The Carolina Watchman.

VOL. V .--- THIRD SERIES.

SALISBURY N. C., JULY 2, 1874.

NO. 37 .--- WHOLE NO. 1935

PUBLISHED WEEKLY : J. J. BRUNER, Proprietor and Editor. J. J. STEWART Associate Editor. RATES OF SUBCHIPTION WEEKLY WATCHMAN. Tri-weekly Watchman.

SIX MONTHS " ONE MONTH

ADVERTISING RATES

ONE SQUARE (1 inch) One insertion Rates for a greater number of insertions Inderate. Special notices 25 per cent. more than regular advertisements. Reading notices 5 cents per line for each and every insertion.

THE FAVORITE HOME REMEDY. icine is warranted not ontain a single particle of MERCURY, or any unrious mineral substance, but is PURELY VJET ABLE.

Serious apprehensions are felt that ALWAYS LOVERS .- Married_ people a war, or at least very grave compli- should treat each other like lovers all cations may grow out of the intolerance their lives-then they would be happy. His Execution in Salisbury Last Friday. exhibited by the government of Prus-sia towards the Catholics. There are not three provide the second seco now three Roman Catholic bishops now three Roman Catholic bishops But some people-men and women both and over one hundred inferior persons when they have once got marred, think of the same religion in Prussian that they may just do as they please, and prisons. It is considered evident, it will make no difference. It causes all ONE YEAR, payable in advance......$2.50 from the clearly asserted policy of the the difference in the world. Women ONE YEAR, payable in advance world. Women Six MONTHS, "..... 1.50 Prussian government, that the remain- should grow more devoted and men more 5 Copies to any address..... 10.0 ing bishops there of that church will fond after marriage, if they have the slighshare the same fate or be exiled, and est idea of being happy as wives or husbands. It is losing sight of this funda-mental truth which leads to hundreds of " 50 the great powers of Europe, will prodivorces. Yet, many a man will scold his wife, who would never think of breathbably become their refuge. Should ing a harsh word to his sweet heart ; and this be the case, and, as in former many a wife will be glum and morose on instances, protests come from there, her husband's return, who had only smiles and a dropaganda be organized, there to cheer him when he was her suitor.

may be trouble, as there are already, How can such people expect to be happy ? mutterings from Prussia of serious remaining contents of the stomach, and

Poison.

however small, let the white of an egg or a teacup of strong coffee be swallowed as soon as the stomach is quiet. These very common articles nulify a larger number of the principality, agreed to by the Earl If a person swallows any poison whatof Derby, be enforced under such cirever, or has fallen into convulsions from cumstances. A variety of other com- having overloaded the stomach, an instanplications seem to be arising about the taneous remedy, more efficient and appli-Eastern question; and the old game cable in a large number of cases than any ofstopping the organization of a French half a dozen medicines, is a heaping tea- to jail.-He was tried and condemned and an republic is again being played .- En- spoor of common salt and as much ground appeal taken to the Supreme Court, which requirer. water, warm or cold and swallowed in-

VALUATION OF COMMERCIAL stantly. It is scarcely down before it begins to come up, bringing with it the FERTILIZERS.

