

WESTERN CAROLINIAN. SALISBURY, N. C. Friday, January 31, 1842.

THE DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION.

The full proceedings of the Democratic Convention which assembled in Raleigh on the 10th instant, will not reach us in time for this paper, so that we shall not be able to lay them before our readers till next week.

We some time ago expressed our opinion that the call of the Convention in the dead of winter and on a notice so short as the one given, was beyond dispute badly advised.

The Editor of the Raleigh Register, however, seems to be perfectly satisfied that it was "an utter failure,"—a "flash in the pan," and chuckles no little at the very thought of it.

The Legislature of Virginia has passed a law entitled "an act for the relief of the Banks of this Commonwealth,"—which suspends till 1st April next the action of any existing law for the recovery of debts of the Banks, and also the law enforcing twelve per cent interest for non-payment of demand after the 1st of the present month.

More Bank robbery.—The cash accounts of the first and second Teller of the Commercial Bank of New Orleans, has been found deficient in the amount of $26,143 15.

Whig economy commenced.—Yes, actually commenced already! Think of that ye who have doubted whether it would ever begin, and take shame for your want of faith.

The Whig majority in Congress are doing but little good, for either their constituents or the country it seems, according to the National Intelligencer; that paper of the 6th inst., says:—

Georgia Election.—Returns from a sufficient number of counties have been received to render it certain that the Democratic candidates, Messrs. Cooper, Calhoun, and Black, have been elected to Congress by a majority of some thousands to fill the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of three of the Whigs.

principles. These three faithful Republicans were denounced and proscribed by whiggery in 1840 because they preferred their principles to soon skins, and now the people of Georgia have rewarded them with confidence and honor for their firmness and honesty.

The reign of Federal whiggery in Georgia is no more.

CONVENTION IN MAY NEXT.

The Democratic Convention lately held in Raleigh, after nominating Mr. Henry, adjourned to meet in this place on the 20th of May next.

The Alien and Sedition law spirit.—In a late charge to the Grand Jury of New York, Judge Noah took occasion to allude to the tone of the newspaper press of the country towards the Banks, and the attacks of independent journals on the iniquities of these corrupt machines.

His Honor, it is clear, has lost none of his old grateful zeal in his new vocation. No doubt Bidle and other innocent honest managers of rotten swindling shops are strongly impressed with the same opinion of the abuse mentioned, by which they have suffered so much in character and credit.

The Legislature of Indiana has passed a resolution suspending the sale of personal property under execution till the first of February next, before which time it is expected that a general stay law will be enacted.

We have received the first number of the "State Rights Republican," a new Democratic paper, as its name indicates, just established in Richmond, Va., by Mr. Fisk, and edited by Messrs. Fisk & Metzger.

Tremendous Bank Riot.

We have just received by to-day's mail an account of a most terrible riot in Cincinnati, Ohio. As our paper is now going to press we have neither time nor room for particulars;—we will give them next week.

Let those who are accustomed ignorantly to sneer at the efforts of the cut-throat Abolition incendiaries of the Free States, awake work and contemptible for the notice of the South, read the proceedings in the United States Senate, on the 11th inst., and their eyes may be opened a little.

Near a million of dollars are wanted now to enable the Treasury to meet its engagements. "Madisonian."

Rhode Island.—This we State has heretofore been governed, in lieu of a Constitution, by the charter obtained from King Charles on its settlement as a British Colony, and which limited the right of suffrage to free holders, and disfranchised the great body of the people.

A Convention of rail-road delegates has lately been held in Washington City, at the invitation of the Postmaster General to consider his proposition, or some other, for giving them an advance payment to carry the United States mail on their roads.

The real estate of the City of Baltimore has been valued by assessors appointed under a law of the State, and the valuation amounts to $68,170,612—nearly sixty-eight and a quarter millions of dollars.

Mr. Delavan of New York City, has written and published a long letter against the use of wine in the ordinance of the sacrament, and as nothing is too ultra or absurd for the credulity of some folks, the fanatic has already a number of followers.

Some reminiscences of the treasons of Aaron Burr have lately been published by Mr. F. L. Claiborne, one of the editors of the Natchez Free Trader, and formerly a representative in Congress from Mississippi. He obtains them from documentary evidence preserved by Burr, which have for years lain dormant and unknown in the archives of his family, and have now fallen into his possession as he explains.

The secret has at last been discovered, at least, a Mississippi paper says so, and further, that a gentleman of that State, Dr. C. C. Eddy, has gone to Washington to secure a patent for a machine which is operated upon by condensed air, and so contrived that the air condenses itself.

We are pained to record the death by drowning of one of our most respected and estimable citizens, Col. Cassan Smith, formerly of Davidson, but for several years past a resident of this County, 5 miles South West of this place.

On Tuesday the 11th inst. in attempting to ford the River (Yadkin) in a gig with a negro boy 12 years of age, at the Trading Ford, when it was much swollen, he was swept down by the current, as it is supposed, and himself, boy and horse were drowned.

The Cotton Crop of the United States—exports and consumption.—The Savannah (Geo.) Republican gives the following information which will be highly interesting as well as useful to cotton planters and those engaged in the trade of the article.

Table with columns for 'The total exports of 1841, were', 'Do. 1840', 'Deficiency in 1841', and 'Bales'. It lists export figures for various countries like Great Britain, France, and other ports.

Table with columns for 'The Cotton exports of the preceding year were as follows', and 'Bales'. It lists export figures for various regions like Great Britain, France, and other ports.

Table with columns for 'We annex an account of the home consumption', and 'Quantity consumed by, and stock remaining in the hands of United States manufacturers, Sept. 30, 1841'. It lists consumption figures for various states like Alabama, Georgia, and others.
