ABSENT.-Dr. R. P. Bessent is now absent paying his Fall visit to Concord. Persons in Cabarrus desiring the services of a Dental Surgeon should avail themselves of the opportunity to call upon him.

DR. GRIFFITH, Dentist has been de tained from his office for several weeks on account of the severe illness of his sister in Forsythe county. He will return to his office by the 25th inst., and hopes then to be able to respond to the calls of his friends

The architect of the new Post Office and U.S. Court room, proposed to be built at Raleigh, has reported that the $100,000 appropriated by Congress for the purpose, must be increased to $250 .-000, to meet the cost. They aught to build like people who cut garments -- according to the cloth in hand.

The editors of New York having commenced raising a subscription for the daughters of the late Horace Greelev, the young ladies arrested the proceedings, by respectfully declining the acceptance of such charity. The funds raised will be appropriated to erect a monument over the remains of their deceased father.

SUDDEN DEATH -On last Saturday evening, Mr. Jacob Casper suddenly dropped dead in the street. He was on his way home in company with his daughter, and below Bank near the terminus of Main street at the time. The cause of his was about 65 years of age.

Only this, and nothing more. to go to the Senate, and may not receive the sanction of that body, though it is devoutly to be hoped that it may. The move is a good one, and while it should go further, and abolish the whole Internal Revenue system, the people have room to be thankful for any improvement at all

We very much regret to see that our learned co-temporary, the Associate of the Sentinel, seems to take to heart our adventure in the field of criticism with respect to him. But we wish to assure him that what we said was more in the spirit of badinage than otherwise. Really, we rather like his literary style, and it is only now and then that we observe the "umpirie," and against which we mildly and good lumoredly wished to enter a will excuse us.

THE TRI-WEEKLY WATCHMAN .- Bes lieving that the business interests of Salisbury demand a publication oftener than a weekly newspaper, and that a Tri-weekly would be sustained by the business men and citizens of the place, we propose January next, if by that time we shall obtain substantial evidence of public favor. It shall be earnest in its advocacy of the best interest of the place; and as the news paper is ever regarded as an index to the town from which it issues, we trust the enterprise may be well enough sustained to warrant liberality in getting it up.

Those who wish to encourage the scheme will please enter their subscriptions on a fist at Kluttz's Drug Store or at this
