ART DEPARTMENT.

Notwithstanding the increase in the price of assumed its present noble proportions and representative character, the edition was more than doubled during the past year; proving that the American public appreciate, and will support, a sincere effort in the cause of Art. The pubtishers, anxious to justify the ready confidence thus demonstrated, have exerted themselves to: the utmost to develop and improve the work and the plans for the coming year, as unfolded by the monthly issues, will astonish and delight even the most sangulue friends of THE ALLUINE.

The publishers are authorized to announce designs from many of the most eminent artists In addition, THE ALDINE will reproduce examples of the best foreign masters, selected with a view to the highest artistic success, and greatest general interest; avoiding such as have become familiar, through photographs, or copia. of any kind. The quarterly tinted plates for 1872, will it produce four of John S. Davis' inimital. sketches, appropriate to the four seaplates, speaking fin the immedia. April, July, and October, would be also begin the price of a year's subscription. To possess such a valuable entitime of the sit world, at a cost so triffing, will ver mand the subscriptions of thousands in every the country; but, as the usefulness and store of THE ALDINE can be enhanced in principal tion to the numerical increase of its supporters.

the publishers propose to make "assurance in ble sure," by the following unparalleled offer. Every subscriber to THE ALDINE, who pays in advance for the year 1873, will receive, without additional charge, a pair of beautiful oil chromos, after J. J. Hill, the cament English painter. The pictures entitled, "The Village Beile," and "Crossing the Moor," are 14 a 20 inches—are printed from 25 different place, requiring 25 impressions and times to perfect each picture. The same chromos are sold for $30 per pair, in the art stores. As it is the de-termination of its conductors to keep THE AL-DINE out of the reach of competition in every department, the chromos will be found corre-pondingly shead of any that can be offered by other periodicals. Every subscriber will receive a certificate, over the signature of the publishers, guaranteeing that the chromos delivered shall be equal to the samples furnished the agent, or the money will be refunded. The distribution of pictures of this grade, free to the subscribers to a five dollar periodical, will mark an e-poch in the history of Art; and, considering the unprecedented cheapness of the price of THE ALDINE itself, the marvel falls little short or a miracle, even to those best acquainted with the achievements of inventive genius and improved mechanical appliances.
