

MOFFAT'S VEGETABLE LIFE PILLS AND PHENIX BITTERS.—The universal estimation in which the celebrated Life Pills and Phenix Bitters are held, is satisfactorily demonstrated by the increasing demand for them in every State and section of the Union, and by the voluntary testimonials to their remarkable efficacy which are every where offered. It is not less from a deeply gratifying confidence that they are the means of salutary and inestimable good among his afflicted fellow-creatures, than from interest of considerations, that the Proprietor of these prominently successful medicines is desirous of keeping them constantly before the public eye. The sale of every additional box and bottle, is a guarantee that some persons will be relieved from a greater or less degree of suffering, and be improved in general health; for in no case of suffering from disease can they be taken in vain.—The Proprietor has never known or been informed of an instance in which they have failed to do good. In the most obstinate cases of chronic disease, such as chronic dyspepsia, torpid liver, rheumatism, asthma, nervous and bilious head-ache, colicines, piles, general debility, scrofulous swellings and ulcers, ague, sciatica, &c. and all other chronic affections of the organs and membranes, they effect cures with a rapidity and permanency which few persons would theoretically believe, but to whom persons have testified from happy experience. In colds and coughs, which, if neglected, super-induce the most fatal diseases of the lungs, and indeed the viscera in general, these medicines, if taken for three or four days, never fail. Taken right, they promote the insensible perspiration, and so relieve the system of febrile action and feculent obstruction, as to produce a most delightful sense of consciousness in the morning; and though the usual symptoms of a cold should gradually return during the day, the repetition of a suitable dose at the next hour of bed-time will almost invariably effect permanent relief, without further aid. Their effect upon fevered or more severe and violent kind is not less sure and speedy if taken in proportionable quantity; and persons returning to bed with inflammatory symptoms of the most alarming kind, will awake with the gratifying consciousness that the fierce enemy has been overthrown, and can easily be subdued. In the same way, visceral turgescence, though long established, and viseral turgescence, however critical will yield—the former to small and the latter to large doses of the Life Pills; and so also hysterical affections, hysterical fits, restlessness, and very many other varieties of the Neurotic class of disease, yield to the efficacy of the Phenix Bitters. Full directions for the use of these medicines, and showing their distinctive applicability to different complaints, accompany them, and can be obtained, wholesale and retail, at 375 Broadway, where numerous certificates of their unparalleled success are always open to inspection.

For additional particulars of the above medicines, see Moffat's "Giant SAMARITAN," a copy of which accompanies the medicines; a copy can also be obtained of the different Agents who have the medicines for sale.

French, German, and Spanish directions can be obtained on application at the office, 375 Broadway.

All post-matters addressed to the Subscribers at Mocksville, N. C., I think the probable cost will not exceed $30 for the Patent and Spindle ready for use.

Agents.—The Life Medicines may also be had of the principal Druggists in every town throughout the United States and the Canadas. Ask for Moffat's Life Pills and Phenix Bitters; and be sure that a fac simile of John Moffat's signature is upon the label of each bottle of bitters, or box of Pills.

FEVER AND AGUE.—TO MY FRIENDS IN THE WEST, and particularly those who have had the Life Medicines in treatment of FEVER AND AGUE.

It is but a very short time since these Medicines have been introduced into the Fever and Ague Districts, and the proprietor flatters himself that during that period, wherever they have been used according to the directions, they have done more towards exterminating the disease, than all other remedies and prescriptions combined. It is a common cause among "regular practitioners" when speculations are introduced, that they cannot cure diseases which people are in the habit of considering incurable. Medical experience is continually doing a way a part of the list of the incurable diseases, and Mr. Moffat has the happiness of confidently announcing that Fever and Ague is now to be added to the number of complaints which medical skill has conquered.

In Fever and Ague the Life Medicines not only give quicker relief than any other remedy, but, if persevered in, effect a permanent cure; so that if the patient is only externally affected, and resorts directly to his medical man from the first symptom of tendency to a new attack, it may always be worn off. To escape one chill would be of infinitely more consequence to the sufferer, than the value of the remedy, to remove the disease permanently would confer a benefit upon him which cannot be estimated by any earthly mind. These Medicines will effect what is here claimed for them, the Proprietor has the testimony of all acquaintances with them and their application, in the Fever and Ague, and his object in now addressing his friends at the West is to request them that they spare no pains in communicating their experience, and disseminating the highly interesting information, now that the season for Fever and Ague has arrived.

It is not for the mere purpose of dispensing of a few hundred packages of the Life Medicines, that the proprietor makes this appeal. His demand for his Medicine is already greater than he can conveniently supply, and even were it insufficient to afford him business, he would conceive himself supremely selfish, if his pleasure was not greater at the benefit conferred upon the suffering part of the community, by an increase to his sales, than at his own pecuniary profit.

