

NORTH CAROLINA.

It is the able speech of Mr. Rhett of South Carolina on the General Appropriation Bill, delivered in the House of Representatives on the 19th of February last. It is a just and proper expression of the honor which is due to our unassuming but the less proud State. The allusion was made to Mr. Rhett as will be seen in reply to the speech...

Col. David S. Reid is the Democratic candidate for Congress in the 9th District, lately represented by Mr. Hill. If the true Democracy, the old opponents of old Federalism, rally to the polls as they ought, Col. Reid will do his opponent this year as Mr. Hill did the last contest—leave him to bring up the rear.

runney were—"brought on by the efforts to break down the Banks of New York, the real cause of all the disasters of the Bank of the United States." Here is a precious confession.—The Federalists call for a King Bank mainly to "regulate" the State Banks. This is a specimen of regulation with a vengeance. And this is precisely the kind of regulation we should always have performed by a National monopoly Bank. It would "break down" the State Institutions that did not acknowledge and obey its authority, as Mr. Biddle says his old enemies attempted to do.

Virginia Elections.—So far as we have heard from the elections in Virginia, which took place last week, there is every prospect that the Democracy of the old Dominion will come out of the contest with increased majorities on their triumph of last Fall.

achieved; I have only to rest." But it was not so. I have heard, and believe it, that previous to his departure for Washington, he had received hundreds of letters, and he was absolutely run down by visitors from every part of the Union in quest of office.

comes on, and the mourning... the case with the President... broken expressions... and pulling the hair out... and pressing on it... This was the case... first of March... whose personal application... President... political friends... well first heard of in the morning... from his family... wife of his family... children are dead... had accompanied him to Washington... but without the power to... relieve his feelings... to know that they are passing... friends, he departs a whole... of subsistence... members of Christian Churches... stand here with their... on the case of the President's... their pay; but where are... children who have no... ing under a delusion... tracted mind were... cruel policy of... stantly exclaiming... he had ended... It was in this way... who will say he was not... A. W. M.

Blanks for...

Blanks for...

Blanks for...

Blanks for...

Blanks for...

Blanks for...