

all signatures in favor of such an institution...

What does this mean? It means that the election of Harrison is the era for the restoration of those abominable doctrines and practices...

It is our melancholy duty to record the death of Dr. BENJAMIN ADAMS, some time since the associate Editor of this paper...

THE CAROLINIAN. Salisbury, Friday, Aug. 14, 1840.

It is our melancholy duty to record the death of Dr. BENJAMIN ADAMS, some time since the associate Editor of this paper, and lately Deputy Marshal for Rowan county.

As was to be expected, the whole Federal Ticket has been elected in the County and Davis, by a vote which shows that a most extraordinary revolution has taken place in the voters' count.

NORTH CAROLINA ELECTIONS.

- The following are all the returns we have received in addition to what we gave in our last: Beaufort—Senate, Selby; Commons, Allen and Williams, all Federalists.

A TABLE.

Table with 5 columns: Counties, Merchants, Sunders, Dudley, Spaight. Lists election results for various counties like Warren, Franklin, Granville, etc.

ANDERSON'S SECRET LETTER. We have another "secret" letter, we intended for the public eye from the Federal candidate, Gen. Harrison.

He will neither speak nor write his opinions on great and important questions openly, but he makes secret pledges with particular care that they shall not be exposed.

Pretty innocuous it is indeed, for the "ignorant people" to ask a candidate for the Presidency his opinions and principles!

The closing of the letter is in these words: "I beg you to consider this letter as confidential, not on any account to be used or alluded to in any publication."

A WARNING. We have no where seen a declaration of the Federal Harrison party so full of truth, so pregnant with warning, and so appropriately descriptive of their policy as the motto on one of the flags at the Federal parade in Baltimore.

WE MEANT NEXT WEEK TO lay before our readers a speech of Gen. Lincoln of Massachusetts, made in the House of Representatives, on the 16th April last, in reply to Mr. Ogile of Pennsylvania.

At the moment the Queen was bowing to the crowd, a pistol shot was fired, which happily passed over the phalanx, and in an instant another followed from the same hand, which most fortunately failed in its object.

Attempt to Assassinate the Queen of England.—Late English papers contain the details of an attempt to assassinate the Queen, while riding in an open carriage, with her husband Prince Albert, in London.

At the moment the Queen was bowing to the crowd, a pistol shot was fired, which happily passed over the phalanx, and in an instant another followed from the same hand.

On searching his baggage, a black cravat cap was discovered, a sword, with powder and ball buried in its hilt, and a set of some foreign scriptures were also found.

Since the passage of the State Bankruptcy law, a revival of business and confidence has taken place in New York and Philadelphia.

There are no less than five different lives of Harrison, written to suit the particular tastes of different sections of the United States, some calculated for Southern latitudes, others for Abolition organs.

Electors have taken place the first of this month in Alabama, Missouri, Illinois, Kentucky and Indiana, for State Officers.

THE FULL RETURNS from this State at last received, give 3 Federal and 1 Republican Members of Congress elected.

JEFFERSON, ASH-COURT, N. C. July 20, 1840. Mr. FOSTER—Sir: Will you please contradict in your valuable paper, a false story now in circulation in some parts of Ireland.

Col. Bower is one of the candidates for Elector on the Republican Ticket, pledged, it is alleged, to vote for Mr. Van Buren as President, and Col. R. M. Johnson as Vice President.

FOR THE WESTERN CAROLINIAN. Mr. Editor: I beg to inform you that a President of the United States, the President, never always in power.

FOR THE WESTERN CAROLINIAN. Mr. Editor: I beg to inform you that a President of the United States, the President, never always in power.

From the Carolina Watchman. THE PETERSBURG FLAG. Messrs. Editors: I have been favored by a friend with a number of the Petersburg Statesman, containing an article accusing one of attempting to practice a deception in presenting to the assembly here on the 4th of July, a flag which I represented as that of the Petersburg Volunteer Company.

Messrs. Editors: I have been favored by a friend with a number of the Petersburg Statesman, containing an article accusing one of attempting to practice a deception in presenting to the assembly here on the 4th of July, a flag which I represented as that of the Petersburg Volunteer Company.

At the moment the Queen was bowing to the crowd, a pistol shot was fired, which happily passed over the phalanx, and in an instant another followed from the same hand, which most fortunately failed in its object.

At the moment the Queen was bowing to the crowd, a pistol shot was fired, which happily passed over the phalanx, and in an instant another followed from the same hand, which most fortunately failed in its object.

At the moment the Queen was bowing to the crowd, a pistol shot was fired, which happily passed over the phalanx, and in an instant another followed from the same hand, which most fortunately failed in its object.

