Sir, your most obedient,

P. S.—Should your friends wish to procure a suitable person to deliver your funeral discourse, I recommend Parson L. —, of Rowan, he was a great admirer of yours in your life time, and like you, is a little touched with Abolitionism.

ANTI-BEN.
FOR THE WESTERN CAROLINIAN.
MESSRS. EDITORS: I see that some malignant scribbler in the last "Watchman," over the signature of M. Douglas, has made a most scurrilous attack on "R. Murchison," who came within a few votes of beating old Mr. Lewis Williams for Congress. Such attacks are shameful, and must have been written either by some defamer or Federal Pettigrew, that haunts the County Court bar in Surry. I do not intend so far to imitate the example of this malign scribbler, as to retort on old Mr. Williams, unless I am forced to do so,—but while he was blackguarding Mr. Murchison, why did he not say something about the qualifications of the worn-out member; or tell us something he had ever done? Mr. Williams has spent 24 years in Congress, and like a powder fish, though a little bright at first, he has been getting more and more dim ever since, until now he is worn out by doing nothing, and has the nick-name of "Father of the House."—Since he first went to Congress, he has fingered more than forty thousand dollars of the public money for wages, and how many cart loads of books he has carried away, it is hard to tell. And I ask, has he ever done the county forty cents worth of good? I was one of those who thought it was time to make a change, and I think so yet. I suppose the old gentleman has been so long in Congress, that he believes he has a fee simple right to the seat, and for this reason, he is so mad at being opposed;—and his followers, think they can stop opposition to him, by now blackguarding Mr. Murchison, and trying to make him out a fool, and a knave; but take care that they are not mistaken.

The fact is, the people are tired, tired of the old song, and as sure as another election comes about, either Mr. Murchison, or some other man will relieve the District of this old Federal gentleman.

ARRIVAL OF THE STEAM-SHIP LIVERPOOL.

The steam-ship Liverpool, arrived at New York on Monday morning, at 2 o'clock.
There does not seem to be any material alteration in the state of the London money market, though the bank of England is evidently very tight. It is alleged that the plan of selling out the bank, which has been expected, has not having been able to continue to obtain the price it demanded. That institution has entered into a negotiation with the Bank of France for a supply of two millions of dollars, which was not, however, yet concluded.

The state of the weather, as the harvest time approached, was a subject of intense anxiety. The accounts are contradictory, but we are sorry to say, the last are decidedly bad. This is also the case in France, where the price of bread had risen.

The cotton market it will be seen with pleasure, has improved.
An advance in the rate of interest on the part of the bank continued to be a matter of discussion, but no advance had taken place, though we judge from the various accounts that money was as scarce as ever.

The weather in England had been wet and windy, so as to create some alarm for the growing crops, and cause some advance in the price of wheat.
In English politics nothing of great interest, but important intelligence has been received from Constantinople. Sultan Mahmoud is dead, and his army totally routed by the Egyptians under Ibrahim. The Captain Pasha had treacherously delivered up the whole Turkish fleet to Mehmet Ali.

The son of the Sultan had ascended the throne of his father. He had appointed his Ministers, and negotiations were going on for an adjustment of the difficulties with Egypt, under the auspices of the great European Powers.—N. Y. Courier & Enquirer.

Tomatoes.

At this season of plenty, for "one of the best things in this world," and when they are to be had in the market at forty cents a bushel, we do a good work in advising our readers of the various uses that may be made of the Tomato. One use, to which it may be applied, we copy as below, from an exchange paper.

Tomato Omelet.—Peel a quart of ripe tomatoes chop and put them down to simmer for about twenty minutes, with as much water as will cover them; chop a few onions very fine, and throw them in with crumbled bread and a lump of butter—and when nearly done, beat up four eggs, and stir them in for a few minutes, and serve the omelet up.—Bat. Patriot.

Lost.

ON the 22nd instant, was cut from the Subscriber's carriage, in the neighborhood of Salisbury, on the main road leading to Concord and Charlotte, a small hair trunk containing sundry articles of clothing, and a POCKET BOOK, in which was the following papers:
A number of others not recollecting accurately. All persons are forwarded trading for any of said papers.—I will give a liberal reward for their recovery, or information so that I may get them.

