POOR NORTH CAROLINA.

The Raleigh News says: We announced in Saturday's Daily News that the bonds of the North Carolina Western Railroad sold a few days since in New York at twenty-five cents in the dollar.

The schemes of plunder, bribery, embezzlement and general corruption, which were consummated by prominent Radicals in our State, sapped the foundations of her prosperity, sullied her character and completed her ruin.

We are aware that some of the Radical papers and public speakers strive to repel these accusations with earnestness and affected indignation.

EARTHQUAKE.—A terrific earthquake, awfully destructive to life and property, occurred in Los Angeles, California, Tuesday of last week.

INDISPENSABLE WORK.

Mr. ALEXANDER H. STEPHENS has just completed his Compendium of United States History, designed for schools, colleges and general readers.

The writer of this notice has enjoyed the pleasant privilege of carefully examining the whole work, in connection with its citations; and the love of historic truth constrains him to pronounce it to be, in his judgment, by far the best history extant in this country.

Clerks of Superior Courts.—The Charlotte Democrat says: A friend writes us asking when the election for Clerks of the Superior Courts is to be held.

We consulted a lawyer and asked him to look up the decisions of the Supreme Court in regard to the matter. He informs us that according to the Supreme Court decision Clerks of Superior Courts hold office until August, 1874.

Therefore, next August there will be no election for Clerks, but for Sheriffs and other County Officers, members of the General Assembly, Governor, Lieut. Governor, Secretary of State, Treasurer, Attorney General, &c.

The announcement that Dr. Howard, an American citizen, says the Boston Post, is to be immediately transported to a Spanish penal colony in Africa appears to have no more effect upon our omniscient Government than has been produced by his long incarceration in Cuba.

Dr. Howard is among the most atrocious of the large number in which American citizens have been outraged without interference from the Government which owes them protection.

PROSPECTUS OF THE INTELLIGENCER. On or about the 15th day of April next, we propose to issue a Semi-weekly, Trifolium, N. C., first-class weekly paper to be called THE INTELLIGENCER.

It is our aim to occupy the whole legitimate field of Journalism, maintaining the literary taste of all, at the same time striving to give to all, Agricultural, Commercial, and other material pursuits with all the zeal and energy that strict attention and every effort can bring to bear, while an earnest desire will be exerted to make it an agreeable companion around every fireside.

ITS POLITICS. Thoroughly Conservative, and fully believing it to be the duty of every good citizen, to oppose corruption in every form, no pains will be spared in exposing the perils which Radicalism have brought upon the country, and by a bold, determined stand, beat back the waves of anarchy and despotism which so dangerously threaten our once happy land.

TERMS—$2.50 per year; $1.50 for six months. JULIUS W. WRIGHT, CHARLES R. JONES. Papers desiring an exchange will please communicate for this.
