WILLY P. MANGUM.—We copy the following from the Raleigh Christian Adnocate. That paper says:

"We believe the following incident which we learn) rom attend and relation of the late distinguished Wiley P. Mangum, has never appeared in print. It is friends and custos said that the most triumphant effort ever ing our stock of made by that honored North Carolinian, in the U. S. Senate, was on the last evening of a session, just before the adjournment of the Senate. He was assailed by John O. Calboun and when he arose to reply, it was in a speech whose power, burning eloquence and grandeur had never been surpassed in that body. The repor-ters were utterly incapable to follow him in his rapidity of thought and fiery eloquence, and the speech was therefore never published. The Senate adjourned, the members hurried to their homes and Daniel Webster, as soon as he arrived at home, wrote a note of congratulation to Mr. Mangum, in which he said "Never 3 a 6 pr. bl was man more unjustly assailed; never

Dyspepia is the most perplexing of all human ailments. Its symptoms are almost infinite in their varity, and the forlorn and despundent victims of the disease often rancy themselves the prey, in turn, of every known malady. This is due, in part, to the close sympathy which exist between the stomach and the brain, and in part also to the fact that any disturbance of the digestive fouction necessarily disorders the liver, the bowels and the nervous system, and effects, to some extent, the quality of the blood. GEORGE FALES,

SMITH'S IMPROVED

WE call the attention of the public to this admirable invention. It is especially recom-mended to private families, being conveni-ent for quick filling, self emptying and ease in drawing. For durability it is unsurpass-ed—having an Iron covered Top, the wind-lass, rope and bucket are protected from the weather. It is so arranged as to secure absolute safety from accident. even in the hands of the most carcless, and willfully negligent
