., for merchants here and in the inicriot. Also, May 30th, Henrietta Company's bosh, Nelson and Only Son, with dry goods, groceries, machinery, &c., for sundry persons in town and also for C. B. & C. h. Wheeler, Lash & Brothers, Henry Stire-walt, J. M. Worth, Coffin & Clark, Lexington Manu-congring Company, McConnell & Lindsay, Arrived facturing Company, McConnell & Lindsay, Armstrong & Mehme, A. Lindsay, Hunt & Lowry, S. Luckie & Co., E & W. Smith, J. & R. Sloan, H. J. Cowan, M. & T. Hont, of the interior. Exchange as last quoted, I per cont.

Southey the Poet,-The New York American says that Southey, the poet, historian, and philosopher, is about to be married again, in his old age. The lady is some thirty years his junior, and is Miss Caroline Bowles, well known in the literary world as the writer of some sweet poetry, and some very fine prose.

DEPARTED THIS LIFE, In this County, on the 1st instant, after a very pro-tracted illness, MATTHEW B. LOCKE, Esq. Aged about 35 years.

about 35 years.

The deceased has left a disconsolate family and a large circle of friends to mourn his death. For a number of years past he had been an elder in the Preshyterian Church, and was much beloved and respected, in out only in that capacity, but as a neighbor, gentleman, fixend and relative. The community in which he lived, evinced by their acts of kindness during the last adays of his life, and by their punctuality in attendance in at his funeral, the respect and love they felt for him. It is in vain to attempt to do just to the deceased as a husband, father and master; but those who have been bereaved of a good one, have felt and know what we cannot describe. His cheerful submission to the will of God concerning him, beside his firm reliance on Christ, as expressed to his friends, justify us in saying of him—

"Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord."

DESCRIPTION, PERFORMANCE, &c.

LATH is a fine bay, without white, 15 hands 3 inches high, with good bone and capital action. At 3 years old, he won the produce stake at Columbia, 2 mile heats, beating Mr. Taylor's filly, Daisy, and Captain Spane's colt, Convection, sine others paying forfeit,—Two wooks afterwards, he was the Jockey-Club purse, 3 mile heats, at Augusta, beating Kite, and distancing Black Bird. At Charleston, he was besten by Clod-Hopper for the Jockey-Club purse, 3 mile heats; being very much amies, he was drawn after the first heat.—At 4 years old, he won the Jockey-Club purse, 4 mile heats, at Camden, beating Sir Kenneth and Dorshells, at 3 heats, losing the first in consequence of bolting when several lengths in advance of the field, just before he reached the judge's stand, and getting entangled amongst the carriages, he sustained an injury which occasioned his withdrawal from the Turf.

LATH was a race horse of the first class, which he evinced in his trials with Bay Maria, Charlotte Russe, and Kitty Heth, and in point of blood, he is inferior to none, whether imported or native. His constitution is robust, having never been sich, and his temper good.—His colour, form, and action, speak for themselves. In a word, Lath unites in himself as many claims to public patronage, as any young Stallion that I know.

BURRAGE & LOFLIN.

Milledgeville, Montgomery County. sire, grandsire, dam, and grandam, that are of the running blood. For instance, his sire Godolphin, made his four miles in 7 minutes and 50 seconds; his grandsire, the American Eclipse, so well known at the North and South, made his time in the great match race, the North against the South, $20,000 aside, in 7 min. and 37 sec.; which he won with considerable colet, and which gain-ed him the memorable name of the Champion of the take great pleasure in waiting upon his friends at his North; his dam, was sired by the renowned Sir Archy, RESTAURATEUR when called on. whose reputation as a racer, &c., stands unquestion both in England and America. The grandsm of Lath, Old Lottery, bred by the great Southern Ameteur of horses, Col. R. Singleton, of South Carolina, has pro-duced more fine race horses than any other mare in the Union. Thus it will be seen that there is united in

Lath two of the best stude of the South, Hampton's and Singleton's, crossed with Gen. Coles of the North. The public is now presented with such an opportuni-ty of improving the blood of that noble and useful animal, the horse, as very rarely occurs in this section of Salisbury Hotel.
