

Caroline Watchman.

SALISBURY, THURSDAY OCT. 31.

FOR PRESIDENT:
HORACE GREELEY.
FOR VICE-PRESIDENT:
B. GRATZ BROWN.

SUMMARY OF THE NEWS.

The New York papers have another first class item. Nellie Grant, daughter of the President, has returned home, looking as bright "as a sunbeam." It will be remembered that she and her brother have been traveling in Europe at the expense of the tax-payers of the country. The northern papers are filled with accounts of her arrival, her appearance, the color of her eyes, hair, &c.; but we are unable to say anything about these returning prodigals more worthy of notice than there is about other people. If, rioting abroad on the people's money and being the offspring of a first class and brutal president entitle them to notice above other more worthy children, then we do not envy them the publicity that has been given them. There are hundreds and thousands of children, helping their father on the farm or their mother in the kitchen throughout the country, far more worthy of respect on account of real worth and genuine merit; and such we delight to honor. We have a contempt for snobs and precocious bores. It is not wealth or position that gives character or real worth. The health of Chase is improving.

The Agricultural reports for October, just issued say the corn crop this year promises to be the largest ever grown.

Mary Ann, daughter of a New York millionaire, who married John Dean, her father's coachman, died in a hotel in that city.

Deaubleigh, the illustrious theologian and author, died at his residence in Geneva on Monday last, in the 78th year of his age. He was widely known as a writer in theology and church history. The principle of "God in history" he sought especially to enforce in his "History of the Reformation of the Sixteenth Century." He was the author of many other works, including a "Life of Cromwell," &c., all of which he was a strenuous advocate of the Protestant religion. He had an ample fortune and lived in a villa commanding a view of the lake, just on the outskirts of Geneva.

The Charlotte Fair was tolerably well attended. The bad weather had much to do with the small turnout. Notwithstanding this good show of articles was on exhibition in each department.

T. R. Caldwell announces that the annual meeting of the Board of Trustees of the University of North Carolina, will be held in the Governor's office, on the third Tuesday in November, 1872.

Martin Bayard who was confined in Hendersonville, having been convicted of the murder of the Western family, escaped from jail on the morning of the 18th inst. His wife joined with him the night before, and he escaped dressed in her clothes early the next morning.

The Wadesboro Agency has been purchased by John T. James Esq., greatly enlarged and improved, and is now a first class newspaper.

Plato Durban, Esq., has taken charge of the Cleveland Banner. He runs the straight ticket. We are sorry for this.

The telegraph announces the death of Mrs. Horace Greeley.

The interests in Wilmington last week, were sixteen, pretty large for Wilmington.

The Greenboro Patriot says, we are informed by the Clerk of the Superior Court of Randolph county has been recently robbed of about $45,000 in money. The parties committing the robbery were arrested, but one of them named York, made his escape, the other named Davis is in custody. A reward of $400 is offered for York's arrest.

A. J. Blackburn, of Ashe county, has been sentenced by Judge Mitchell to two years in the Penitentiary for stealing a bee-gum.

The prospect looks pretty bright for Greeley.

"Ervizooric" and "epiphippie," are two of the words coined to take the place of epidemic, as distinguishing the disease now prevailing among the horses from similar diseases among the people. We see no good reason for not sticking to the old term epidemic, for the burden of the malady falls almost as heavily on the people as on the animals.

A steamship disaster of terrible magnitude has taken place in Mexican waters. The steamer Guatemala, of the Panama and Acapulco line, has been wrecked on the bar of Sanala, in the State of Chiapas, the most southern State of Mexico. According to the account telegraphed by the United States Charge d'Affaires at the city of Mexico to the American consul at Matamoros twenty three lives have been engulfed in the treacherous deep. The remainder of the passengers are reported to be safe at Tehuantepec, a river port town in the State of Oaxaca.

The Supreme Court of Illinois has entered a ruling against the proprietors of the Chicago Journal to show cause why they should not be compelled for contempt for the publication of an article criticising the action of the court in granting a writ of supersedeas in a murder case.

The Herald can see the mote in the eye of our neighbor, England, but cannot see the beam in our own American eyes. In speaking of Mr. Froode's last lecture on Ireland it says:

Nothing short of home rule can satisfy a country anxiously looking toward independence and this, quite as much as the independence of Ireland, Mr. Froode strenuously opposes.

Does not the South occupy precisely the same condition towards the American government that Ireland does towards the English, and yet the Herald, which asks home rule for the Irish, would deny it to the people of the South? This is strange consistency.

