

Our neighbor, the Watchman, has been greatly harassed and annoyed at our "rejoicing" in the election of Mr. Shepard, a State-Rights Republican. It seems many dark omens and dire portents in this simple expression, among other things, perhaps, the burden of Nullification, which used to alarm us. We should be right well pleased to know, when we ever professed any sympathy or kind feeling for the principles of the Federalists, that they now affect to be surprised at our gratification for the success of a State-Rights Republican, although he may differ from us in some points. Mr. Shepard expressed in the Circular which he addressed to his constituents last Spring, sentiments becoming a freeman, and a Republican; we noted at that time our approval of them, and his independent course, and we find since, that notwithstanding the condemnation of time-serving politicians, his constituents approved them too, and have sustained him. As for the charge of the Watchman that we have ever hesitated to late, or before, to speak our opinions freely, it is of no force. We are perfectly content to give our course answer for itself. We made at the start a plain and clear exposition of our political opinions and doctrines; we have since maintained them without reserve, and uniformly, and at no time more fully than during the late canvass in this District, when the party, with which we have been acting, was constantly denounced as being opposed to the Whigs, because they refused to join these self-styled "Whigs" in their unconditional pledges of allegiance to Henry Clay, and their uncompromising hostility to Van Buren, and all his measures right or wrong. It is time for the Opposition, now that the election is over to drop the arts suggested by the Caucus, and practised with so little success—the easiest way of getting out of the difficulty now, is to acknowledge their failures honestly, and without trying to smooth it over, by continued misrepresentation, and above all things,—to keep cool and not get in a passion, and say harsh, and unseemly things as the Watchman did last week; let that pass however. We make charitable allowance for the natural had humor and irritation of the occasion, but hope as they have had time to get over it, that our neighbors will not suffer their equanimity to be seriously disturbed any more. It does no good whatever, and only makes bad worse.

Tennessee Senators.—We noticed a letter of Mr. Foster, one of the Tennessee Senators, published several weeks before the elections in that State, in which he expresses his intention of resigning his place in the U. S. Senate, in the event of the Administration party having a majority in the Legislature.—From the statements of Tennessee papers, both Whig and Administration; it seems that the Administration party has gained the majority in both branches of the Legislature, and consequently we may look for Mr. Foster's resignation. It has been conjectured that Judge White will act on the same principles.—If so, two Administration Senators will be elected next Winter, in place of Messrs. White and Foster.

Tennessee.—Full returns are not yet received from the Governor's election, though there are sufficient to decide the election of Polk by between two and four thousand majority.—This astonishing result indicates a Whig loss in the State of more than 20,000 votes within two years, since the last Governor's election, when Cannon's majority was between 19 and 20,000 votes.

The Tennessee papers say, that there is also a Van Buren majority in both branches of the Legislature. Seven Whig, and six Administration members of Congress, have been elected, being a gain of three members for the Administration.—The delegation now stands:—
W. B. Carter, J. L. Williams, M. P. Gearty, John Bell, W. B. Campbell, J. W. Crockett, C. H. Williams.—7 Whigs.
A. McLean, J. W. Blackwell, H. L. Turney, C. Johnson, A. V. Brown, H. M. Waterson.—6 Administration.

KENTUCKY.
A warm contest has taken place in this State,—the result not fully ascertained; the accounts indicate the election of the following members to Congress:—
1st District—Edwin Boyd or Murray, both Adm.
2d District—T. H. Hunt, (W) vice E. Rumsey, (W) declined.
3d " J. R. Underwood, (W) re-elected.
4th " S. H. Anderson, (W) without opposition—vice J. Harlan, (W).
5th " W. Green, (W) vice J. Calhoun, (W).
6th " John Pope, (W) re-elected.
7th " Wm. J. Graves, (W) re-elected.
8th " John White, (W) re-elected without opposition.
9th " Richard Hawes, (W) re-elected.
10th " Garrett Davis, (W) vice J. Chambers (W) declined.
11th " W. Butler, (Adm.) vice W. W. Southgate, (W).

American Steam Ships—that are to be.—Meetings have lately been held by the capitalists in Boston and New York, to take into consideration the immediate establishment of the contemplated lines of steam-ships from this country to Europe.—The attempt has been so successfully and profitably made by the English companies, that it appeals too strongly to the enterprise of the Yankees, to be disregarded.—The proposals made at Boston were to have four vessels as large as the Great Western, to run once in a fortnight, by way of Halifax, the shortest route to England, which it is said would be a shorter passage by 24 hours, than the trips now made to New York.

The meeting in New York determined to commence sailing early in the fall.—They intend to build their boats in a style different from the English steamers and more after the manner of the boats on our Western waters, except that they, of course, will be adapted to Ocean navigation.
When all these lines are established and in full operation, we shall have an arrival from England every week. The passage across the broad Atlantic will become a mere, ordinary pleasure trip.

ALABAMA.
In the Mobile District, Dillet, (Whig) has been elected over his opponent, Murphy, (adm.) This is a Whig gain.
In the Montgomery District, Dixon H. Lewis is without doubt re-elected.
No further returns.

FARMINGTON, Davis Co., Aug. 15, 1839.
MESSRS. AUSTIN & FISHER: I have just received the certain news that our Republican candidate Charles Fisher is elected.—This is a glorious triumph over the most outrageous means I ever knew to be used in any election in my whole life, but thank God, the good cause is ahead, and long, long may it continue so. The just and manly course of your paper in this contest has my entire approbation, and I wish you to continue sending it to me until I direct otherwise.
Respectfully yours,
J. T.