consequences should the protection of

The honest manufacturer of a good fertilizer has no reason to fear any fair lest there be any remnant of the poison, tests which may be applied to it, whether in the laboratory or in the field, and it is for the interest of all parties who desire to see justice and fair dealing prevail, that cle of the kind in market. Attempts are the shops. now being made to ascertain, by means of HOW A FLOCK OF SHEEP WAS DROWNchemical analysis, the commercial value of the principal fertilizers offered for sale. ED.-Galignuni's Messenger notes that It will cure all Diseases caused by Derangement This is praiseworthy in design; but the a somewhat singular incident has just ocresult, so far, has been, we fear, to con- curred at the farm belonging to the fuse still more the already perplexed far- chateau of Avignor in the Camarque, wished to hear any statements from him, and jobs to be execrated. Collectors of cus- recording the mortgaged securing the tern bacon at a high price, when cotton is mer. Last winter, for instance, Prof. Bouches du Rhone. A flock of six hun-White, of the Georgia State Agricultural dred and eighty-four sheep were feeding. an hour of suffering and many a dollar in time College, set down the value of a sample when they were suddenly surprised by a of a popular fertilizer analyzed by him at violent storm of wind and rain dashing in $34.77. To another sample for the same their faces. They instantly turned and life is forfeited. I never had aught to do with and unnessary offices were not created bunches of luxuriant clover which had hay. It will enable you to feed your fertilizer, subjected to analysis in March ran away to escape the driving shower. last, and estimated on the same basis, is but, unfortunately, the path they selected. affixed the sum of $54.63 as its true mon- led them straight to a deep pond, into ey value. An analysis of this fertilizer by which they plunged, one after another, wouldn't be here to-day. I want you to under-Dr. F. A. Genth, of Philadelphia, now and were all drowned. A poor dog, stand it, gentlemen, that I am innocent of ever before us, differs widely from both of the which was in charge of the flock, endeas violating her person. No woman that ever changes of water and food may be faced without foregoing, and of course gives us different vored to stop them, but the pressure of lived can say I ever approached her in any figures in the column of values. Now the frightened animals was so great that such way what shall we infer? Clearly, either the he was borne down and shared their fate. different samples varied greatly in quality Their bodies were extricated the next day this place. I am innocent of the charge. or chemistry, as applied to fertilizers, and and buried in deep ditches dug close by. never injured any man in this corporation. I in the hands of professed chemists, is any- The loss was estimated at nearly thirty have injured some men in the county, and I thing but an exact science and only calca- thousand francs. lated to lead us astray. In either case the farmer is thrown back upon the fields and A Good Laugh. the experience of himself and his fellow-Rev. Mr. Talmage in the Christain of agriculturists for the determinations of Work, a most excellent weekly, writes : value he secks. Even lambs frisk, and brooks frolic, and Rural Carolinian for July the ass, pronounced the most unemotion-

JOHN ALLEN KETCHEY.

the Scaffold-The Hanging.

John Allen Ketchey, the notorious criminal, was hanged in this place last Friday, in the pre-sent of a large crowd and a heavy guard. We present below a full account of the execution, prefacing it with a sketch of the life of this remarkable man: known step in the downward course was the forgery of pay-rolls and furloughs in the army, and his subsequent desertion. Since then he has been notorious as a jail-breaker and horse-thief. He has traveled much and assumed successfully at different times the character of suspecting people and generally rewarding them by stealing the best horses in the neighborhood. He has frequently broken from jails in different parts of the State as well as at one time, administration of James Buchanan that the Penitentiary of New York. "there never had been such a season of The crime for which he hangs is alleged rape, profligacy as those same four years." upon Miss Milly Becheer, in Rowan county, in Sir, during those four years purity in June, 1872. Before trial he escaped from jail, private and integrity in public life were as nairated in his last speech, but recaptured the rule and not the exception. During in Salisbury some time after and re-committed those years elections were free and not controlled by military authority; the mustard stirred rapidly in a teacup of fused to grant a new trial; and to-day, after freedom of speech and of the press were two respites from the Governor, he was hang-Ketchey was about 5 feet 8 inches high, dark hair, Roman, nose, intelligent and rather prepossessing features, and gentlemanly address. There is much division of opinion here as to his guilt, but the Governor, after a patient hearing of his case decided not to interfere. Had his life been turned into other grooves he might have ended far differently. Ketchey was brought into a room of the jail. such tests be rigidly applied to every artiligious services were held by Rev. L. W. Crawford, of the Methedist Church, who stated that

A Powerful Arraingment.

In the House of Representatives, at In the House of Representatives, at equipage. Washington, during the recent debate on equipage. There, sir, are some of the things the Railroads and Oteaners of the insurance man got any oteaners of Pennsyl. There, sir, are some of the things of the return freight the insurance man got any other per cent. Messrs. Tucker & Co. Sketch of His Life-Remarks on appropriations, Mr. Clymer, of Pennsylvania, gave uttorance to the following which did not exist, and did not occur, other per cent. Messrs. Tucker & Co. eloquent but trubful indictment against and were not doug during the adminis- must have a percent andthe Radical party :