DEATH OF A SON OF GEN. LEONIDAS POLK.—The New Orleans Picayune says: The death is announced of Major A. Hamilton Polk, eldest son of the late Bishop Polk. The event took place on the 18th inst., at Hartford, Ct.

The deceased was nearly forty years old, and possessed many of the qualities that distinguished his eminent father. During the war he held the rank of major of artillery.—He married a few years before the war the daughter of a prominent citizen of Hartford, Ct. Bishop Polk had but two sons, and the survivor, we learn, resides in Memphis, where he is engaged in the commission business.

A most villainous outrage was perpetrated in New York on Saturday night. The friends of Mr. James O'Brien, who has been nominated for Mayor by the Apollo Hall Democrats, were holding a meeting at the corner of Roosevelt and Water streets, and during its progress some scoundrel pushed over the chimney of a house in the vicinity, and the falling bricks created great consternation in the crowd. A young man named Thomas Mangum was killed, and a number of others were wounded. Four persons, suspected of having assisted in the outrage, have been arrested.

Thiers meditates a legislative coup d'etat. At the ensuing session of the French Assembly a constitutional amendment making him President for life is to be introduced, together with projects for other government changes. As M. Thiers is already in the last quarter of the century, "President for life" probably does not mean for very many years with him. But the volatile Frenchman may not even permit him to spend all his declining years in the Executive chair.

One thousand insurgents entered the town of Guisasa on the 19th instant and burned fifty houses. Government troops encountered and repulsed the insurgents. Seven of the latter and three of the Spaniards were killed.

The bark Midway, from London, went on to Hen and Chickens, below Henlopen's light, Friday night, and will be a total loss. The captain and part of the crew landed safely. Seven men left the wreck in a boat and have doubtless perished.

The corner-stone of the first homeopathic insane asylum in America, was laid in Middle-town, New York, Saturday.

Timothy Norton was arrested in New York Saturday, on a charge of attempting to register under two different names.

The Election of Greeley may depend on N. C. voting for him. Then go to the polls and do so without fail.

We believe it to be the solemn duty of every man who loves his country to go to the polls and vote for Greeley and Brown next Tuesday.

If you fail to vote for Greeley and Brown next Tuesday you may regret it as long as you live.

If all those who staid at home last August will go to the polls and vote for Greeley and Brown next Tuesday, the State will be forever placed beyond the reach of Radical control and Greeley more than probably elected President of the United States.

HON. LEWIS HANES, of Salisbury, formerly editor of this paper, but a "Liberal Republican" delegate to Cincinnati, has renounced Greeley, and declared for Grant.—Era.

Col. HANES, we know, was never pleased with the work of the Cincinnati Convention, and particularly with the nomination of Greeley. But we also know that as a member of that Convention he accepted its action, candidate and all, and was the first and almost the only man in this section to don the Greeley white hat. If he has abandoned Greeley and given in his adhesion to Grant, it betrays such a degree of indecision as to place him beyond the ability to hara. His wavering becomes ridiculous. It may satisfy his own conscience; but it cannot inspire public respect for a conscience so prone to weaving in and weaving out.

Since the above was put in type, we learn that Col. Hanes has most positively "renounced" the statement of the Era. He will not vote for Grant under any circumstances.

WHAT ARE THEY?

We are sometimes asked questions concerning the Straight-out, Duncan, Anti Greeley, Grant-Democrats. A few innocent persons are simple enough to suppose that these fellows are really the exponents of true democracy; that they are not paid tools of Radicalism, and that they are in earnest in their advocacy of Mr. O'Connor for the next president. Others, seeing the hopelessness of their cause and the style of the fighting under this specious banner, are bewilderment and give vent to their wonderment by asking the question above, what are they?

Well, not knowing exactly what they are driving at, we don't like to say; but if they are not working in the interest of Grant and Radicalism our judgment is greatly at fault. The Jefferson Democracy is simply ridiculous. They are in no sense democrats. They are not so much as entitled to the claim of being regarded the outcasts of the Jeffersonian democracy, for the large majority of them never had any connection with the great democratic party, not even as boot-blacks. They don't know any more about Jeffersonian Democracy than a hog does about Greek. These impious fellows talk about their devotion to Democratic principles, as practiced and illustrated by Jefferson. Why, Jefferson held that there must be, "absolute acquiescence in the decision of the majority, the vital principle of Republics from which is no appeal but to force." &c. A two-thirds majority of the regular Democratic party nominated Mr. Greeley at Baltimore. These fellows cannot be ignorant of this fact, yet they ignore and repudiate the leading feature of the Jeffersonian creed. Loyalty to party organization, to party nominees, and absolute acquiescence in the decision of the majority are inseparable from the Jeffersonian creed. But money makes the mare go, and men these days will assume all sorts of shapes, and do all sorts of mental work for the poor privilege of kissing the popes toe and sucking the public pail. We do not envy the Grant-O'Connor Democrats. They will do themselves no honor, but their country much harm.

