Respited .- We learn from Sheriff Waggoner, that John Allen Ketchey, who was sentenced to be hanged on the 22nd inst., has had his sentence changed by the Governor, and his time respited to the 18th June.

Strengous efforts are being made by the prisoners counsel and friends, to secure a commutation of sentence from death to imprisonment in the Poultentiary for life. These efforts have doubtless been fruitful to the extent of obtaining the respite noticed above.

We do not believe that this movement is sustained by the better portion of the people of the county. The appalling frequency of the dreadful crime of which the prisoner was convicted, to say nothing of the general character of the condemned, has produced a very profound sense of the necessity of executing the law with Foreign Emigrants for the South. - The Baltimore Sun, of the 11th instant, reports the arrival there of a party of destitute foreigners, who, sent first from Castle Garden to Chester S. C., to work on the plantation, became dissatisfied and dishearted at the conditions and prospects of their Southern home, and were making their way back to N. Y., but were kindly provided for at Baltimore, and thence took a new departure for the West, where the party expected to join relatives and friends.

The general tone of the Sun's report of this case, seemed to imply that the South was a hard place for emigrants to come to; and with the conviction that there must be some error in this view of it, we were led to make inquiries of an English emigrant, now employed in one of our stores here, (Mr. W.) for his experience, observation and views on the subject of foreign emigrants coming South. His conviction is, that if agents who are sent to engage and forward emigrants to the South will select them with reference to their former pursuits in life as well as in no after dissatisfaction either on the part down on the last Legislature; opposed to

Messrs Editors.—In your last issue you stated that it was reported that Mr. Linton a drummer from New York House to-morrow (Friday) at 12 o'clock was dragged from his bed at an unseasonable hour of the night by policemen and taken before a magistrate on a charge for which he was not liable; and you ask for the facts in the case.

The charge upon which Mr. Linton was arrested was that of selling articles not of his own manufacture by sample without having first paid a license Tax. The charge, and would be glad if ministers and law upon the case is to be found in Section 20, Schedule B. of the recent Revenue

"Every drummer or travelling agent or any person who shall sell any spirituous, vinous or malt liquors, goods, wares or merchandise with or without samples, whether delivered or to be delivered, except agricultural implements and fruit trees and articles on the 7th May. Mr. George A. Canup and of his own growth or manufacture, shall before making any such sale obtain a license to sell one year from the Public Treasurer by paying said Treasurer an annual Tax of Fifty dollars but shall not be liable to be taxed in any county because of his sales Any person violating the provisions of this paragraph shall be fined not exceeding fifty dollars or imprisoned not exceeding one COTTON -11 a 15 month and shall forfeit and pay besides two hundred dollars, etc., etc."

We are informed that Mr. Linton was arrested under section 20 of the Act to raise revenue which makes a misdemeans or for any person to peddle goods, wares, or merchandise without procuring a license, &c.; but the warrant was afterwards changed by the prosecutor's counsel to embrace section 23 of the Revenue Act, quoted as above by our correspon-

Mr. Linton was advised by counsel that he was not liable under section 23 several days before the arrest was made, and the opinion of his counsel was sustained by the State Treasurer who always acts under the best legal advise in the State. And our correspondent admits that RAILROAD PROPERTY for Sale, Mr. Linton was not liable. But enough of this. Mr. Linton's ground of complaint was that he was arrested as thought he was guilty of a felony at such "unseasonable hours" of the night, and that too after he had retired. Mr. Airy says that he alone made the arrest on a warrant properly issued and that the report that two police were concerned is a mistake Of course the officer making the arrest was not to blame.

Mr. Linton as the agent of a manufacturing establishment was certainly not liable; but leaving his guilt or innocence out of the question, his treatment, if his will sell at the Court House door in the City story and that of other gentlemen of the of highest integrity is to be considered, was Salisbury, the 18th day of not such as to impress strangers favorably with Salisbury.
