LOCAL AND STATE ITEMS.

ADVERTISEMENT.

Having purchased the printing stock and subscription list of the Old North State, in accordance with the terms of the sale those who had paid in advance for that paper, will look to us to fill out their term. Those who were indebted to that paper at 12 o'clock on Saturday the 10th ult., had their indebtedness transferred to us, and it is a matter of importance that all should be promptly paid. Those not behind exceeding three months may yet pay at the advance rates of $2.50 for the year.

Notice to Assignees.

In Bankruptcy.—Samuel Grose, Overman, Holmes & Co., removal notice.

Crawford & Heilig, removal notice.

J. Allen Brown, Produce Commission Merchant.

The North Carolina proposes that if members are to be expelled from the Legislature for being kluks, expelled also, those who have been members of the Union League. That is right.

Frank Duncan, a railroad negro hand, was killed at Statesville on Saturday last by a down train on the Western Railroad. He was drunk, and that was the cause of death.

Mr. Welch's resignation requesting Governor Vance to return his credentials, as reported in our last, was taken up on Thursday, and on motion laid on the table.

It will be observed that the Governor's annual message excludes much of our usual variety of matter. For the same reason we have been obliged to lay over some interesting communications from correspondents. These shall appear soon.

The Best Joke.—The Charlotte Democrat suggests to Judge Logan to resign his Judgeship because he is not fit to fill the office.

Prof. Chas. Phillips, who has been seriously ill, is reported somewhat improved, but still in a critical condition.

Read the account of a conspiracy against Gen. Leach. The testimony of the witnesses make out a case against Wm. F. Henderson which would utterly ruin any other man.

The Governor's message has been pretty severely criticised by a portion of the press, that portion relating to the University especially and not without cause.

More Mammoth Potatoes.—Mr. Robert Murphy has left on our table three Irish potatoes weighing 50 ounces—a little over an average of one lb. each.

Scarcely a train has passed east, since our last, that did not take down to Raleigh more or less kluks, poisoners, and witnesses in kluks cases.

The voters of Western N. C. will remember all this as desperate party malice to intimidate and worry them into the support of Grant and the Radical party. How will it work?

TEMPERANCE SERMON.

The pastor of the Presbyterian church, in this place, Rev. J. Rumble, gave notice from the pulpit, last Sabbath, that he would preach, next Sunday, on the general subject of Temperance, and the cost and evils of intemperance. It is a subject which either directly or indirectly concerns every person, old and young; and we doubt not those who hear the proposed discourse, will be well repaid for their attendance.

Thanksgiving.—The pastor also gave notice that Thursday night services would have reference to Thanksgiving, and expressed a wish for a full attendance of the congregation.

WE TAKE IT BACK.

We are sorry to learn that Judge Cloud apprehends that our article relative to his attentions to our mountain girls will likely get some jealousy among his old sweethearts on the mountain. We would certainly regret that any such thing should occur, and to place ourselves in such a position, we take back all we said about the Judge's "affections," and hope he will receive a cordial welcome, reception from each and every one of his lady friends. Our people are sorry to part with Judge Cloud. He is regarded by almost every one, so far as our information extends, as an honest and well meaning man. We trust he may be permitted to return to this circuit at no distant day.

N. C. Citizen.

The real issues in the Presidential campaign, next year, will not be the negro, or the kluks, or the "rebels," or anything of that sort. They will be honesty in the administration of affairs against corruption in office; the extirpation of fraud and venality in the high places and the low places of the land; and money-getting and money-spending in politics, of bribe-taking and gift-taking by men in office. These will be the questions of the campaign. Honest men, moderate men, patriotic men, of all parties, will support the banner of Reform, and march against the hosts of sectional hate and corruption. Salem Press.

Resignation of Col. Fremont.—Col. Fremont, for many years past connected with the Wilmington & Weldon Railroad, as its chief engineer and superintendent, has resigned his position on that road and will henceforth devote his entire time and energies to furthering the interests of the Wilmington and Charlotte & Rutherford Roads, of which he has been the superintendent for a year past. Capt. John F. Devine has been chosen to fill the position resigned by Col. Fremont. —Sentinel.

