MISCELLANEOUS.

A CAPITAL STORY.

The last New York Spirit of the Times has an admirable story called 'The Big Bear of Arkansas.' It is rather too long for a daily paper...

Exciting Discusion. Our readers must have noticed the frequent and ridiculous scenes which occur in Congress...

and a mattress of bear skins to sleep on, and a wild cat-skin, pulled off hull, stuffed with corn stalks for a pillow. That bed would put you to sleep if you had the rheumatics in every joint in your body...

RATES OF INTEREST.

The following are the rates of interest in the States and Territories of the Union, together with the punishment of usury. It is a valuable statement, and should be preserved.

Maine, 6 per cent—forfeit of the debt or claim. New Hampshire, 6 per cent—forfeit of three times the amount unlawfully taken.

Delaware, 6 per cent—forfeit of the whole debt. Maryland, 6 per cent—on tobacco contracts 8 per cent.

Missouri, 6 per cent—by agreement, as high as 10—beyond, forfeit of the whole interest due, and of the usury taken.

Florida, 8 per cent—forfeit of interest and excess in case of usury. Wisconsin, 7 per cent—by agreement not over 12—beyond forfeit the excess.

The Importance of Water.—The best water for horses is soft, fresh, and pure rain, river, or pond water; and it is absolutely necessary, to preserve health in the stable, that a constant and ample supply should be on the premises.

Brevity the Soul of Wit.—The celebrated Dr. Abernethy is a man of uncommon brevity of expression. A lady who was acquainted with his peculiarity of the Doctor, once called upon him with one of her arms badly burnt, for advice, when the following dialogue took place:

Mrs. B.—[Exposing her arm.] "A burn." Doctor.—"I see it is; poultice it." [Here he wrote a prescription for a poultice and handed her.]

Politeness.—Rev. Mr. — had travelled far to preach to a congregation at —. After the sermon he waited very patiently, expecting some one of the brethren to invite him home to dinner.

Cooking Beets.—They say i. e. some newspaper says so; for if a lie is circulating, and no author can be found, it is an established rule of society to saddle it on a newspaper; a rule founded on the very correct principle that where we find an effect we must suppose there was an antecedent cause, adequate to its production; and as newspapers are universally considered adequate to the production of a lie, it is very natural to refer all fatherless lies to this great causative power.

The hardest kind of Love.—A Western lover, in addressing the mistress of his heart, told her he loved her as hard as a cannon could shoot.

Two sons of Ibernia being a ducking, Pat discovered a large bed of ducks along by the shore. After having his piece levelled for about five minutes, his companion asked him why he didn't fire.

Birmingham Wood.—Shakespeare speaks of Birmingham Wood coming to Bunsen. The Chicago American wishes that Birmingham Wood would come to that office, and pay up his subscription.
