

Great Western Stage Line.

FROM SALISBURY to ASHEVILLE, N. C.

Arrangement for 1840.

THE above line is now in full operation, and arrives at, and departs from Salisbury as follows...

N. B. Passengers leaving Raleigh, N. C., for Nashville, Tennessee, will find no delay whatever on this route.

LA LATH, Grandchild of the AMERICAN ECLIPSE, the Champion of America—Winner of the Great Match Race, the North against the South—$20,000 aside!

THE THOROUGH-BRED HORSE, LATE,

BRED by Col. Wade Hampton of South Carolina, will make his second season at Salisbury which commenced on the 21st ultimo...

PEDIGREE:

I certify that LATH was bred by me, and that he is a pure bred horse of the Spring of 1835.

DESCRIPTION PERFORMANCE, &c.—LATH is a fine bay without white, 15 hands 3 inches high, with good bone and capital action.

At 4 years old, he won the jockey club purse, four mile heats, at Camden, beating Sir Kenneth and Dorabella at three furlongs; losing the Judge's stake, and getting entangled amongst the carriage; he sustained an injury which occasioned his withdrawal from the turf.

LATH was a race horse of the first class, which he evinced in his trials with Bay Maria, Charlotte Russ, and Kitty Hoth, and in point of blood he is inferior to none, whether imported or native.

From the above certificate of Col. Hampton, who bred and had Lath trained for the Turf, it will be seen that he considered him a race horse of the first class—not only from the races he has mentioned as having run publicly, but from private trials he has made with horses which are now on the Turf, and coming with considerable success.

I consider it entirely unnecessary to attempt to eulogize Lath, either for his performances on the Turf or as to his blood, since in every respect he is well attested. But will remark, that Lath has not only descended from pure blood, but has come from stock both sire and grand-sire, dam and grand-dam, that are of the running blood.

The public is now presented with such an opportunity of improving the blood of that noble and useful animal, the Horse, as rarely occurs in this section of country.

N. B. Mares sent from a distance will always find Lath at home, as he will not be removed from his stable at Salisbury, under any circumstances, during the season.

WE most sincerely regret, that cases of hypocrisy so often occur among the clerical ranks;—and we hope the "wolf in sheep's clothing," named in the following letter, from Mr. Mayhew, will receive his just deserts for imposing upon the community. Pass him along, brother types, that he may be held up to universal contempt, and thus save many from becoming his dupes.

Dr. David S. Rowland, Boston, Mass. P. S.—Mr. Jones, the bearer, who is about to start for your city, will hand you this letter, and, if you desire, he will give you a more detailed account of Fewick, than it would be possible for me to do on paper.
