To Owners of Mills.

THE Subscriber has an improved Patent Spindle for Mills, by which, a mill will do much better than with the usual form of Spindles. It is so constructed as to keep from heating or killing the meal in any manner. The runner is so confined by the Spindle as always to preserve its balance, and of course there is no rubbing of the stones.

I think, by this improved Spindle, the same water will do at least one-third more business, and the meal of superior quality.

Any person wishing to use one of these Spindles, may obtain one or more, by making application, (within a short time) to the Subscriber at Mocksville, Davie Co. N. C. I think the probable cost will not exceed $30 for the Patent and Spindle ready for use.

The following persons have my Patent Mill Spindle in successful operation:—Col. W. F. Kelly, Thos. Foster, Joseph Hall and Sam'l. Foster of Davie County; Gilbert Dickson and David J. Remond of Lincoln; Charles Griffith of Rowan; Addison Moore of Davidson; and William Doss of Surry; all of whom are highly pleased with its performance.

PROSPECTUS

OF THE

MECKLENBURG JEFFERSONIAN.

It is proposed to establish in the Town of Charlotte, Mecklenburg County, N. C., a weekly newspaper, under the above title, to be edited and published by the subscriber. The publication of the "MECKLENBURG JEFFERSONIAN" will commence by the 1st of January next, or as soon as materials can be procured. It will be printed with entirely new and fair type, on paper of the best quality, and abridged to subscribers at $2 50 in advance, (on the receipt of the free number,) or $3 if not paid in advance.

The present is the first effort that has been made to establish an organ at the birth-place of American Independence, through which the doctrines of the Democratic party could be freely promulgated and defended, in which the great principles of Liberty and Equality for which the Alexanders, the Polks, and their brave compatriots perished their all, on the 20th May, 1776, could find at all times an unflinching advocate. Its success rests chiefly with the Republican party of Mecklenburg—and to them, and the Republicans of the surrounding country, the appeal is now made for support.

The JEFFERSONIAN will assume as its policy, to create, those landmarks of the Republican party, the doctrines set forth in the Kentucky and Virginia Resolutions, believing, as the undersigned does, that the stability of these papers, who bore a conspicuous part in framing our system of Government, were best qualified to lend down to posterity a correct exposition of its true spirit—the best judges of what powers were delegated by what what powers to the States.

It will oppose, as dangerous to our free institutions, the spirit of monopoly, which has been steadily, and steadily increasing in the country from the foundation of our Government. The most odious feature in its system is that it robs the many, imperceptibly, to enrich the few.—It clothes a few wealthy individuals with power not only to control the wages of the laboring man, but also to their pleasure to inflate or depress the commerce and business of the whole country—exciting a spirit of extravagance, which is detrimental to pecuniary ruin, and to the moral degradation of its victims. This system must be thoroughly reformed before we can hope to see settled property more alike upon all our citizens. To aid in promoting this reform, will be one of the main objects of the JEFFERSONIAN.

It will also oppose, as dangerous to the Republic, partial legislation, under whatever guise granted by our Legislatures; and therefore, will oppose the chartering of a United States Bank; internal improvements by the Federal Government, a revival of the Tarif System, and the new Federal scheme of the General Government assuming to pay to foreign money changers the two hundred millions of dollars, borrowed by a few States for local purposes.

As a question of vital importance to the South, and one which, from various causes, is every day assuming a more momentous and awful aspect, the JEFFERSONIAN will keep its readers regularly and accurately advised on the subject of Northern Abolitionism. It must be evident to all candid observers, that the present progress of the South has hitherto been too slow upon this subject. We shall, therefore, without flinching, be denounced as an alarmist, lead our humane aid to assist in awakening the People of the South in due vigilance and a sense of their real danger.

While a portion of the columns of the JEFFERSONIAN will be devoted to political discussion, the great interests of Morals, Literature, Agriculture, and the Mechanics Arts, shall not be neglected. With the choicest selections on these subjects, and a due quantity of high reading, the Editor hopes to render his sheet agreeable and profitable to all classes in Society.

Orders for the paper, addressed, postage paid, to the Editor of the Jeffersonian, Charlotte, N. C., will be promptly complied with.

Any person who will procure six subscribers, and be responsible for their subscriptions, shall have a number of the paper gratis.

Subscribers are requested to send by Agents of the paper, in receiving and forwarding subscribers' names and subscriptions.