As to the fact, that this Flag was many years ago in my mother's family with this important tradition attached to it, I refer to Dr. Jas. F. Martin, of Mocksville, and his brother and sisters; to Hugh Martin, Esq., of Stokes, and his lady; to Judge James Morris, of Mohale, Alabama, who are all descendants of my mother's late husband, Capt. Martin, and who know that I have spoken nothing but what we all believed to be true.

Dr. P. Henderson of this town, I think has the letter spoken of above, from my uncle to my mother, but he cannot now lay his hands on it.

To show that my uncle was entirely above attempting an imposition of this kind, I refer to Major James Sneed, of this place, who was well acquainted with him.

The facts and circumstances relating to this affair, are of ancient date, many of the persons who might aid me in explaining them are dead, and with none of the others have I had an opportunity of communicating since this publication made its appearance.

FOR THE WESTERN CAROLINIAN. Mr. Editor: I beg to inform you that a President of the United States, the President, never always in power.

FOR THE WESTERN CAROLINIAN. Mr. Editor: I beg to inform you that a President of the United States, the President, never always in power.

FOR THE WESTERN CAROLINIAN. Mr. Editor: I beg to inform you that a President of the United States, the President, never always in power.

FOR THE WESTERN CAROLINIAN. Mr. Editor: I beg to inform you that a President of the United States, the President, never always in power.

FOR THE WESTERN CAROLINIAN. Mr. Editor: I beg to inform you that a President of the United States, the President, never always in power.

FOR THE WESTERN CAROLINIAN. Mr. Editor: I beg to inform you that a President of the United States, the President, never always in power.

FOR THE WESTERN CAROLINIAN. Mr. Editor: I beg to inform you that a President of the United States, the President, never always in power.

FOR THE WESTERN CAROLINIAN. Mr. Editor: I beg to inform you that a President of the United States, the President, never always in power.

FOR THE WESTERN CAROLINIAN. Mr. Editor: I beg to inform you that a President of the United States, the President, never always in power.

FOR THE WESTERN CAROLINIAN. Mr. Editor: I beg to inform you that a President of the United States, the President, never always in power.

HARRISON MOTTOES: 1. "The blood be upon Crayton's own head, I WASH MY HANDS OF IT." [Harrison's declaration prior to the battle at Fort Mifflin.]

2. "HERE WITH RESIGNATION the post of commander in chief of the North Western Army." [Harrison's letter of resignation in the middle of the war.]

3. "A son of the Senate of the United States has attached to MY NAME A DISGRACE, which I am convinced that no time or no effort of mine will ever be able to erase." [Harrison's Letter, See Niles' Register, Vol. 10, page 124.]

4. "Upon a wife which was as filthy a DISGRACE to my character, which will follow me to the grave, and which will stain the blush of shame to rise upon the cheeks of my children, should they not have passed it—Simeon Letter." [Harrison's Letter, published in the Cincinnati papers some years ago.]

5. "As I was upon terms of intimacy with the gentleman, (Mr. Randolph) it is very probable to lead me to express sentiments FAVORABLE to the Administration of the Elder Adams. I certainly FEEL THEM." [Harrison's speech reported in Giles & Stone's Congressional Debates, Vol. 2, part 1, page 356.]

6. "For Mr. Adams I entertained at that time, (1800) and I have EVER SINCE entertained the HIGHEST RESPECT. I believed him to be no honest man a pure patriot, and his CONDUCT proved him to be such." [Same Speech.]

7. "At the age of 18, I became a member of an ABOLITION SOCIETY, established at Richmond, the object of which was to procure the freedom of SLAVES, by every legal means." [Harrison's Letter, published in the Cincinnati papers some years ago.]

8. "I have ever believed, that every Elector has a right to call upon those who offer their services to the People for an avowal of sentiment, and that the candidates ARE BOUND TO ANSWER IT." [Harrison's Letter published in the Cincinnati papers, Sept. 14, 1832.]

Political Bread Puns.—Some of the Federal aristocrats of this city are sporting, inasmuch as the shape of "log cabins" and "cider barrels" made of gold, and costing perhaps from five to ten dollars.

Health of New Orleans.—The city continues remarkably healthy. We have had for the last eight or ten days, copious and refreshing showers every day.

There are persons, we believe, who suppose that the Independent Treasury act requires from the first, that all debts due to the United States shall be paid in specie.

Business of Congress.—It is stated by the Washington correspondent of the New York Express, that the number of bills public and private, passed upon by Congress, which has now been in session six months and a half, is forty; while the number of bills reported, and not acted upon, is between one and two thousand.

In this County, on the 15th inst. by Jacob S. Myers, Esq. Mr. CHARLES FRALEY to Miss ELIZA BARNHART.

In this County, on the 3rd inst. after a protracted and painful illness, Mrs. ELIZA C. BOROUGHS aged about 24 years.