OFFICE OF N. C. AG'L. SOCIETY,

RALEIGH, Dec. 8, 1871. The executive committee of the North Carolina Agricultural Society have determined to tion in this city, for the purpose of securing unity of action and efficient co-operation of those directly interested in agricultural pursuits. After consultation with many members of the general assembly now in session, it has been determined to fix the day on the 11th day of Jan-It is requested that the farmers of every county and all agricultural societies and clubs shall appoint delegates to attend the convention. The farming interests of the state are undeniably depressed. To ascertain if practicable the causes of this depression, to endeavor to provide a remedy to secure unity of purpose and strength of action in enforcing such remedy, are well worth all the efforts of the best people of North

A cordial invitation is extended to members of similar conventions in other states, and to all who may desire to co-operate with us in this important object.

KEMP P. BATTLE, President N. C. Ag'l Society.

A Horrible Affair. - We learn that on Friday morning last a negro man and his wife, whose name we could not ascertain, residing a few miles from the city, in campbell county, left home before daylight to visit Lynchburg, leaving their three children, the eldest about nine years of age, asleep in the house. They also left a bright fire burning in the fire place, from which they apprehended no danger. On returning late in the afternoon they found their cabin a heap of smouldering ruins, and the remains of their three children barely visible in the ashes. It is supp osed that a log of wood rolled out of the fire place and set the house on fire -Lynchburg Republican.

KEEP IT BEFORE THE PEOPLE that the grand jury of Chester county South Carolina, composed of half whites and half blacks, have condemned the act of the President, and declare that "THE ALLEGATION CONTAINED IN THE PROC LAMATION OF THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES ARE WITHOUT FOUNDA-TION."

Here is a rebuke, says the Baltimere Evening Journal, to the outrageous act of of the president which should be known everywere. Let the democratic papers always keep it before the people, in some form, all the time. Let us agatate indignation meetings as our only safety in advance, and we can and will sweep radicalism to the carth in 1872.

PROSPECTUS

The Semi-Weekly Economist.

I propose to publish in Elizabeth City, N. C.

in January, 1872, a Semi-Weekly Newspaper to Le called The Economist. Its aim will be to minister to the Literary taste of its readers, and to promote the Agricultural, Commercial, Professional, Mechanical and other industrial interests of our people, with all the capacity, industry and zeal it can command. In a word, The Economist proposes to occupy the whole field of legitimate journalism. POLITICALLY, it will seek, without using the isoned weapons of bitterness, to foster and combine all the elements of opposition to the reckless tendency of the times; believing, as we houestly do, that our Republic and its institutions are in peril, and that unless good men of every class, unite Now, and as one man, to stay the tide of corruption that is surging over us, this precious heritage of our Fathers will, at no distant day, be like a tale that is told-like a vision that has passed away.

The Editorial management will be under the direction of R. B. CREECY, assisted by Col. W. F. Martin and Dr. R. K. Speed, of Pasquotank county; Col. D. D. Ferrebee, Camden county; T. H. Gilliam and T. G. Skinner, Perquimans county; Maj. H. A. Gilliam and Oct. Coke, trated Pamphlet, containing full particulars, Chowan country; Hon. L. C. "The Patriot" will advocate a prompt and perfect restoration of the Union in all its parts and its entire integrity; equality among the States as prescribed by by the constitution; the immediate removal of all disabilities resulting from the civil war, and the restoration of harmony and fraternal fellowship between all sections of the country, which the abuses and usurpations of partisan power have criminally labored to prevent :

A Tariff for revenue to cover the expenditures of an economical administration, and at meet the just obligations of the Government, no opposed to the existing system of exhorbitains protection for special monopolies and undtili guised partiality for favored manufacturers: Reduction of the present odious and oppressive scale of taxation, both as appe-to duties on imports and on internal revenuh; Rigid economy in every department of the Government and retrenchment of the expensed Reform of the public service in all its branches, Civil, Military and Naval; A sound National currency, equally distribu-ted among the States, and protected against speculative fluctuations; The rights of intelligent labor, against all selfish combinations to degrade and depreciate it: Legislation by which the public lands will be reserved for actual settlers, and as a resource of National credit, in opposition to the Radical policy of enormous grants to speculators and corrupt schemes:

The fullest and firmest protection to Ameri-And cordial sympathy with all peoples strug-It is intended to publish a newspaper of the first class, and to enlist the best available talent in all its departments.