United States Circuit Court November Term, 1871.—FIRST DAY.—Court met at 11 o'clock, Judge Brooks presiding.

We understand that Judge Bell will not be present, he being engaged in South Carolina. The drawing of the grand jury was called, the jury was dismissed until to-morrow at 10 o'clock. The docket as proceeded with and several cases were called, in which no action was taken. In kluks cases were continued until term, and the clerk was directed to draw the recognizance in the sums in which the defendants are now bailed. The order was made with a proviso that if recognition was desired, the matter should come before the court. A number of parties renewed their bail. The case of the United States vs. James H. Hargrove was set for hearing to-morrow. District Attorney for prosecution, and McCorkle for the defence. —Rail, Sentinel.

"Crime must be Punished."

This announcement is made by Holden in the Washington Chronicle, when speaking of the South Carolina kluks. He says those who live in South Carolina are guilty, and their flight is proof of it. Holden stands in North Carolina for two potential offences. He is guilty because he fled. —Sentinel.

Death in her Arms.

A poor Swiss emigrant woman went to Tarboro from Wilson the other day and while there her little infant child died. She was too poor to have a coffin made and got on the train to return to Wilson among her friends with the dead body in her arms. She was taken from the train by the kind citizens of Tarboro and her baby decently buried. —Rail, Carolina.

MARRIED.

By Rev. S. Scherer at Bethel church, Thursday, 10th ult., David A. Swick and Margaret E. Cross, all of Rowan.

DIED.

On the 25th ult., after a long illness, Mrs. Sarah Angelina Blackwell, wife of Mr. Joseph Blackwell, aged 58 years, 5 months and 6 days. In early life Mrs. Blackwell was a member of the Franklin Presbyterian Church in this county, and by a consistent Christian life of 40 years, she proved the genuineness and sincerity of her religion. She bore long and painful illness with patience and resignation, and died in the arms of her friends, surrounded by those who loved her, and with strong faith she met the great trial. No doubt exists of her readiness and willingness to die, and had chosen that good part which shall never be taken away from her. J. R.

HOW TO SECURE A HANDSOME INCOME.

GOOD PAY FOR LITTLE WORK.

Office of the Morning Star and Carolina Farmer.

WILMINGTON, N. C., 1871.

Desiring of rapidly extending the circulation of the Weekly Star and Carolina Farmer, I have concluded to offer pecuniary inducements to active enterprising Agents, such as I have never known offered by any newspaper proprietor in North Carolina.

The Weekly Star is a large twenty-eight column paper, published every Friday morning, in time for all the mails, and is filled with entertaining and useful reading matter. It contains full and reliable reports of markets, a complete summary of N. Carolina and S. Carolina news, and all the general news of the day. Subscription price, $2.00 per year, in advance.

The Carolina Farmer is a first class Agricultural Monthly Magazine, containing 32 pages of choice matter, original and selected, has handsome cover and title-page, and is printed on the finest paper and with new type just from the foundry. Every farmer in the two Carolinas should have a copy, and it is only necessary to exhibit specimen copies in order to secure subscribers. Subscription price, $2.00 per year in advance.

Now, if you are willing to act as my Agent, and go to work earnestly and zealously in my behalf, I will allow you the following liberal compensation.

On every new subscriber, up to ten, 50 cents; on every new subscriber after the first ten, $1. On other words, on all new subscribers less than ten in number, I will allow you a commission of 25 per cent, and on all in excess of ten, a commission of 50 per cent. So you will observe that after you have secured the first ten subscribers (for which you receive 50 cents each), you are paid $1 for every additional subscriber obtained for either paper.

This very liberal offer is not intended to apply to any but new subscribers—those who are not now receiving either one of the papers. Of course I can make no money on subscribers at $1 per year; but my object is to introduce the papers into every neighborhood and so rely on their merits to retain for many years the subscribers now obtained at such heavy expense.

I beg to call your attention to the fact that under the arrangement proposed above, no name entered on my books unless it is accompanied by the cash. I do not intend to send papers to subscribers and charge them afterwards. I do not intend to send papers to subscribers and charge them afterwards. I do not intend to send papers to subscribers and charge them afterwards.

