THE CHARLOTTE FAIR.

We have been assured by gentlemen of Charlotte that heither money nor pains place this year a Grand succes.

The people of Charlotte have heretofore had great difficulties to contend with. and bad weather has been a principal one. It has invariable overtaken them just at the important time their Fair was to open and has been the main cause of their previous failures, if indeed, they could be tinued the further hearing until the 18th of called failures. There have been other minor difficulties, as we understand ; but notwithstanding all these, the people of harlotte have struggled manfully to make their Faira success, and they will do it this Messrs. McCorkle & Bailey and Luke Black- fall. A people of such unremitting energy thing but destiny. We therefore predict that next Fair of the Carolinas will be the grandest success of the season.
