JOHN ALLEN KETCHEY .- This irrepressible individual was heard from last Sanday as being in the neighborhood of tions. From that time to the present its Sheriff Smith, and others, proceeded to ambuscade the roads in that section. Very soon John Allen and his brother, Lewis 3 a 6 pr. bl Ketchey, came jogging alone in a one horse wagon. They had arrived within ten or fifteen paces before they discovered the Sheriff's posse. John Allen at once A BIG CABBAGE. - Mr. Robert Murphy sprang into the woods, when the posse, has got a cabbage whose leaves are as some six or eight in all, fired upon him long as a man's arm. Some cabbage with pistols, carbines, and shot guns. John Allen made no halt, but proceeded on his way with the speed of a deer ; The LARGE SALE OF COTTON .- Mr. John party claim that he was severely wound-I. Shaver sold his cotten last Tuesday for ed, and that he could be and was tracked 174 cents per lb. Mr. Stephen Lord was by the blood for miles. Still, he was not the purchaser for a party in New York captured and has not been since, although large numbers have been in search of him every day, and the whole country has been scoured for miles atound.

> John Allen is as hard to capture as he is to keep after he has been captured. Those who have undertaken either his keeping or capture have signally failed, Ketchey having out generalled them with the most perfect case.

If the story circulated is true, in regard to the wounding of Ketchey, it is wonderful that he has not been captured. It were impossible for a man wounded as badly as he is said to have been to escape the vigilance of so many pursuers.
