LOOKOUT FOR THE MARK—
You see a cross upon your payment you may know that your time and you are indebted to the office, at your time will soon be up. In event send forward your submission.

SMOKING AND SMOKING TOBACCO.— Messrs. BROWN & BRO., of Mocks-have submitted to our test, samples of products of their extensive factory at place and we fearlessly pronounce a first-rate—the very best that we seen for a long time. We yield you, unless he be an older editor, in capacity to decide on the merits of each.

UNEXPECTED DEATH.—James House, a young citizen of this county, died very suddenly on the 17th instant, under circumstances that gave rise to numerous reports concerning the cause. He had been suffering the day before with Wesley fever, and the reports in the neighborhood implicated Beaver as causing the death of the deceased. A jury of inquest held on his body, which resulted in discovery of no marks of violence, and evidence in support of the rumors on subject, and guided by the opinion of attending surgeon, the jury rendered a dict of death by brain fever.

SABBATH SCHOOL CONCERT.—The children of the Methodist E. Sabbath school, under the direction of Mrs. S. W.
Trell and Mr. Benj. Marsh, gave a very interesting music concert at their church last night, the object of which, was to raise funds to purchase a Sabbath School Library. The entertainment was quite successful as an effort to gratify the lovers of music, and we hope was equally so in the matter of securing a Library.

WEST-CAROLINA RECORD is the title of a new paper started at Rutherfordton by Messrs. Carpenter & Grayson. There is still room for more.

GARDEN SEED FOR THE MILLION.— Attention is called to the Advertisement of Mr. Theo. Klutz, Druggist. Mr. Klutz prepared to furnish garden and other seeds in large or small quantities, at wholesale or retail; and is doing a big business in the seed line. Call and see him.

MAIL SERVICE.—We are in receipt of letter from Col. Long, Special Agent of the Post-office Department, in which he assures us that he is ready at all times to aid us in procuring mail facilities. We therefore urge the people in those sections in need of mail facilities to consult with Col. Long, and we have no doubt that something can be done to relieve them. The Col. has succeeded in having several post offices established and others proposed, and we are assured that he is ready at all times to do what he can to promote the public interest with respect to this matter.

MASONIC MONITOR.—This handsome massive eight-page monthly is to hand.
This journal is well printed and well edited and should receive liberal encouragement from the Craft. The January number of the Monitor contains the proceedings of the Grand Lodge of North Carolina, and also the Grand Master's Address, and addresses or individuals can be supplied with extra copies for distribution among the Craft; at the price of ten copies for single copies 10 cents.

THE MONITOR is published by J. A. Bonitz, at Goldsboro, N. C., at $1.50 per annum.

THAT WELL.—The city fathers are all digging and delving at that well which is to supply the city with water, and run too or three saw mills on the suburbs. We have not the slightest idea that it will cost the town, but think it will not be worse than six or eight times more than what it should have done.

ATTENTION LOVERS OF GOOD BREAD.— Mr. A. Parker has secured the services of a no. 1 new Baker and intends to exhibit anything in the way of cooking yet seen from his establishment. He is prepared to get up anything in the bread or cake line at short notice and in the best style, such as icing, &c. Persons wishing to exchange flour for bread can be accommodated. He will give a pound of bread for a pound of flour. He will also accommodate those who wish to have their bread baked. If they will mix their flour at home and send it to him, he will have it baked for ten to twenty-five cents a loaf.

He is preparing to manufacture candles and will commence in a short time. His candles will be warranted pure and sold to suit purchasers, at wholesale or retail.

filled with the cream of the current news.

Large numbers of negro laborers are leaving Lenoir, Pitt, and Granville counties. The Rads will have to make large importations from South Carolina for the next election.

The "old red mill" of E. M. Holt, Esq., unknown loyalist.

An increasing patronage, and the direction from Editorial duties, by professional
