

TO THE READER.

It will hardly be regarded as strange that this paper, the Carolina Watchman, should reappear after a suspension of nearly four years.

The Carolina Watchman was always independent and candid. It was fearlessly so under the control of its honored parent, the late HAZELTON C. JONES.

Mr. JONES relinquished it in 1839, to M. C. PENDLETON and the undersigned, the latter of whom was connected with it from that time down to 1869.

There is a perfect storm raging in New York among the political gamblers of that city. The city officials have stolen about thirty millions of city funds.

FOR THE TIME TO COME. The Watchman must be free to choose its course not according to parties, but according to the conscientious convictions of its editor.

But in thus indicating the political course of this paper for the future, it is not meant that politics is to engross it to the exclusion of other subjects.

The undersigned tenders to his fellow-citizens his sincere thanks for the encouraging sentiments many of them have expressed on learning that he had determined to revive the Watchman.

The revival of this paper, therefore, is an experiment; its success or failure will depend on the amount of substantial support given it.

Having purchased the printing stock and subscription list of the Old North State, in accordance with the terms of the sale those who had paid in advance for that paper will look to us to fill out their paid term.

The Louisville Courier-Journal says that the man who receives the vote of Pennsylvania in 1872 will be President.

PICKERELL AND SLOAN.

John F. Pickereil and Dr. Sloan were indicted in New Hanover Superior Court for a conspiracy to defraud the Wil. Char. & Rutherford R. R. Co., of which Dr. Sloan was president.

We believe a compromise was effected between the parties which resulted in a discharge of Pickereil. How much of their ill gotten gains they disgorged is not known to the public.

THOMAS BRADY, Chairman of the State Central Executive Committee of the Democratic-Conservative party, publishes in the Sentinel a call for a general meeting of the Committee in Raleigh on the 18th October.

EX-GOV. HOLLEN turns up at Washington City as principal editor of the Chronicle. He says he detached himself from the Democracy in 1861 and clung to the Union.

FURTHER DISCOVERIES IN VIRGINIA.

The Petersburg Index of the 16th inst., gives publicity to the following very remarkable discovery of mammoth remains:

The following information is given us by gentlemen of the highest character and credit, who have seen with their own eyes, touched and tested with their own hands, the wonderful objects of which they make report.

The workmen engaged in opening a way for the projected railroad between Weldon and Garysburg struck, Monday, about one mile from the former place, in a bank beside the river, a cache of skeletons, supposed to be those of Indians of a remote age and a lost and forgotten race.

During last week some workmen, in making an excavation in a mound at Martin's Ferry, Ohio, discovered and exhumed two human skeletons. One of them was found intact, the other had fallen to pieces.

THE LEGISLATURE OF 1869-'70 granted charters to companies, empowering them to build railroads parallel with our road from Greensboro' to Charlotte.