ANOTHER ATTEMPT TO MUZZLE THE PRESS.

Solicitor Cantwell and His Honor, Judge Russell, at Wilmington, are making an effort to get the Grand Jury to find a true bill against Maj. J. A. Englehard and Col. W. L. Saunders of the Wilmington Journal, for libel. A bill was sent to the Grand Jury by Cantwell, and returned not a true bill. Cantwell therefore asked that Judge Russell issue an order for the Grand Jury to be brought into Court for special instructions relative to the law of libel.

Here is what the Solicitor asked the Court to charge, according to a report in the Journal. "He asked that the Grand Jury may be brought into court and specially instructed by His Honor that to print and publish in a newspaper an article calling a man a scoundrel, is sufficient to constitute the offense of libel, even though no special damage may ensue to the party thus designated, and even if it be manifestly absurd and preposterous for such designation to affect injuriously the character, reputation or standing of the party thus designated.

He asked His Honor to charge the jury specially, that for the publisher of a newspaper to call any high dignitary or judicial officer, for example, a Judge of the Circuit Court of the United States, a scoundrel, even though the idea that the Judge could thereby be injuriously affected was preposterous and absurd, was a libel.

He asked, further, that His Honor would charge the jury specially, that it had no right to send for witnesses to rebut the testimony offered by the witnesses sent by the Solicitor."

The Jury was finally brought in and charged according to order.

The following is the text of the article, declared by His Honor to constitute a libel, as set forth in the bill of indictment that Solicitor Cantwell is seeking to have found by the Grand Jury against Major J. A. Englehard and Col. W. L. Saunders:

THE DIFFERENCE.

According to Radical ideas of right and wrong, and of justice, it is all right to turn Northern convicts out of the Penitentiary, although they are grown men and notorious thieves, found guilty by a jury after a fair trial, but it is all wrong to turn out young Southern boys, of tender age, who, by promise of mild treatment, were induced to plead guilty before a scoundrel like Judge Bond, without any trial at all.

It is all right in Radical eyes to pardon the Pennsylvania thief, but it would be all wrong to pardon the North Carolina Ku-Klux, so-called. The grown man, Verkes goes free.

The boy Bausouer is in a felon's cell. Can North Carolinians reconcile it to their manhood or to their consciences to vote for Grant? If Grant is elected Radicalism will die. If Grant is re-elected Radicalism will live.

Now this whole proceeding speaks for itself. It is a villainous and cowardly attempt to threaten the Wilmington Journal; but it will fail.—The reign of blackguards may have just begun, but that they can succeed in muzzling the press of North Carolina, is impossible. The people can no longer be intimidated, the press will defy the thieves and scoundrels who rule, and expose their venality. We don't suppose Englehard and Saunders are much scared. They are made of sterner stuff.

The Charlotte "Democrat," speaking of the report that Caldwell intended to declare the Legislature just closed to be illegal, and then appoint John Pool U. S. Senator, says:

If Gov. Caldwell attempts the outrage alluded to he should be hurled from office without a day's delay. If the members of the Conservative party take the trouble they ought to do to report to the Legislature the proof of radical frauds in the late election, instead of John Pool getting back to the U. S. Senate Mr. T. R. Caldwell will get back to private life.

The re-election of Grant should deter no man from doing his duty. If Grant is re-elected, and we were a member of the Legislature, we would feel more disposed to vote to turn out the present State administration than Mr. Greeley was elected. Grant and his hirelings have already done their best to degrade Southern men, and we defy them to intimidate in the future. If the Southern people (the white men) will do their duty in the future by going to the polls and voting for honest and patriotic national men, the day is not far distant when they will control the U. S. Senate and drive out the miserable small-fry politicians who now control the Government."

This is rather strong language for our usually cool contemporary; yet it has the right ring and the true sentiment.

The election of Grant should not deter or intimidate any body, and especially the State Legislature, but it should make men more resolute and determined to resist tyranny in whatever form it presents itself. If our Legislature prove to be worth any thing in the way of taking care of the people's rights and interests, the fact that Caldwell claims to be Governor and Grant supposed to be elected President will amount to very little. But it is the next Legislature should prove to be unbecomingly as the last we think it would be better were it never to assemble.

