A New Book .- There is now in Press and will be ready by the first of February next, a new N. C. Justice and Form Book. It is compiled and edited by Quent Busbee, Esq., The proprietorship rests in Mr. Jas. H. Enniss, Bookseller, Raleigh, N. C.

From what we hear of the work, it will prove of very great value to the Justices of the Peace, and in fact, to all public officers. It has been compiled with great care from the statutes in force and the decisions of the Supreme Court, with full explanatory notes. Every public officer and business man should have one. The church of Third Creek, Rowan co. was called in the Providence of God, with his family, friends, and the community in general, to mourn the loss by death, of one of its oldest and most valuable members, in the person of Mr. David Waddell. He had attained the advanced age of about 76 years. He was a regular attendant and liberal supporter of the church which he joined more than forty years ago under the ministry of Rev. J. D. Kilpatrick. He was born and brought up in the same vi-cinity, where he spent his long and useful life. Having had in his early life few advantages of schools, yet of good natural talents, he acquired a good practical business education. A full and com-plete stock of Shoes, Hats, Hosey gloves, Rib-bons &c. Sugar, Coffee, Molassas, and all kinds of

GROCERIES.

Their terms are strictly cash and barter with a few exceptions. Those who are reliable and prompt in paying their accounts it affords them pleasure to accommodate. To enable them to sell goods at close prices, which they are deter-mined to do, this policy has been adapted, when goods are sold on time to indiscriminate parties, heavy losses will occur from the Bankrupt at Homestead provisions of the law, and when losses are sustained by merchants, it is a well stated fact that such losses are met and it is reasonsble to suppose that the losses to be made up as far as practicable, falls on the honest paying customers. They have determined to stop this way of doing business, by selling at the lowest cash and barter prices and credit no man who is unworthy of it.

They are thankful to their daily friends and customers for their very liberal custom and conidence, and hope by selling Good Goods at low prices to secure their continued favors. MOCK & BROWN. March 27-tf.
