"LIEK GELINT PERLES AT RANDOM STRONG"

THE SOUND OF THE SEA.

They are coming on, they are coming on,
Forever and the same!

On a rocky - glorious voice is gone,
From the rich bowels of earth,

The Dorian flute that sighed of yore Along the waves is still;

And Memnon's lute hath lost the chord That breathed the mystic tones;

And mute the Moorish horn that rang O'er stream and mountain tree;

But thou art swelling on, thou deep, Through many an olden elm;

Thou fliest up thy solemn voice To every wind and sky;

It fills the noonday's calm profound,
The sun-set's heaven of gold;

Let thine be sterner, deep and strange, Where sceptic cities rose!

Thou speakest of one who doth not change—So may our hearts repose.

MISCELLANEOUS.

EVENTS OF THE CAMANCHE TREATY

The fight growing out of the late attempt to talk with the Camanches at San Antonio, was very unexpected on both sides;

Among the number was Capt. Matthew Caldwell, 1st reg't. infantry, (an old frontier man.)

At this juncture, Jno. D. Morris, Esq., was passing the door, and discovered the critical condition of Capt. C. and immediately came to his assistance.

Mr. Morgan of San Antonio (one of the old deal Smith's men) was attacked in a yard surrounded by a high stone wall.

where he was a spectator, at the commencement of the fight; he was nearly out of the door, and was endeavoring to leave the place.

A few of the Indians attempted to make their escape by flight, and were pursued by Col. Ly-sander Wells, and four or five gentlemen who had just mounted their horses to take a ride.

The whole company were badly armed; Col. Wells had one of Gold's repeating pistols. An Indian warrior seized his horse by the tail, and attempted to jump up behind him. But the horse was fiery and restive, and he could not succeed;

One took possession of a store-house, and refused all proffers of capitulation. With his bow and quiver he guarded the main passage; it being after night and quite dark no one could enter the door without the certainty of death.

LA LATH,

Grandchild of the AMERICAN ECLIPSE, the Champion of America—Winner of the Great Match Race, the North against the South—$20,000 aside!

THE THOROUGH-BRED HORSE, LATH,

BRED by Col. Wade Hampton of South Carolina, will make his second Season at Salisbury, which commenced on the 21st ultimo, and will end on the 20th of June next, at $20 the Season, and $30 to insure, the money to be paid as soon as the Mare is ascertained to be in foal, or the property changes owners; and fifty cents to the groom.—

Mares sent from a distance will be well attended to, and fed with grain at 30 cents per day.
To those that wish it, a good lot will be furnished gratis; but in no instance will I be responsible for accidents or escapes. R. W. LONG.

Salisbury, N. C., March 13, 1840. 25-r

PEDIGREE:

I Certify that LATH was bred by me, and that he was foaled in the Spring of 1833. He was got by Godolphin, his dam Pocahontas, by Sir Archy; his grand-dam Young Lottery; also by Sir Archy, out of Col. Singleton's celebrated Lottery, by imported Bedford out of the imported mare Anvillina. Godolphin was got by Eclipse; his dam Sylph, by Haphesition out of Lottery by imported Bedford, &c. Haphesition was got by the imported Buzzard out of the dam of Sir Archy.

DESCRIPTION, PERFORMANCE, &c.

LATH is a fine bay, without white, 15 hands 3 inches high, with good bone and capital action. At three years old, he won the produce stake at Columbia, two mile heats, beating Mr. Taylor's filly, Daisy, and Captain Span's colt, Convention, nine others paying forfeit. Two weeks afterwards he won the jockey club purse, three mile heats, at Augusta, beating Kite and distancing Black Bird.

At Charleston, he was beaten by Clodpoper for the jockey club purse, three mile heats; being very much amiss, he was drawn after the first heat.—

At 4 years old, he won the jockey club purse, four mile heats, at Camden, beating Sir Kenneth and Dagobella at three heats; losing the first in consequence of bolting when several lengths in advance of the field, just before he reached the Judges' stand; and getting entangled amongst the carriages, he sustained an injury which occasioned his withdrawal from the turf.

Lath was a race Horse of the first class, which he evinced in his trials with Bay Maria, Charlotte Russe, and Kitty Heth, and in point of blood he is inferior to none, whether imported or native. His constitution is robust, he having never been sick, and his temper good. His color, form, and action speak for themselves. In a word, Lath unites in himself as many claims to public patronage as any young Stallion that I know.

WADE HAMPTON.

Willwood, Jan. 22, 1839.

From the above certificate of Col. Hampton, who bred and had Lath trained for the Turf, it will be seen that he considered him a race horse of the first class—not only from the races he has mentioned as having run publicly, but from private trials he has made with horses which are now on the Turf, and running with considerable success. It will also be observed by his certificate, that he considered Lath of the purest blood—not to be surpassed by any horse, imported or native.