In 1870 the people of North Carolina declared in thunder tones against tyrannical governors, corrupt subversive judges, dishonest underlings, extravagant and oppressive taxes. If the people's wishes had been carried out, not only Gov. Holden, but every Radical Judge, from Pearson down to Greasy Sam Watts, and other officials, against whom there were well authenticated charges of tyranny, venality and incompetency, would have been impeached and deposed. This is what the people expected, and they were both disappointed and eluded; and the utter failure of their representatives to realize and execute what had been so well mapped out for them. It was with some difficulty that some members were induced to impeach Holden, and although Holden was a great criminal and richly deserved all he received, yet he was not more guilty than Pearson and other Radical lights who had forfeited all claim or right to official position by their monstrous crimes. The timidity or stolid indifference of that Legislature to the proclaimed wishes of the people has been the great source of evil to our cause since. Not only the men who had committed great crimes were permitted to go unpunished of justice, but Tod Caldwell was allowed to bully and spit upon the Legislature with impunity.

We have hope of the recently elected body. We think its members are for the most part composed of men who will discharge the duties incumbent upon them fearlessly and without regard to consequences. We are persuaded that there are no time-servers—no policy men, among them. If this is true, we shall have a good report to make to our readers of their action.

We are decidedly in favor of the members of the Legislature doing what the people elect them to do. If they can't do this,—if they have no power to redress the wrongs of the people; to protect them from unlawful arrest, from official outrage and insult, from burdensome and fraudulent public debts, then the day of their usefulness has passed, and it would be well for our people to take into consideration the propriety of dispensing with State Legislatures altogether, and prepare to surrender to the general government. If the Legislature has no authority and is unable to protect the people from injustice and oppression, or to promote their prosperity as a State or a community, then, what are its uses? Where is the necessity of taxing the people to defray the expenses of it? We say there is none. But we say the Legislature has much power for good, if its members will but exercise it. Good and true men will do their duty in the Legislative halls of the State, or anywhere they are sent, but the mere politician and the time-server will not. We have been sorely cured with these long days, and they are responsible for the triumph of Radicalism. When the people resolve to select none but their best and truest men, peace will be restored to the country and prosperity and happiness to the people. Until they do so resolve, and proceed to act as well, the prevailing dishonesty among public functionaries, the usurpation, tyranny, social and political disquiet, stagnation, bitterness, mutual distrust and lawlessness generally, will continue to exist without abatement.

If our form of government is not indeed a failure, (or if the people have not determined to surrender and endorse the damnable innovations of usurping radicalism) the people yet have the power to set all things right, and they are really to blame for the wrongs they suffer, so long as they neglect to exert themselves to bring about the desired change.

TO THE PEOPLE OF NORTH CAROLINA.

RALEIGH, N. C., Oct. 18, 1872.

The National Democratic and the Liberal Republican Committees have recently held consultations in New York and surveyed the field of the Presidential election, to take place in the United States on Tuesday, the fifth day of November.

They are hopeful and even confident of the success of our nominees in this great contest for peace and reconciliation, for a pure and honest administration of the Government, and the preservation of the sacred principles of civil liberty itself. In this review of the political situation, they do not hesitate to say that much, very much depends on the vote of North Carolina.

Admit that we did well and nobly on the 1st August last; and but for the frauds and gross violations of the election laws of this State in that struggle, our victory would have been complete, instead of partial as it was.

We appeal to you now, friends of republican freedom and good government, to be ready for the final contest, so soon to be decided. Work earnestly and manfully for the right. Be vigilant and active in defense of the principles of our noble and inspiring cause of Constitutional liberty. Be not deceived by false representations, or swayed from the line of duty by the threats of those who thus disseminate official authority or by any other mode of intimidation or corruption, nor seduced by the blandishments of official patronage, so freely offered by those who live on public plunder and the taxes paid by an impoverished and oppressed people.

We urge you to vote as freemen, freely and independently, in the full intelligence, and unshaken exercise of all the rights of an American citizen. Be sure to attend your precinct, in your own township, on Tuesday the 5th of November, and see that your neighbors do likewise. Let the registration books be closely examined previously, and proper challenges made to all illegal votes. Challenge too, on the day of election, every attempt at illegal voting. It is all important to our success that a fair election and a full vote of our friends, both Democratic Conservative and Liberal Republican, be cast at the ballot box. This will secure a certain triumph in North Carolina, and on our vote may depend the result of the Presidential election. We therefore, earnestly urge our friends to see to this especially on the day of election, every attempt at illegal voting.
