

TERMS OF THE WESTERN CAROLINIAN.

CHAS. F. FISHER, Editor and Proprietor.

The WESTERN CAROLINIAN is published every Friday Morning, at $2 per annum in advance...

MISCELLANEOUS.

DESTROYER AND DELIVERER.

And it came to pass on that awful day, when the first man transgressed the commandment of his Maker...

And they were all silent for sorrow, for they knew how well beloved Adam had been.

And again the Lord spoke unto them, saying: "Which of you will be the Saviour in my hand to execute judgment and justice upon the sons of men?"

And he answered and said: "Yes, Lord!"

And he said unto him: "What shall be thy portion? Thou shalt leave the brightness of my presence and the fellowship of the joy which thou hast here..."

And he said unto him: "What shall be thy portion? Thou shalt leave the brightness of my presence and the fellowship of the joy which thou hast here..."

And he said unto him: "What shall be thy portion? Thou shalt leave the brightness of my presence and the fellowship of the joy which thou hast here..."

fifty cents. "Stop, squire, you are mistaken in the amount; it's 75 cents."

From the Ladies' World of Fashion. SERENADE.

Look out upon the stars, my love, And shame them with thine eyes, On which, than on those lights above, There hang more destinies.

From the Magnolia for July. THE PIRATES AND THE PALATINES.

There is a tradition of the North Carolina shores, which we have at present in a crude state, but which in the hands of some of our romancers, may be wrought into a most beautiful fiction.

This singular spectacle is accounted for by the following story. The burning ship goes by the name of the "Ship of the Palatines."

The voyage was a protracted one, in a half rotten bark, and with head winds a great part of the time.

This discovery awakened the devil in his heart. He gave the sign to his mate; perhaps estimated his object to the seamen generally.

The hope deferred which maketh the heart sick, drove the greater part of them to their hammocks.

The deck cleared of the murdered men, the murderers descended stealthily to the work below.

the old, the young, the tender and the strong, the young mother, and the poor angel innocent but lately sent to earth...

It continued all night to burn—speed on with the wind—now passing out from sight, and anon, visible, flaming forever, back again, on the very spot where the crime had been committed.

Never, says the tradition, has the penalty of blood been paid. The criminals went free. No justice followed on their footsteps.

The Modern Hercules.—Monsieur Paul, who was only 18 years old in March last, performed the wonderful feat of pulling against two strong horses at the Bowery Theatre on Monday evening last.

The animals selected to pull against him were a pair of large sized Pennsylvania bred horses, that are in the daily habit of drawing from two to three tons of granite at a load.

Paul, after firing the cannon, weighing 400 pounds, from his shoulders, and ascending the fireman's rope fell uppermost to the floor, by means of his hands alone, and other Herculean feats, proceeded to place himself horizontally upon a strong oak ladder.

Paul's body when thus disposed, resembled that of a mallefer upon the inquisitorial rack, preparatory to being torn to pieces.

The deck cleared of the murdered men, the murderers descended stealthily to the work below.

was secured to the stage, stretched and threatened to break, the horses, aided by a platform upon the stage with cleats to brace their feet, strained every muscle and vein...

From the Union Democrat. 'TIS THE LAST OF LOG CABINS.

'Tis the last of Log Cabins, Left standing alone; All its Tippling companions Are burnt out and gone.

So soon may I follow, When "coon-shins" decay, When "clubs" split to pieces, And "pipes" cease to play;

PRESENTATION OF A FOREIGN MINISTER.

The Washington Correspondent of the New York Herald in noticing the splendid diplomatic dinner given by the President to Lord Ashburton, relates the following of Old Hickory:

"Je suis venu voir, Monsieur le President," said the Minister, "and I propose he wants to see the general."

"Rachel, my daughter, why don't your learn as fast as your sister Hannah?" "Why don't every stock of clover bear four leaves, mother?"

"Well Mr.—, how is your wife this morning?" "Inquired a physician one morning of his acquaintance."

They who will abandon a friend for one error know little of human character, and prove that their hearts are as cold as their judgments are weak.

Man and Woman.—A woman's head is always followed by her heart; but a man's heart is generally influenced by his head.

CONGRESSIONAL.

SPEECH OF Mr. Saunders of North Carolina.

Delivered in the House of Representatives on the 5th July, 1842.

The bill which had been vetoed by the President being rejected, and the general tariff bill having been taken up on the 5th of July, and referred to the Committee of the Whole House—

MR. SAUNDERS spoke as follows: MR. CHAIRMAN: I am happy in having obtained the floor, as it enables me to say some things and to express some views on matters which the limits of your hour rule on yesterday forbade, but which I hope to be able to do today.

MR. CHAIRMAN: I am happy in having obtained the floor, as it enables me to say some things and to express some views on matters which the limits of your hour rule on yesterday forbade, but which I hope to be able to do today.

MR. CHAIRMAN: I am happy in having obtained the floor, as it enables me to say some things and to express some views on matters which the limits of your hour rule on yesterday forbade, but which I hope to be able to do today.

MR. CHAIRMAN: I am happy in having obtained the floor, as it enables me to say some things and to express some views on matters which the limits of your hour rule on yesterday forbade, but which I hope to be able to do today.

MR. CHAIRMAN: I am happy in having obtained the floor, as it enables me to say some things and to express some views on matters which the limits of your hour rule on yesterday forbade, but which I hope to be able to do today.

MR. CHAIRMAN: I am happy in having obtained the floor, as it enables me to say some things and to express some views on matters which the limits of your hour rule on yesterday forbade, but which I hope to be able to do today.

MR. CHAIRMAN: I am happy in having obtained the floor, as it enables me to say some things and to express some views on matters which the limits of your hour rule on yesterday forbade, but which I hope to be able to do today.

MR. CHAIRMAN: I am happy in having obtained the floor, as it enables me to say some things and to express some views on matters which the limits of your hour rule on yesterday forbade, but which I hope to be able to do today.