From the Bainbridge Sun. SATURDAY NIGHT.

Placing the little hats all in a row, Ready for church on the morrow you know Washing wee faces and little black fists, Getting them ready and fit to be kissed ; Putting them into clean garments and white . That is what mothers are doing to-night.

Calling the little,"ones all around her chair, Hearing them lisp forth their soft evening them until all arrearages are paid.

prayer ; Telling them stories of Jesus of old, Who loves to gather the lambs to his fold ; Watching, they listen with childish delight, That is what mothers are doing to-night, Spying out holes in the little worn hose.

Looking o'er garments so faded and thin-Who but a mother knows where to begin ? Changing a button to make it look right-That is what mothers are doing to-night.

Creeping so softly to take a last peep, After the little ones all are asleep ; Anxious to know if the children are warm. Tucking the blankets round each little form, Kissing each little face, rosy and bright-That is what mothers are doing to-night.

Kneeling down gently beside the white bed. Lowly and meekly she bows down her head, Praying as only a mother can pray, "God guide and keep then from going TREATMENT OF SMALL POX—AN ALLEG- ED EFFECTUAL REMEDY.—A great discov- ery is said to have been recently made by a surgeon of the British, army in China, in the way of an effectual remedy for small pox The mode of treatment is as follows : "When the proceeding fever is at its height, the chest is rubbed with Croton oil and tartaris oint- ment." This causes the whole of the erup- tion to appear on that part of the body to the relief of the rest. It also secures a full and complete eruption, and thus prevents the dis- ease from attacking the internal organs.
