

VARIETY.

"Patrick," said an Irishman, "what botherin' long miles they have in Amerika."

Experience is the most eloquent of preachers, but he seldom finds a large congregation.

Warts.—The bark of a willow tree, burnt to ashes and mixed with strong vinegar and applied to the parts, will remove all warts, corns or excrescences on any part of the body.

The nourishment contained in corn cobs, it is said, is equal to about twice their weight in the best of hay.

"I wonder," said a little girl who had seen Fanny dance, "how it is that a lady who makes so much money, can't afford clothes enough to finish out the length of her frock."

"Face in this world," says John Newton, "two heaps of human happiness and misery; now if I can take but the smallest bit from one heap, and add to the other, I carry a point."

We agree with a contemporary, that there is the sweetness of philosophy, the beauty of fact, and the juice of justice, in around, and about, the following brief remarks: "In criticising a book, you are at liberty to criticise every page."

Poverty.—Poverty often proves a torch light, which kindles up an intellectual flame to brighten and beautify the whole moral world; while the glitter of gold blinds the vision of millions to their best interests, and finally leaves them in hopeless ignorance and disgrace.

A certain steamboat Captain had become popular on the river as a commander, and was about to take charge of a new boat, one of the handsomest that was ever built in the West.

The best story of the season—is from the Plaquemine Gazette:

"It is generally the case with editors, that when giving accounts of the destruction of lives and property, by fire, they first mention the particulars about the loss of life."

Deacon Sweet was an even tempered, good hearted sort of a man, and Mrs. S. was ditto; loved her husband, and was very economical in her habits.

"No!" replied the old man, grunting and then growing furious—"I haint bit, but I do darnd if I don't do it now, though!"

Swiftness of Man.—It is said that men who are used to it, will outrun horses, by holding their speed longer. A man will also run down a horse, for after he has travelled a few days, the horse will be quite tired, but the man will be as fresh for motion as at the beginning.

On the improvement of Time.—One of Lord Chesterfield's letters to his Son, is the following passage on the employment of time, which is much in point:

"There are a great many people, who think themselves employed all day, and who, if they were to cast up their accounts at night, would find that they had done just nothing."

Pray do you be so attentive to your pleasures as to your studies. In the latter, observe and reflect upon what you read; and in the former, be watchful and attentive to all that you see and hear; and never have it to say, as a thousand fools do, of things that were said and done before their faces.

THE FAMILY NEWSPAPER. THE PHILADELPHIA SATURDAY COURIER. WITH THE LARGEST CIRCULATION IN THE WORLD!!

The publishers of this old established and universally popular Family Journal, would deem it supererogatory to say a word in commendation of its past or present excellence and usefulness.

Every one should be proud to patronize the Philadelphia Saturday Courier, as by its unbroken series of original American Tales, by such native writers as Mrs. Caroline Lee Hentz, Mrs. St. Leon Loom, "The Lady of Maryland," Professor Ingraham, T. S. Arthur, Esq., Miss S. Sigwick, Miss Leslie, and many others, it has justly earned the title of the American Family Newspaper.

Determined to spare no expense in making the Saturday Courier a perfect model of a Universal Family Newspaper, of equal interest to all classes and persons of every nation, we have made arrangements to receive all the Magazines and papers of interest, published in England and on the Continent, the news and gems of which are immediately transferred to its columns, thus giving to emigrants, as well as others, a correct and connected account of whatever occurs of interest, either at home or abroad.

Particular care is taken to procure the earliest advices in reference to the prices of all kinds of Grain, Provision, Produce, &c., the state of Stocks, Banks, Money and Lands, and our extensive arrangements will hereafter render our Prices Current of inestimable interest to the traveller, the farmer, and all business classes whatsoever.

PROSPECTUS OF THE CONGRESSIONAL GLOBE AND APPENDIX. THESE works have now been published by us for ten consecutive sessions of Congress. Commencing with the session of 1823-4. They have had such wide circulation, and have been so universally approved and sought after by the public, that we deem it necessary only in this Prospectus to say that they will be continued at the next session of Congress, and to state, succinctly, their contents, the form in which they will be printed, and the prices for them.

The Congressional Globe is made up of the daily proceedings of the two Houses of Congress. The speeches of the members are abridged, or condensed, to bring them into a reasonable, or readable length. All the resolutions offered, or motions made, are given at length, in the mover's own words; and the yeas and nays on all the important questions. It is printed with small type—brevier and compressed—on a double royal sheet, in quarto form, each number containing 16 royal quarto pages. It is printed as fast as the business done in Congress furnishes matter enough for a number—usually six numbers, but sometimes two numbers, a week. We have invariably printed more numbers than there were weeks in a session.

