The County canvass was opened at Franklin, on Thursday last. We have five or six good speakers in the field. Capt. O. Woodson led off, and departing from the usual custom of candidates for county offices, surprised his friends with a speech on the general politics of the country, full of interesting facts and figures.

Mr. McCubbins, candidate for county Treasurer, presented a statistical report of the Finances of the county, which was highly interesting and gratifying to the people. Mr. Me-Cubbins is one of the most practical and competent business men in western North Carolina, and eminently well qualified for the place he Kerr Craige, Esq., one of our candidates for the Commons, spoke for an hour and twenty minutes, and closed at last before he had finished. Most of his time was devoted to a review of State affairs, and an exposition of their management by the radical party while in power, and the contrast between them and the Conservative administration since. He was listened to with close attention, although much of his time was occupied with statistics.

Mr. Craige was followed by Mr. Adam Trexler, one of the radical candidates for the Commons, who simply announced himself as a candidate.

Dr. Luckey gave us one of his plain, practical, common sense talks which always finds an echo in the hearts of his hearers. The Doctor is not only a good talker, but makes a good, working member of the Legislature, and exerts much influence in that body.

Mr. John A. Ramsay, another of the radical candidates, announced himself for the Commons. He takes the place that was tendered to Col. Wm. A Houck, but was by that gentleman declined. We have seen Mr. R. in positions which he filled with much better grace. We have seen him where his best friends were proud of him. But he has drawn a veil over the past, and now emerges from the merkiness of radi-

Mr. Charles Price, of Davie, his con servative competitor, tracked him up with so much fidelity, and exposed his fallacies with such consummate skill that he finally "brought down the house." Ah!-Yes! Don't be uneasy about Mr. Price's ability to meet Dr. Ramsay. It is "all right" there. He is as sharp and quick as a steel-trap. An old farmer who heard him at Unity, on Friday, said to us-"why, he's a young Robbins." He was delighted, and walked off repeating-"he'll do!-he'll do!-first rate and no mistake."

The conservatives of Rowan may send kindly greetings to their brother conservatives of Davie for this rising young man and cheerfully pay him the compliment of a full vote, for he is worthy of it.

GREELEY AND THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY.

There is perhaps no more wonderful individual than he whose name heads this article, We have been accustom to regard him from our earliest boyhood as a monster who has no Shaver, G. N. We have often cast about for his counterpart, his prototype, but we have been unfortunate in our endeavors to discover him, since we could find none who so well fills the bill as Machiavelli, of whom it was said by Macaulay, that the whole man seems to be an enigma-a grotesque assemgenerosity, cruelty and benevolence, craft and a delegate. simplicity, abject villainy and romantic heroism. CONSERVATIVES OF ROWAN COUNTY.

There is now being distributed broad cast over our county a circular purporting to be signed by "many conservative voters." RADICAL IMPUDENCE.

The radicals claim that Gen. Grant is paying off the national debt. We wish it was so; but unfortunatly the vender of public offices is not appropriating his illgotten gains to such a laudable purpose. It is true that the radical President has received large amounts of money as a consideration for appointing certain persons to only turn out and vote our ticket will be elect- ple of the party, prostituted the public service, high and lucrative offices: and we have heard that he has used a portion of this been standiny against him as an army officer for many years. But that is not paying the national delt. We know however, that he received a salary of $25,000. on which he pays no tax whatever. If any part of the debt is paid it is paid by the people, and not by President Grant ; nor yet by the radical party, for that party is only a minority of the people of the United States, and it is the peoples's money that is paying this debt.

> Indeed the radical leaders, instead of paying the debt, systematically misappropriate the money which the people freely give for that purpose. Gen. Grant, under a resolution of con-