tration of James Bachanan, that "scason "If what has just been stated by the of profligacy" referred to Ly my colleague ed me out with a jerk, and lo and be-Chairman on Appropriations be true, it Did time permit many others might be hold ! my old master, the man who raised is but corroborative of the opinion long enumerated held forth for general detes- me, said he would take me, " that he entertained on this side of the chamber, tation and execution. But, sir, if these wanted some norrard homespun, and I John Allen Ketchey was born in Rowan county, near this place, and at the time of his execution was about thirty-four years old. He was born of poor parents, and had only the commonest educational advantages, but always that the number of offices and the pay things do exist, have occurred, and are was bundled up and am now at my old attached thereto under the existing done in this "season of profligacy," which home in Wake, expecting shortly to be noted for brightness and shrewdness. His first So far as I can remember we have re- responsibility. ceived but one answer, which consists of

And, sir, of all these high crimes and denunciations prior to 1860 ; the design misdemeanors, of all these sins of omisbeing to conceal existing abuses and ex- sion and commision, of all these invasions travagance. And no one has done so of the rights and liberties of the people, more persistently than my colleague. of all these violations of the Constitution the following persons realized profits on lawyer, preacher, doctor, &c, humbugging un- Judge Kelly, who, when his bill was and the law, I here and now arraign the me :

under consideration, on a former debate, party to which my colleague belongs took occasion to assert concerning the before the bar of the American people.

Autobiography of a Cotton Bale.

I was raised in Wake county, North not abridged ; the right of the people to Carolina, by a farmer of moderate means. be secure in their persons and effects was At an early age I learned from a convernot exhibited ; the right of trial by jury sation between the farmer and a neighwas not denied ; no cruel or unnecessary bor that I and the land on which I was punishments were inflicted ; innocent raised was mortgaged to a Baltimore firm, men were not arrested by the "tinkling who had furnished fertilizers for the soil. of a bell," and left to languish in the and also to a Raleigh merchant who had fortresses of the United States during the sold supplies of Western bacon and corn innocent woman were not hanged.

simiplicity in official life and manners, per cent. Then the manufacturer got and there was no aping of regal magnifi his profits. Then the New York wholecence in establishment, intercourse or sale merchant got his per cent. Then

Here a clerk reached down and pull cut up.

CHAPTER II.

I believe when Mr. Tacker's clerk broke the thread of my discourse, I was making a calculation. I had told how

- 1. The Raleigh Cotton Factory.
- 2. The Railroads and Steam lines.
- 3. The Insurance Agents.
- 4. The Baltimore Merchant.
- 5. The Northern Railroads.
- 6. The Northern Insurance Compan-
- 7. The Manufacturer.
- 8. The Wholesale Merchant.
- 9. Phe Rail Roads on return freight.
- 10. The Insurance men on return risk.
- 11. The Retail Dealer.

These parties all showed a deep interest in me, and I wish to say I entertain no unkind feelings toward any of them. The profits they realized from me were legitimate and proper. But, I feel very kindly for the man who raised me, and when I considered that he paid all these pleasure of a President or Secretary ; and for the support of the field hauds, and accumulated profits, added to the origin-Northern hay and oats for the mules. al cost, I did not wouder that he dressed Then, sir, there was neither unbridled The farmer complained that necessity had poorly and was hard pressed to support containing those Southern Roots and Herbs, which on all-wise Providence has placed in

of the Liver and Bowls.

Simmons' Liver Regulator or Medicae.

Is eminently a Family Medicine; and by being kept ready for immediate resort will save many and doctors' bills.

After over Forty Years' trial it is still receiving the most unqualified testimonials to its virtues from persons of the highest character and responsibility. Eminent physicians commend it as the most

EFFECTURAL SPECIFIC

For Dyspepsia or Indigestion. Armed with this ANTIDOTE, all climates and fear. As a Remedy in MALARIOUS FE-VERS, BGWEL, COMPLAINTS, RESTLE-NESS, JAUNDICE, NEAUSEA

T HAS NO EQUAL It is the deapest Purest and Bost Family Medicine in the World ! Manufactured only by JH ZEILIN CO., Macon Ga., and Philadelphia. Price. $1.00. Sold by all Druggists.

The Ten Commandments.

The Ten Commandments, have been condensed into ten lines of yerses. The following is a copy taken from an old parish register in Lancaster, Nottinghamshire, England.