One Court order from K. P. Harris, on John Rogers, County Trustee of Cabarrus County, for $500.
One Note on Ebenezer H. Rogers for $150; also one on the same for the rise of $200, with a credit endorsed for about $150.
One Note on James Cochran for $50.
One on Walter H. Cochran for the rise of $40.
One on James F. Farr for about $40, with a credit.
One on J. W. Means for $40.
One on Sam'l. C. Harris for $19 00, together with sundry others of smaller amounts, with 2 bills of sale, executed to use by Capt. John Russell for two negroes.
One judgment of $60, and several of a smaller amount, on Charles Townsend; besides others not definitely recollecting.

UNITED IN WEDLOCK.

In this Town, on the 27th instant, by Rob't. Mearns, Esq., Mr. TILLMAN PEARCE to Miss ELIZA SWINK.

In this County, on the 22nd instant, by the Rev. S. Rothrock, Mr. MOSES TREXLER to Miss MARGARET CAUBLE.

Also, in this County, on the same day, by J. S. Myers, Esq., Mr. PLEASANT MAY to Miss NANCY AIRRY.

DEPARTED THIS LIFE.

In this County, on the 9th instant, Mrs. ELIZA KILPATRICK, wife of Rufus H. Kilpatrick, Esq., of Third Creek, in the 32nd year of her age; leaving an infant of a few days, an interesting family of small children, and a loving husband. She was a devoted wife, an affectionate mother, good neighbor, and a worthy and consistent member of the Presbyterian Church; modest and retiring in her habits, she was most esteemed by those who knew her best. Truly in the language of Scripture, "She rose while it was yet night, and gave meat to her household, and a portion to her maidens." Her husband was known in the gates, when he sat among the elders of the land; and her children rose up and called her blessed. "By her death a chasm is made in the family, and neighborhood, which cannot be filled; but (blessed be God,) we believe our loss, to be her infinite gain; and that she shall be restored to us (if we prove faithful) in the resurrection morn, a thousand times more lovely, and more glorious.

This death was unexpected till a few hours before, and says with tremendous power, "Be ye also ready."—Communicated.

In this County, on the 22nd instant, Mr. ELIAS RUMPLE, in the 23d year of his age. He was a member of the Presbyterian Church, and his relatives and friends should not sorrow as those without hope, as he died perfectly resigned, and in hope of a blessed immortality.

"Then let our mournful tears be dry,
Or in a gentle meadow flow;
We hail him happy in the sky,
And joyful wait our call to go."—Comm.

Caution.

ALL persons are hereby warned from trading with a young man, about 15 years of age, named JOHN SHOAF, Jr., for a mare which he carried off. It is probable he may change his name; he is about 5 feet 6 inches high, dark colored hair, blue eyes, oval shaped, with a double tooth on the right side of the upper jaw. He had on a red surcoat, flax pantaloons, and a black fur hat.

The mare is a bay, well made, with one white hind foot, and a spot in her forehead. The bridle is nearly new, with yellow reins. The saddle has had a new seat lately put on it.

The above mare was taken off by the young man without my consent and he will probably try to sell her. He will aim, perhaps, for Indiana. He was seen near Locke's bridge, on the 25th instant. Any person seeing the said man and mare, will confer a favor by stopping the mare, (letting the man pass,) and sending word to me, directed to Lexington, Davidson County, N. C.

TO THE PUBLIC.

THE undersigned Administratrix of the Estate of the late Ezekiah Niles, former Editor of the Register, begs leave to inform the public, that there are yet to be disposed of, on reasonable terms, a few full sets of Niles Register, from the commencement to volume fifty, inclusive, with all the supplements, and general index all complete, comprising a period of twenty-five years, with a number of sets including the second and third, and fourth series, from Sept. 1817, to Sept. 1839, with sundry odd volumes to complete the sets of those who have been, or are now subscribers to the work.—She would also beg leave to state, that yielding to the imperious necessity which exists for so doing, she has placed all claims due to the said deceased, in the hands of Philip Register, of the City of Baltimore, with a view of having the same collected and closed by him.—all the Books of the concern being in his possession, and to whom applications can be made for sets or parts of sets of the aforesaid work.

The undersigned hopes that she is not presuming too much in asking the kind and liberal public press of the United States, to give the foregoing a few insertions, with the view of aiding her to dispose of the surplus copies of the Register, and to realize the sums due from those for whose benefit the labors of her late husband were zealously given, to enable her to sustain thirteen children; eight of whom are under twelve years of age.
