WORK WHILE IT IS CALLED TO-DAY Up ! there's no time for rest to-day! There's stubborn work to do For every willing heart and hand The blessed daylight through. Nor must we loiter, slack, or sleep, Save in the friendly night Which hides beneath the grateful shades The labors of the light!

Up ! there's no chance for rest to-day! Brothers of human kind, In many a dark and sterile spot, Are groping, halt and blind. And there are burdens to be borne, And fetters to be broke;

And trees of evil to hew down With many a toilsome stroke! Up! for the world is full of strife, The earth is sown with sin, Quick springing, like the noxious tares,

A poble field within. And, though at first but tiny blades, Of shower and synshine born, The laborer needs but rest and straight They overtop his corn!

Then up ! nor dream of rest to-day ! The foes are all around; And some concealed in ambush lie. And some dispute the ground. Then let us gird the barness on

To wrestle or tol; The laborer reaps the golden grain, The conqueror wins the spoils!

EXTRAORDINARY CASE OF PARALYSIS. The following is given as literally t flames T. Anderson, of Glenwood, Iowa, in a sportive mood practicing gymnastic exercises, fell from the bars, while suspended by his feet, and striking on the back of his neck, was instantly struck as with paralysis save in the head, where a perfect consciousness remained. He was bewildered by the sudden pain and loss of the use of the rest of his body, but bore up dauntlessly. He experienced an in expressible tingling, though his body seemed to him a mass of jelly; when touched it felt as though broken into frag ments. The actual situation, discovered by diagnosis, was a broken neck, and to the amazement of everybody the man not tached to his living head. Still further. he accepts the situation unmurmuringly, and has begun to learn to write with his lips, and indeed has attained some proficiency in that singular method, and writing to a friend facetiously says that he 'now, writes a tolerably good mouth.'-He has been sadly troubled by flies, against which he is totally unprotected this however, he is now in a fair way of pox. scarlet fever, measles diseases of animals, &c.

GREAT FRUIT DISPLAY .-- The exhibition of the American Pomological Society in Richmond, Va., last week, was the finest display of American fruits ever seen in the country. The Virginia Pomological Society exhibited at the same time. A correspondent writes; "The United States Agricultural Department exhibits pears and wine grapes; New York is well represented in apples and pears. Virginia shows 135 different sorts of apples from one orchard of Albemarle County, and exhibits the largest pear, weighing within a fraction of two pounds, from Norfolk. This pear is a Duchess D'Augouleme Towa presents 118 varieties of splendid apples, and some fine pears; while Kansas and Nebraska con tribute beautiful apples, pears and peaches. South Carolina sends forty varie i of grapes, and Southern Illinois sends a general assortment that is hard to beat, The Virginia grapes attract attention and interest. California, however, contributes apples, pears, grapes, quinces, olives, plums, &c., that excite everybody's admiration. The grapes especially are miracles in this latitude.

POLITICAL -The election in California last week resulted in the choice of a Republican Governor, Congressmen, and Legislature by about 6,000 majority. The Legislature elects a United States Senator. At the last gubernatorial election, four years ago, the State went Democratic by over 9,000 majority. - The Republicans of New Jersey have nominated Hon. Cornelius Walsh, of Newark, for nomination, he stated that he was under A GENTS WANTED for the no obligation or pledge of any sort to any individual, clique or combination. The municipal election in Wilmington, Del., tresulted in a Republican success.

RUIN OF AN INDUSTRY. - The Bur-lington, N. J. Gazette says; "Texas cattle are being quoted as sold in St. Louis as low as a dollar and a balf the hundred pounds. These are poor and thin, but the very best can be bought at four to five dollars a hundred. The careless reader will probably not see, at first, what the farmers of Burlington county have to do with the price of cattle in St. Louis, or how low prices there are to affect values at so great a distance. But this Texas cattle business is working a total revolution in the grazing of cattle in this county, and all over New Jersey. It has produced a fall of $15 to $20 per head within the last three months. One farmer in Springfield township, who has now a hundred and sixty head on hand, has suffered this loss within that period. He would now be glad to sell prime cattle at seven and a half cents per pound. He informs us that these cheap Texas cat le are raining the business of grazing in this