"Have no other God but me ; Unto no image bow the knee; Take not the name of God in vain; Do not the Sabbath day profane; Honor thy Father and Mother too : And see that thou no murder do; From vile adult'ry keep thou clean; And steal not, tho' thy state be mean ; Bear not false witness-shun that blot; What is thy neighbor's covet not.

THE COST OF NOVELS.

The price of novels is often low, yet poultry disease, last year, Miss Kirk speed the cost of them in a lifetime is very ily checked its spread by the free use of great. Miss W _____ borrowed some lime, scattering it all about and giving books, yet she payed seventy dollars in lime-water to drink. An example was one year for novels alone. Doing this given last year of a lady at Concord, for fifteen years, she would spend one Mass., who raised a gross value of $350 thousand and fifty dollars. Yet her neph- worth from Domigues and common breeds; ews and nieces were growing up without but this was exceeded by Miss Kirk, an education. Mrs. L .-----stinted her whose profits alone are $330. Such effamily in groceries, that she might have a forts as these on the part of our ladies new novel every month. Mr. C---- are creditable in the highest degree, and pleaded want of means to aid the orphan are worthy of general emulation. asylum, yet he paid more than sixty dollars a year for novels for his daughters. CABBAGES AND THEIR ENEMIES. Novels have, in the last five years, cost the people of the United States from twelve "big-root" or club-foot, are the principal

POULTRY RAISING FOR LADIES.

sly facetiousness as on the way up to the One young country girl, Miss Annie mer de glace Switzerland, it lifted its Kirk, of Bethel, Pa., is entitled to the hind foot to scratch its right car and let except when very angry. Gentlemen, I forfeit praise of being the best lady poultryist on us fall off. We never knew a man incapaying for all her feed, freight etc. She either to church or State. He might commenced with eighty fowls-Cochin make a very good toy figure for the show Chinas, Bramahs and other varieties- window of a mourning store, but nothing and found the Cochin and Bramahs the else. We once sat in a church beside such most profitable, being healthier and of a looking man; it was the only time we speedier growth for the market. She fed ever had our pocket picked. When such from seven to ten bushels of corn per week, impenetrable people are in the room and and the young ones with cracked corn. we have heard of something pleasant to She is also keeping an account of stock tell we wait till they are gone, or else item of expense and profit - and expects though on a matter of private business, wrote a decoy letter and proved it on them. Federal bayonets in defiances of the will H., Baltimore. They will pay the freight to realize as much, if not more than last and bid him to smother his laughter in year. When attacked by the prevailing the waterproof on the hat rack.

A Beautiful Extract.

From the Annual Sermon at the Washington Church, Marion, Ala.]

"The name of your institution, and even more, the honored spot where we worship now, recalls the fact that a college was the last fortress our leader held -the last field of his fame. This quiet breath, he taught his people to cultivate and

Lice, several species of worms and their desolate land for the progress of the kindly sciences; to give scope to educato fifteen millions of dollars. For one pests with which we have to deal in the tion and marshal their sons and her shinthe paid thirty thousand dollars. For one pests with which we have to deal in the cabbage patch. The lice are killed by this ball, the husband whispers hervously, in measurably, out-weighs the little good.—Christian Ob. we good.—Christian Ob. we meedled, and the few that may remain the few that few the few that may remain the few that few the few that may remain the few the few that may remain the few that few the few that may remain the few the few that may remain the few that weighs the little good .- Christian Ob. our remedies, and the few that may remain to whom he performed a father's part, it

Ketchey professed a hope of salvation, having taking of gifts, nor whoelsale appointing forced him to pay a very high rate of in- his family. I have traveled around and At 12 o'clock Ketchey was taken upon the scaffold, and as he was very weak, was seated being answered in the affirmative, talked for three quarters of an hour in a rambling style, somewhat as follows :---

" My friends, in the first place, I wish to say that I am innocent of the charge for which my I allege this, and feel satisfied that for him rich or the poor.

"Another matter I wish to speak about is the report that I burned John I Shaver's barn, in give you their names, viz : David Boger, Henry Hudson, Paul Peeler and Adam Trexler. this capital.