The Life Medicines, if properly used and persevered in, recommended themselves; still it is necessary that the public should know that such medicines exist, and hence the propriety of advertising them. It is hoped, therefore, that the proprietors will not be accused of egotism when it is said that no medicine or mode of treatment, for fever and ague, so appropriate, thorough and positive in its happy effects as Moffat's Life Pills and Phenix Bitters.

For further particulars of the above medicine see Moffat's "Giant SAMARITAN," a copy of which accompanies the medicine; A copy can also be obtained of the different Agents who have the medicines for sale.

Agents.—The Life Medicines may also be had of the principal druggists in every town throughout the United States and the Canadas. Ask for Moffat's Life Pills and Phenix Bitters; and be sure that a fac simile of John Moffat's signature is upon the label of each bottle of bitters, or box of Pills.

NEVER AND AGUE POSITIVELY CURED.— Fever and Ague is a most obstinate disease, and in warm and humid climates, frequently resists every ordinary mode of cure, as to become very distressing to the person, and by the extreme debility which the disease induces, it often gives rise to tooth-achic complaints. Marsh murrain, or the effluvia arising from stagnant water, is the most frequent exciting cause of this disease; and one of its great peculiarity is its susceptibility of a renewal from very slight causes, such as from the prevalence of an eastern wind— even with the repetition of the original exciting cause. In this, Fever and Ague differs from most other fevers; as it is well known that after an ordinary fever has once occurred, and been removed, the person affected is not so liable to a fresh attack as one who was not so affected. These circumstances render it extremely difficult to effect a permanent cure of Fever and Ague, though to relieve the patient for the time being is a very easy task.

MOPPAT'S LIFE PILLS AND PHENIX BITTERS have been thoroughly tested, and proved to be a positive and radical cure of Fever and Ague. Hundreds of his fellow-creatures in the West, have voluntarily come forward to assure Mr. Moffat that the Life Medicines are the only medicines that will thoroughly effect a removal of this most tedious and disagreeable disease.

Others who have emigrated to that field and presing portion of our country—men who went out full of hope, and confident of winning a competence from the luxuriance of the soil; or who carried to the opposite side of our settlements the mercantile or mechanical experience won in the crowded cities and towns of the older States, have either returned with shattered constitutions and depressed spirits, or they remain in their new homes, dragging out a weary life; at last, to amke some disease to which they are predisposed by the terror of the West, the Fever and Ague. Their hopes are blotted— their business enterprise destroyed—their El Dorado become a desert, and the word, made in the east, is broken to the hope.

To these individuals, Mr. Moffat would say—" Try the Life Medicines, and you will yet anticipate your most sanguine expectations, for they will certainly restore you to health."

Fever and Ague is a complaint which requires to be met at its first approach, and combated at every stage. Seldom fatal of itself, it reduces the strength, and impairs the functions of the organs, so that upon the manifestation of disease, Nature is unable, unassisted, to resist the ordeal. The Life Medicines, when taken strictly according to directions will cure it, and give to the weak and trembling victim of disease, new health, life, and strength.

For full particulars of the mode of treatment, the reader is referred to the Good SAMARITAN, a copy of which accompanies the medicine. A copy may be obtained of the different agents who have the medicine for sale.

French, German, and Spanish directions can be obtained on application at the office, 375 Broadway.

All post letters will receive immediate attention. Sold wholesale and retail by William B. Moffat, 375 Broadway, N. Y. A liberal deduction made to those who purchase to sell again.

To Owners of Mills.

The Subscribers has an improved patent Spindle for Mills, by which a mill will do much better than with the usual form of Spindles. It is so constructed as to keep from breaking or killing the meal in any manner. The runner is so confined by the Spindle as always to preserve its balance, and of course there is no rubbing of the stones.

I think, by this improved Spindle, the same will do at least one-third more business, and the meal of superior quality.

Any person wishing to use one of these Spindles, may obtain one or more, by making application, (with a short time) to the Subscribers at Mocksville, N. C. I think the probable cost will not exceed $30 for the Patent and Spindle ready for use.

Dr. Wm. P. Kelly and Thos. Foster, in the vicinity of Mocksville, have recently tried the improved Spindle, and are highly pleased with it.

Heath Tract.

THE HEATH TRACT, containing six hundred Acres of Land, situated about six miles East of Lexington, Davidson Co., on the road leading from Lexington to Fayetteville.

There are about 100 acres improved, and 300 in Wood and Timber.

The Tract is located in a very

HEALTHY REGION.

and is peculiarly adapted to farming. It has on it a an Orchard, and a good Meadow. And independent of these advantages, the prospect for Gold, is unquestionable, as one or two have already been opened, and some very rich are expected from them.

The celebrated Couraud Gold Mine, is situated a few hundred yards south of it; and according to the directions of the Veins of that Mine, they must necessarily pass through a part of this Tract.

Any person wishing to view the premises or get a more minute description, will call on Rigdon Wadsworth, in Lexington, who will give the desired information; or any person wishing to contract for the same, will call on Dr. Austin, Salisbury; or address a Letter to the Subscribers, Trenton Post Office, Jones Co.
