THE NATIONAL HOTEL at Raleigh, N C., is not only one of the best furnished. but one of the best kept hotels in the Southern Country. Its location is delightful and every comfort is there to be enjoyed by those who become guests. Col. C. S. Brown and son are very attentive and give a personal superintendence to every department.

Bound for Albany .- Two prisoners, L. D. Chambers from Graham co., and Chas. Buchanan from Mitchell, passed through here on Wednesday in charge of an officer, bound for the Albany Penitentary. They were convicted of counterfeiting at Asheville Court last week and sentenced for 18 months and 2 years respectivel y.

Pic-nic .- There will be a Sunday school pic-nic at Rowan Mills next Thurs day. A special train will leave here on that morning, run up passed Statesville and back to the Mills to give the children at Statesville and above a chancer to at tend.
