FRANCE.

Ormond, Farewell, Oxford without a head!

The moral of the late proceedings in the French Chamber of Deputies concerning the Duke of Nemours' Dynasty Bill, lies deeper than the simple question of economy.

The institutions of France are essentially popular; all but one of the Orleans dynasty, which is fast descending into the unpopularity that engulfed Charles X.

Well has Dr. Lamennais applied the law of Scripture, and Coriambus him, that labor is the fitness of man. He who does not labor has no business on this bustling and fertile soil of life.

Louis Philippe does not understand the true state of things, or, understanding, is playing a desperate game to overturn them. He cannot equal his family at the cost of millions against their consent.

A Queer Character.—Among the doings at the Court of Common Pleas for Rockingham county, N. H., the Exeter news letter states that Alfred Tetherly, of Charleston, N. H., was indicted for stealing a horse, the property of Josiah Woodman of Nottingham.

Lost wealth may be regained by a course of industry—the wreck of health repaired by temperance—forgotten knowledge restored by study—alienated friendship soothed into forgiveness—ever forfeited reputation won back by penitence and virtue.

There is nothing which so keenly wounds a little mind, as to witness the objects of its jealousy calmly pursuing their own concerns, without the least notice of its pious vaporing.

YANKEE HUMOR.

The following very humorous police report, which appeared in a late number of the St. Louis Bulletin, will be found very amusing:

Police Office, Nov. 7.—Abajah Hemmingway was brought up from a black hole this morning. One glance at his face and appearance was sufficient to designate, beyond doubt, to what genus of the species homo he belonged.

After considerable effort, he was dragged out; and he watched, supposing him either to be drunk or crazy, lodged him in the calaboose. At this stage of the evidence Mr. Hemmingway, who had been for some time very fidgety, broke out with "You be darned! I hadn't drunk a drop of nothing to speak of, since I left da' selder barrel in Saco!"

"Now, Mr. Hemmingway, just attend to me one moment, if you please. Will you give me some account of yourself?" "Wal, Squire, I kalkilate I will. You know, then, that—by the by, Squire, do you know where Portland is, way down in the State of Maine?"

A watch was stolen in the pit of the Opera in Paris; the loser complained in a loud voice, and said, "It is just seven; in a few minutes my watch will strike, the sound is strong, and by that means we shall instantly ascertain where it is."

Rare Instance of Conjugal Affection.—In a case before a New York Court, a woman, a witness, swore that she had never lost sight of her husband for twelve hours together, at any one time, either day or night, during a period of fifty years.

Beautiful.—A deaf and dumb person being asked what was his idea of forgiveness, took the pencil and wrote—"It is the odor which flowers yield when trampled on."

LA LATH, Grand sire by the AMERICAN ECLIPSE, the Champion of America—Winner of the Great Match Race, the North against the South—$20,000 aside! THE THOROUGH-BRED HORSE, LATH, BRED by Col. Wade Hampton of South Carolina, will make his second season at Salisbury, which commenced on the 21st of August, and will end on the 20th of June next, at $25 the Season, and $40 to insure, the money to be paid as soon as the Mare is ascertained to be in foal, or the property changes owners; and fifty cents to the groom.

PEDIGREE: I Certify that LATH was bred by me, and that he was foaled in the Spring of 1833. He was got by Godolphin, his dam Pocahontas, by Sir Archy; his grand-dam Young Lottery, also by Sir Archy; out of Col. Singleton's celebrated Lottery, by imported Bedford out of the imported mare Anvilona. Godolphin was got by Eclipse; his dam Sylph, by Haphestion out of Lottery by imported Bedford, &c. Haphestion was got by the imported Bozzard out of the dam of Sir Archy.

DESCRIPTION, PERFORMANCE, &c.—LATH is a fine bay, without white, 15 hands 3 inches high, with good bone and capital action. At three years old, he won the produce stake at Columbia, two mile heats, beating Mr. Taylor's filly, Daisy, and Captain Spann's colt, Convention, nine others paying forfeit. Two weeks afterwards he won the jockey club purse, three mile heats, at Augusta, beating Kite and distancing Black Bird. At Charleston, he was beaten by Clodhopper for the jockey club purse, three mile heats; being very much amiss, he was drawn after the first heat. At 4 years old, he won the jockey club purse, four mile heats, at Camden, beating Sir Kenneth and Dorabella at three heats; losing the first in consequence of bolting when several lengths in advance of the field, just before he reached the Judges' stand; and getting entangled amongst the carriage, he sustained an injury which occasioned his withdrawal from the turf.

Lath was a race Horse of the first class, which he evinced in his trials with B. Maria, Charlotte Runse, and Kitty Heth, and in point of blood he is inferior to none, whether imported or native. His constitution is robust; he having never been sick, and his temper good. His color, form, and action speak for themselves. In a word, Lath unites in himself as many claims to public patronage as any young Stallion that I know.

WADE HAMPTON. Willwood, Jan. 22, 1839. From the above certificate of Col. Hampton, who bred and had Lath trained for the Turf, it will be seen that he considered him a race horse of the first class—not only from the races he has mentioned as having run publicly, but from private trials he has made with horses which are now on the Turf, and running with considerable success. It will also be observed by his certificate, that he considered Lath of the purest blood—not to be surpassed by any horse, imported or native.