The Appendix is made up of the President's annual message, the reports of the principal officers of the Government that accompany it, and all the long speeches of members of Congress, written out or revised by themselves. It is printed in the same form as the Congressional Globe, and usually makes up the same number of pages. Heretofore, on account of the great length of the Appendix until one or two months after the close of the session; but, in future, we intend to print the speeches as fast as they shall be prepared, and of course shall complete the work within a few days after the adjournment.

Each of these works is complete in itself; but it is necessary for every subscriber who desires a full knowledge of the proceedings of Congress, to have both; because, then, if there should be any ambiguity in the synopsis of the speeches, or any general of its correctness, as published in the Congressional Globe, the reader may refer to the Appendix to see the speech at length, corrected by the member himself.

Now there is no subject but the Congressional Globe and Appendix, from which a person can obtain a full knowledge of the proceedings of Congress. Gales and Seaton's Register of Debates, which contained a history, has been suspended for three or four years. It cost about five times as much for a session as the Congressional Globe and Appendix, and did not contain an equal amount of matter, a great portion of the current proceedings being omitted. We are enabled to print the Congressional Globe and Appendix at the low rate now proposed, by having a large quantity of type, and keeping the Congressional matter that we set up for the daily and semi-weekly Globes, standing for the Congressional Globe and Appendix. If we had to set up the matter properly for these works, we could not afford to print them for double the price now charged.

Complete Indexes to both the Congressional Globe and the Appendix are printed at the close of each session, and sent to all subscribers for them. We have on hand 3,000 or 4,000 surplus copies of the Congressional Globe and Appendix for the Extra Session, which make together near one thousand royal quarto pages. They give the fullest history of Congress that has ever been published. We now sell them for $1 each; that is, $1 for the Congressional Globe, and $1 for the Appendix. We propose to let subscribers for the Congressional Globe and Appendix for the next session, have them for 50 cent each.

TERMS. For the Congressional Globe and Appendix for the last Extra Session, $1. For the Congressional Globe for the next session, $1 per copy. For the Appendix for the next session, $1 per copy.

PROSPECTUS OF THE NORTH CAROLINA TEMPERANCE UNION. THE State Temperance Society of N. C. at its annual meeting, directed its Executive Committee to take measures for the establishment, at this place, of a Journal, devoted to the cause of Temperance.

In obedience to their wishes, and impressed with the importance of such a publication, the Committee have determined, if sufficient encouragement can be obtained, to issue the first number of such a publication, to be called the NORTH CAROLINA TEMPERANCE UNION, on the first of January next.

The leading object of the Union will be, the dissemination of Temperance principles. We shall endeavor to present in its pages, a full record of the progress of the Temperance cause in our own and in foreign lands—of its effect upon individuals and communities—and original articles in defence of its principles, and in reply to the various objections urged against it.

At a meeting of the Executive Committee of the N. C. Temperance Society, the following resolution was adopted: Whereas, arrangements have been made to commence the publication of a Temperance Journal in the City of Raleigh, on the first week of January next, provided one thousand subscribers can be obtained.

Resolved, That it be most earnestly recommended to each of the Officers of the State Temperance Society, and to the members of the late State Convention, and to any who are friendly to the cause, immediately after the receipt of this resolution, to become responsible for from 10 to 50 subscribers, so that the publication may commence at the time contemplated.

THE MARKS. The North Carolina Temperance Union will be published weekly on a medium sheet, (say 26 by 18 inches), at One Dollar and Fifty Cents per annum, payable IN ADVANCE. Letters containing Subscribers names and remittances, must be directed, postpaid or free, to the Treasurer of the Society, JAMES BROWN, Raleigh, North Carolina.

Place early in September, resolved on publishing a paper of the above title and character, and appointed J. P. John Dickson and Dr. R. W. Anshel, Editors. The many pressing engagements, Dr. Dickson already has, he deems it impracticable for him to be recognized as one of the editors, though he will cheerfully use all his influence otherwise, to promote its interests; the subscriber therefore, proposes to issue this Prospectus in his own name, with a hope that he will be aided in the undertaking, by all the friends of the Temperance cause throughout the country, and that the paper soon have an extensive circulation.

TERMS. For the Congressional Globe and Appendix for the last Extra Session, $1. For the Congressional Globe for the next session, $1 per copy. For the Appendix for the next session, $1 per copy.
