SINKING SLOWLY.

Diseases that progress rapidly to a crisis are not the only ones to be dreaded. Canker or dry rot does not blast a tree as suddenly as a stroke of lightning, but unless arrested it destroys it as certainly; and in like manner chronic debility, although it does not kill with the swiftness of yellow fever, is as sure to sap the springs of life eventually as any acute disease, if not checked by invigorating medication. There is some-thing inexpressibly touching in the spectacle of premature decay. Languer, pallor, emaciation, depression of spirits, and a distaste for exertion invigorant and exhilerant that can be administered in a case of this kind is Hostetter's Stomach Bitters.