I also publish the Morning Star, a first class daily newspaper, at $7.00 per year; $3.50 for 6 months; or $2.00 for three months. On all new subscribers to this paper I will allow you a commission of 25 per cent.

Send for specimen copies, read them carefully, and feel sure you can conscientiously recommend them to your friends and neighbors.

WM. H. HENRIKSEN, Editor and Proprietor.

KEEP IT BEFORE THE PEOPLE that the grand jury of Chester county, South Carolina, composed of half whites and half blacks, have condemned the son of the President, and declare that "THE ALLEGATION CONTAINED IN THE PROSECUTION OF THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES ARE WITHOUT FOUNDATION."

Here is a rebuke, says the Baltimore Evening Journal, to the outrageous act of the president which should be known everywhere. Let the democratic papers always keep it before the people, in some form, all the time. Let us agitate indignation meetings as our only safety in advance, and we can and will sweep radicalism to the earth in 1872.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Trust What Time has Sanctioned.

The maxim that the voice of the people is the voice of the deity may in some cases be open to doubt, but the testimony of honest and enlightened witnesses extending through a series of years, and all to the same purpose, is worthy of credence, admits of no question. Upon such testimony the reputation of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters as an antidote and cure for many ailments is based. During the twenty years that it has been before the world, it has been the most extensively intended to compete with it, have gone up like rockets, and come down like the extinguished sticks. Meanwhile the progress of that incomparable tonic has been swift and steady always upward and onward like the eagle's flight. Its introduction produced a revolution in the therapeutics, and it proved to be one of those salutary revolutions that can go backward. To-day Hostetter's Bitters is one of the most popular remedies in existence, and commands a larger sale than any other medicinal preparation, domestic or imported, on this side of the Atlantic. As a cure for dyspepsia, bilious disorders, nervous affections, general debility, and as a preventative of epidemic fevers, it takes precedence of every other remedy. This fact should teach the ambitious country dealer who endeavors to foster their local abolition on the public in its stead, how futile their small attempts to cajole the community are, and how necessary it is. Where the game fish have failed there is no chance for the "suckers."

THE CAUSE AND CURE OF CONSUMPTION.

The primary cause of Consumption is derangement of the digestive organs. In a derangement of the digestive organs, the food is not properly assimilated. It is not converted into blood, and the system is impoverished. Persons with digestive organs impaired, have the greatest predisposition to pulmonary disease or if they take cold, will be very liable to have Consumption of the Lungs as a result of the derangement. I hold that will restore a good digestion and healthy assimilation. The very first thing to be done is to cleanse the stomach and bowels from all diseases, mucus and slime, which is clogging these organs so that they cannot perform their functions, and then take up and restore the liver to a healthy action. For this purpose the most powerful and reliable is Schenck's Mucilage. This Mucilage cleans the stomach and bowels of all the acid and morbid humors that are causing disease and derangement in the system. They will clear out the liver of all diseased bile that has accumulated there, and cause it up to a new and healthy action, by which natural and healthy bile is secreted.

The stomach, bowels and liver thus cleaned by the use of Schenck's Mucilage, the bile, the remains in the stomach an excess of acid, the organs are kept and the appetite pours. In the bowels the food is not properly assimilated, and the system is impoverished. It is in a condition like the stomach, a diseased food proves to be the most reliable remedy. It is alkaline, and its use will neutralize all excess of acid, making the stomach healthy and fresh; it will give permanent tone to this important organ, and create a good healthy appetite and restore the system for the first process of a good digestion, and ultimately make good healthy living food. After this preparatory treatment, what remains to cure most cases of Consumption is the free and preserving use of Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup. The Pulmonic Syrup nourishes the system, purifies the blood, and is readily absorbed into the circulation, and the disease distributed to all the organs of the system, and the diseased matter, in the form of free expectoration, when one it ripens. It is then by the great healing and purifying properties of Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup, that all the diseased matter is healed up sound, and the patient is cured.
