OFFICE OF N. C. AG'L. SOCIETY, RALEIGH, Dec. 8, 1871

The executive committee of the North Carolina Agricultural Society have determined to invite the assembling of an agricultural convention in this city, for the purpose of securing unity of action and efficient co-operation of those directly interested in agricultural pursuits. After consultation with many members of the general assembly now in session, it has been determined to fix the day on the 11th day of Jan-

It is requested that the farmers of every county and all agricultural societies and clubs shall appoint delegates to attend the convention. The farming interests of the state are undeniably depressed. To ascertain if practicable the causes of this depression, to endeavor to provide a remedy to secure printy of purpose and strength of action in enforcing such remedy, are well worth all the efforts of the best people of North A cordial invitation is extended to members of similar conventions in other states, and to all who may desire to co-operate with us in this important object.
