still maintained the contest and that the great outrage was not yet completed. But the fanatical majority carried their point at last, and passed the measure. The Capitol showing that our noble champions real and avowed purpose of it is to compel companionship between the people and especially the children of the two races, so as to destroy, they say, the prejudices of race. It ought to be entitled a Bill to destroy free schools in the South, to bring about social intermingling of whites and blacks, promote amalgamation, and mongrelize our people like that of Mexico.

The Bill has yet to pass the House before it becomes a law. We shall resist its passage there by every available expedient and to the last extremity. There will no doubt be some all night sessions on it in the House. But the Radicals can and probably will pass it before Congress adjourns. County and town authorities in North Carolina who may be debating the subject of levying school taxes will take note of this.

My main purpose in writing is to beg the people to take a decided course in this matter with all candidates for office who may be before them, compel them to speak out squarely and say if they are for or against this law without any dodging, every time they mount the stump. Congress would not pass this Bill if the white Radicals of the South would openly and unitedly denounce it. It is the doubtful manner in which the Southern Radicals deal with this question that is going to cause the Bill to pass and they will be responsible for it. Let the Conservative press continue to "cry aloud and spare not," and make every Radical candidate, little and big, say how he stands on this Bill. If it becomes a law it dooms the children of the poor to grow up in ignorance or go to school with negroes. Is it possible that any decent white man in North Carolina will hereafter vote with a party which does such things?

P. S. Since writing the above I learn that an amendment was offered last night that the Bill should be so construed as to compel mixing white and black children in schools, and this amendment was voted down. So there is no mistaking the animus of the Radical majority in the matter, on the results of the Bill. Its terms are perfectly plain, and include schools, hotels, churches, railroad cars, steamboats, cemeteries, and everything. It reaches from the cradle to the grave.

EDITORS WATCHMEN: GENTLEMEN:—In your last issue I find these words, (of the Associate Editor, I presume,) with regard to the receipts and disbursements of the funds of the Town, for the Municipal year, ending May 4th, 1874:

"This Report, the Law requires to be made by the clerk, for some reason or other, the clerk has made no report, &c.; thus through inadvertence, not designed, charging me with an unmerited dereliction of official duty. I deny the existence of any Law in the charter or elsewhere, requiring said Report to be made by the clerk. The Law imposes this duty on the Treasurer. In Sec. 12 of the charter, is the only Law, prescribing the clerk's duty in the premises, and said Commissioners, shall cause a copy of said account, (the Treasurer's) for the year preceding every 1st day of December, to be made by their clerk, and posted in the Court House, in said Town, for 20 days next previous to the 1st day of January in each and every year," which accordingly, (except as to time, now changed,) has been done. There is no Law requiring publication in a Newspaper, but it has been customary—your kind offer to publish gratuitously, &c. will not be sufficient authority, for me, as clerk of my own matter, to furnish the desired Copy. I will do so, with pleasure, when authorized by the Board, whose servant I am.

T. G. HAUGHTON, C. B. C. Mr. Haughton is simply mistaken as, I think, I shall be able to show in next issue. He is not merely the servant of the Board either; for both he and the Board are liable to indictment for failures to comply with the law in this particular. With all due deference to Mr. H., we will here say, the charter has not been changed and it has not been complied with.

Davidson College. The COMMENCEMENT at Davidson will take place on Thursday the 25th of June. The roll of the graduating class contains nineteen names. On the day preceding Commencement, there will be interesting exercises. The Rev. M. D. Hoop, D. D., of Richmond, Va., will deliver the annual oration. On the afternoon of the same day the Hon. J. G. Ramsay, will deliver the address before the Alumni. The reputation of these gentlemen will doubtless attract a large audience upon that day. There will also be a sermon before the graduating class on Sabbath preceding and a representative oration from the two literary societies on Wednesday night.

WASHINGTON, MAY 23rd, 1874. EN TORS WATCHMAN:—After sitting all night the Senate, at seven o'clock this morning, passed the so-called "civil-rights Bill." The Radical Senators had determined in caucus to have a vote on it before adjourning for the day, and the patriotic Democrats and Conservatives to a man fought against it all night. As I sat at my table writing,—for I could not sleep at such a time,—it was impressive, as hour after hour rolled away until the morning began to dawn, to watch the light keep blazing on in the dome of the Good Men for County Commissioners.—We would respectfully suggest to our county convention the following names from among which a Board of county Commissioners might be selected. We need never be at a loss for suitable persons to fill the position, as long as we have such men among us as Jas. McCubbin, J. K. Graham, John Graham, John Rice, Cathy Rice, John C. Miller, J. M. Harrison, J. L. Sloan, J. B. Parker, A. J. Mook, J. G. Fleming, E. Mauney, Tobias File, Henry Barringter, Cal. Reed, Frank Barber, J. M. Steel, B. A. Knox, S. B. Clark, J. A. Fisher, J. B. Gibbs, J. A. Hawkins, Chas. F. Baker, Jesse W. Miller, E. McNeely, Col. Houck, Chas. H. McKnight, Dr. Coleman, Dr. Skimpoch, Rembert Cross, J. M. Coleman, Thos. E. Brown, Dr. Sifford, Monroe Barger, Andrew Berger, John Earheart, Thos. F. Earheart, Lewis Aguer, Dr. Roseman, J. F. Freeze, G. A. J. Soghter, E. D. Johnson, Ransom Jacobs, W. R. Fraley, E. A. Prigot, A. Peeler, John Yerbte, W. M. Kincaid, Dr. Chunn, George Lyesty, W. A. Lingle, Jesse Lyesty, John B. Beard, A. Peeler, W. F. Watson, P. N. Helig, B. F. Fraley, Sam'l Linton, Dr. Sumner, E. J. Holmes, S. S. Trot, J. M. Horah, P. P. Merosey, E. H. Marsh, and a host of others as good men as any now in the Board whom we might name. With such a list to select from, it strikes us that there can be enough obtained to fill the county Board and not be compelled to take those of whom it is said that the county can't get along without. It is an insult to the intelligence of the county to say that the county government can't be run without Messrs Co & so are kept in the Board. If the county affairs are half as badly muddled as they are represented to be, we have had a little too much of these bur or Heaven created rulers, so-called. If our people will set themselves upon the records of the Poor House alone for the last few years, they will find enough to make them repudiate without hesitation these immaculate. We tell the people there is great need of a change in the county Board. If we were not opposed to any one having a lease for life on any particular office, we would still urge a change in the county Board; and there will be a change unless white men help the negroes to vote in certain of the present incumbents. This is the game now. Why are these men not willing to come before the county convention and abide its decision? Because they know that their conduct has been of that kind, the better class of people will not endorse; hence they declare themselves independents, and trust to the negroes and vagabonds to cover up their misdeeds. Will the good people allow them to do it.

OBITUARY. At the residence of Richard Culbertson, April 18th, Mrs. John C. Trowel, aged about 30 years. He died of consumption, contracted or developed while in Texas, whence he returned to his native State and county about the 1st of April, only surviving his return a few painful days. The deceased was a very promising student at Davidson College, which place he left suddenly and without apparent cause about two years ago and went to Texas, where he engaged to teach school. His health soon failed him, however, and he delayed his return home to the latest possible day as above indicated. He had an insurance on his life, and we learn that this will secure any creditors he may have left behind.