I consider it entirely unnecessary to attempt to eulogize Lath, either for his performances on the Turf or as to his blood, since in every respect he is so well attested. But will remark, that Lath has not only descended from pure blood, but has come from stock both sire and grand-sire, dam and grand-dam, that are of the running blood. For instance, his sire, Godolphin, made his four miles in 7 minutes and 50 seconds; his grand-sire, the American Eclipse, so well known at the north and south, made his time in the great match race, the north against the south, $20,000 aside, in 7 minutes and 37 seconds, which Eclipse won with considerable eclat. This race gained him the memorable name of the champion of the north. His dam sired by the renowned Sir Archy, whose reputation as a racer, &c., stands unquestioned, both in England and America. The grand dam of Lath, Old Lottery, bred by the great southern amateur of horses, Col. R. Singleton of South Carolina, has produced more fine race horses than any other mare in the Union. Thus, it will be seen that there is united in Lath two of the best studs in the south, Hampton's and Singleton's, crossed with Gen. Coles' of the north.

The public is now presented with such an opportunity of improving the blood of that noble and useful animal, the Horse, as rarely occurs in this section of country. And the public can have in addition, in a short time, the opportunity of judging more satisfactorily of Lath's blood, &c., by his colts of last Spring's get, as it is expected there will be many of them dropped by mares in this section in a few days. As a sure get-getter Lath stands almost unrivalled, as is proven by his last Spring's services—so few of the large number of mares put to him not proving in foal.

R. W. L.
N. B. Mares sent from a distance will always find Lath at home, as he will not be removed from his stable in Salisbury, under any circumstances, during the Season. [March 13, 1840.]

Moffat's Life Pills & Bitters.

THESE Medicines are indolent for their name to their manifest and sensible action in purifying the springs and channels of life, and ending them with renewed tone and vigor. In many hundred certified cases which have been made public, and in almost every species of disease to which the human frame is liable, the happy effects of MOFFAT'S LIFE PILLS AND PHENIX BITTERS have been gratefully and publicly acknowledged by the persons benefited, and who were previously unacquainted with the beautifully philosophical principles upon which they are compounded, and upon which they consequently act.

The LIFE MEDICINES recommend themselves in diseases of every description. Their first operation is to loosen from the coats of the stomach and bowels, the various impurities and crudities constantly settling around them; and to remove the hardened feces which collect in the convolutions of the small intestines. Other medicines only partially cleanse these, and leave such collected masses behind as to produce habitual costiveness, with all its train of evils, or sudden diarrhoea, with its imminent dangers. This fact is well known to all regular anatomists, who examine the human bowels after death; and hence the prejudice of the public by ignorant persons. The second effect of the Life Medicines is to cleanse the kidneys and the bladder, and by this means, the liver and the lungs, the healthful action of which entirely depends upon the regularity of the urinary organs. The blood, which takes its red color from the agency of the liver and the lungs before it passes into the heart, being thus purified by them, and nourished by food coming from a clean stomach, courses freely through the veins, renews every part of the system, and triumphantly mounts the banner of health in the blooming cheek.

Moffat's Vegetable Life Medicines have been thoroughly tested, and pronounced a sovereign remedy for Dyspepsia, Flatulency, Palpitation of the Heart, Loss of Appetite, Heart-burn and Gas, Ache, Restlessness, Ill temper, Anxiety, Bloating and Melancholy, Costiveness, Diarrhoea, Cholera, Fever, of all kinds, Rheumatism, Gout, Drops of all kinds, Gravel, Worms, Asthma and Consumption, Scurvy, Ulcers, Invererate Sores, Scorbute, Eruptions and Bad Complexion, Eruptive complaints, Sallow, Cloudy, and other disagreeable Complexions, Salt Rheum, Erysipelas, Common Colds and Influenza, and various other complaints which afflict the human frame. In Fever and Ague, particularly, the Life Medicines have been most eminently successful; so much so, that in the Fever and Ague Districts, Physicians almost universally prescribe them.

All that Mr. Moffat requires of his patients is to be particular in taking the Life Medicines strictly according to the directions. It is not by a new paper notice, or by any thing that he himself may say in their favor, that he hopes to gain credit. It is alone by the results of a fair trial.

MOFFAT'S MEDICAL MANUAL: designed as a domestic guide to health.—This little pamphlet, edited by W. B. Moffat, 375 Broadway, New York, has been published for the purpose of explaining more fully Mr. Moffat's theory of disease, and will be found highly interesting to persons seeking health. It treats upon prevalent diseases, and the causes thereof. Price 25 cents—for sale by Mr. Moffat's agents, generally.

To Owners of Mills.

THE Subscriber has an improved patent Spindle Mills, by which, a mill will do much better than with the usual form of spindles. It is so constructed as to keep from heating or killing the meal in any manner.—The runner is so confined by the Spindle, as to ways to preserve its balance, and of course there is no rubbing of the stones.

I think, by this improved Spindle, the same water will do at least one-third more business, and the yield of superior quality.

Any person wishing to use one of these Spindles may obtain one or more, by making application, (within a short time) to the Subscriber at Mocksville, Davie Co. N. C. I think the probable cost will not exceed $30 for the Patent and Spindle ready for use.