I consider it entirely unnecessary to attempt to eulogize Lath, either for his performances on the Turf or as to his blood, since in every respect he is so well attested. But will remark, that Lath has not only descended from pure blood, but has come from stock both sire and grand-sire, dam and grand-dam, that are of the running blood. For instance, his sire, Godolphin, made his four miles in 7 minutes and 50 seconds; his grand-sire, the American Eclipse, so well known at the north and south, made his time in the great match race, the north against the south, $20,000 aside, in 7 minutes and 37 seconds, which Eclipse won with considerable eclat. This race gained him the memorable name of the champion of the north. His dam sired by the renowned Sir Archy, whose reputation as a racer, &c., stands unquestioned, both in England and America. The grand dam of Lath, Old Lottery, bred by the great southern breeder of horses, Col. R. Singleton of South Carolina, has produced more fine race horses than any other mare in the Union. Thus, it will be seen that there is united in Lath two of the best studs in the south, Hampton's and Singleton's, crossed with Gen. Coles' of the north.

The public is now presented with such an opportunity of improving the blood of that noble and useful animal, the Horse, as rarely occurs in this section of country. And the public can have in addition, in a short time, the opportunity of judging more satisfactorily of Lath's blood, &c., by his colts of last Spring's get, as it is expected there will be many of them dropped by mares in this section in a few days. As a sure foal-getter Lath stands almost unrivalled, as is proven by his last Spring's services—so few of the large number of mares put to him not proving in foal.

N. B. Mares sent from a distance will always find Lath at home, as he will not be removed from his stable in Salisbury, under any circumstances, during the Season. [March 13, 1840.] MATCHLESS NATIVE. THIS invaluable Medicine is for sale by the subscriber, at Milldeleville, Montgomery co., N. C. W. E. BRADGE. February 21, 1840.

Having, as he conceives, a thorough knowledge of his business, he feels no hesitation in assuring those who may wish to patronize him, that their work shall be done in the very best style, strong, and on accommodating terms.

An Impostor! WE most sincerely regret, that cases of hypocrisy so often occur among the clerical ranks—and we hope the "wolf in sheep's clothing," named in the following letter, from Mr. Mayhew, will receive his just deserts for imposing upon the community. Pass him along, brother typos, that he may be held up to universal contempt, and thus save many from becoming his dupes.

NEW YORK, December 17, 1839. SIR: Although I am not personally acquainted with you, I trust, when you perceive the object of my letter, you will excuse the liberty I take in addressing you. It is possible, you may not be aware that a man, by the name of ENOS L. FENWICK, now in this city, (formerly a Baptist preacher, and familiarly known to the citizens of Monroe County as the "Reverend Impostor,") is manufacturing a medicine and selling it for the Matchless Sanative, of which, I perceive, you are the general Agent. I have every reason to believe, sir, that Mr. Fenwick is an unprincipled man, as he was, not long since, deposed from the ministry; for taking unwarrantable liberties with members of his church; I, therefore, as the enemy of knavery, feel anxious that he should be speedily exposed, lest many of my fellow-citizens should be defrauded by him out of their money, if not their characters. I deem it the conscientious duty of every man, to expose villainy and vice wherever and whenever he meets it. Besides, sir, another consideration should prompt me to make known to you the above facts: I have a daughter, who, thank God, has been raised from a wasting skeleton to perfect health—and that, too, by the simple means of using one vial and a half of the Matchless Sanative, which I bought at 252 Broadway, of C. St. Francis, your agent for this city. Believing that you will duly appreciate the motives which have induced me to address you thus unceremoniously, and hoping that you will take the earliest steps to expose to the world the base Impostor, Fenwick; I subscribe myself, Sir, very respectfully, J. P. MAYHEW.

Dr. David S. Rowland, Brevon, Mass. P. S.—Mr. Jones, the bearer, who is about to start for your city, will hand you this letter, and, if you desire, he will give you a more detailed account of Fenwick, than it would be possible for me to do on paper. J. P. M.

REVEREND IMPOSTOR!! LOOK OUT! Look out!! look out for an INFAMOUS KNAVE, by the name of ENOS L. FENWICK, of New York, who was formerly a BAPTIST PREACHER, and better known to the citizens of Monroe County as the "REVEREND IMPOSTOR," the soulless WILLIAN, who was dismissed from the pulpit, sometime since, for improper conduct, is now rendering himself still more infamous, by wickedly attempting to impose not merely upon the Church, but upon the WHOLE COMMUNITY.

A few months ago, this Scoundrel wrote to the subscriber at Boston, and wished to be appointed an agent for the sale of the Matchless Sanative. The General Agent, not knowing his depraved character, gave him an agency, and forwarded him a quantity of the medicine. This he soon sold, and remitted the money, and ordered another lot, which was sent about one month since.—To avoid any suspicion as to the design of his applying for an agency, or to conceal his "Clever Foot," he made a partial remittance of the sales of the last lot, only ten days ago. Yesterday, with utter Astonishment, the General Agent learnt that this Reverend Deceiver is now impudently manufacturing with his own shabby hands a worthless medicine,—a spurious Sanative, which he is employing swindling peddlers to palm upon the public as the Genuine Original.

If the people of America will only bear one fact in mind, there is not even a possibility of their being duped by this unprincipled villain. The fact is this:—No Pedler or travelling Agent has ever been employed in this country to sell the Sanative, or to leave it with any person to sell on commission. Again, every Agent of the true Sanative, is appointed by the General Agent, and receives the medicine directly from the Depository in Boston.

Let all who buy the Sanative, (and almost every body does buy it,) remember the above facts, and they may be sure of obtaining the Genuine Original Compound. N. B.—Every Agent of the Matchless Sanative, is earnestly desired to give an immediate alarm, by having this article inserted one month in all the papers in their towns. And that the General Agent may be certain that the public are put on the Look-Out for the Impostor, he will kindly thank all his Agents to forward him a copy of each paper advertised in, as soon as possible. D. S. ROWLAND, General American Agent, Depository No. 188, Dec. 20, 1839. Washington St., Boston.
