"The public are aware that Plato Durham received in November, 1868, twenty majority for Congress over A. H. Jones. The returns were sent to Menninger as Secretary of State. By tampering with or altering, the returns were made to give Jones a majority. The fact was so reported to Gov. Holden by Menninger, and majority will be 12,000 or 15,000. having no discretion in the matter, the Governor gave the certificate of election to Jones."

About the first of August a Mr, Frevert and eleven other Germans of Brooklin wrote to Mr. Wilson, candidate for the Vice-President, exdesiring to be informed whether Mr. Wilson was ever a Know-Nothing, On the 27th August a letter was rec'd by these Germans from Boston, Wilson's home, bearing Wilson's frank, which indignantly denied the charge that he was ever a Know-Nothing. But the evidence accumulated so rapidly that the sainted Wilson was a Know-Nothing, that he has thought proper to attempt to evade the matter by declaring his fair specimen of Radicalism-hypocrasy-falsehood. And this Wilson professes to be a christian! The impious pretender!
