Their terms are strictly cash and barter with a few exceptions. Those who are reliable and prompt in paying their accounts it affords them pleasure to accommodate. To enable them to sell goods at close prices, which they are determined to do, this policy has been adapted, when goods are sold on time to indiscriminate parties, heavy losses will occur from the Bankrupt and Homestead provisions of the law, and when losses are sustained by merchants, it is a well stated ble to suppose that the losses to be made up as far as practicable, falls on the honest paying customers. They have determined to stop this way of doing business, by selling at the lowest cash and barter prices and credit no man who is