These men I have injured, and no one else in this county, 1 never attacked or injured any man with a weapon in my life. No woman can say that I ever made any improper step toward her. "Now, gentlemen, I've told you my crimes; I've been over a good deal of the country ; never drank or gambled ; was born in al of beasts, seemed to use to have its in a saloon here but once. I have been in prison a year, and no man has heard me use an oath during that time. I have never sworn ny life for something I never did. The girl I tell you my words will prove true some day. Now I leave it to her and her God. I am innocent > nonestly believe I didn't have a fair trial. There was partiality shown all through it. My

From the Annual Sermon at the Washington unjustly deprived of my life, I feel that the and Lee University. Commencement by change will be better for me; at least I hope Rev. E. F. Winkler, D. D., of the Baptist and trust so. I don't mind it as much as you not make me appreciate their kindness less.

"It is suggested by one of the officers that I tell you how I made my escape from this jail. Shall I tell you ? (cries of yes.) Well, I pro-cured a bar of iron, how, I will not tell you,) retreat retains the legacy of his dying hasp of my door, and after walking round behind the cell in the passage, I called to the exalt the spirirtual ; to open a way through | jailor to come up and let down the outside window, as it was too cold. I fastened my chain, made a confession of his sins to God, and, as he of relatives to office. There were no terest for the use of the capital invested listened to calculating men talk, and I believed, received pardon through Jesus Christ. 'Black Fridays' to be inquirerd into; no in the above mentioned fertilizers and corners in gold or in stocks to be ac. farm supplies, and that he had in addion a chair. He asked the spectators if they counted for ; and no 'Leet and Stocking' tion to pay a heavy fee for drawing and toms were not forced to resign by out. commission merchants.

I noticed that the mules on the farm raged merchants, nor were Presidential this woman, except willingly. The reason I to support in uselessness and idleness sprung up from seeds dropped out of the am here to-day is because of an intrigue against the barnacles clinging to the party craft, Northern oats. The farmer said, as the and the presence of the Federal tax-gath- mules passed on, "I would sow an acre cotton."

Then, sir, Presidential and other salaries were not increased, neither was cencerning my youthful days. I obserthe Treasury depleted by the use of con- ved that the hands employed in the field tingent funds for the case, splendor and were very poorly clad. Most of them don't buy worthless fertilizers. luxury of high officials. Our ships of wore coarse, cheap Northern made clothes, war were not used as pleasure boats, nor shoes and hats, from their rude talk 1 were the soldiers of the Republic employ- found they had very little educati n. The talists. ed as menials in the streets and houses of wives and children of these farm laborers During those four yea's a Vice-Presi- that the women wore Northern calice manufactured article. We have watercomplication with infamous practices, ing up in ignorance. and sent to his home in shame and dis- After being picked and packed I was surance on the raw-material and manuhonor. Then, sir, no man questioned taken to Raleigh. The commission mer- facture it on the frozen streams of New three miles of town, clerked here, and was never the integrity of the Congress of the chant said to the farmer : "Cotton is flat England, and realize handsome profits, United States, nor was it compelled to to-day, but we expect it will go up soon." why cannot the Southern manufacturer, purge itself of those who had steeped The farmer sighed and replied : "well, I who can purchase it at his door without themselves in infamy, by their connec- guess I went into a large new brick treight and insurance charges, compete tion with fraudulent schemes, such as store, and accidently heard the merchant successfully with the Northern Manufacwas in the Court House and proved a good were exposed by the "Credit Mobilier say to his clerk : "Insure this bale of cot- turer ? Our water-powers are as good ; record. In 1872 she cleared $330, after pable of a laugh who was worth anything character, but I have known her from a child, investigation of the 42nd Congress. In ton and charge Mr. A. with insurance streams are seldom frozen ; our climate is and her character is bad for truth and chasity. those years sovereign States were not and storage." I remained shut up for better ; we can work more days in the reduced to a condition of vassalage, some time when the farmer came in one year; labor can be had as cheap. Besides their treasure squandered and stolen, and day and the merchant said to him, "Cot- making large profits on the capital inves-"Another thing I will say : I was not convicted their pleasant places made everywhere ton is no better, but I am compelled to ted, you will give employment to our on her evidence, but on account of prejudice desolate by the hand of the despoiler. have some money. I will ship your bale poor women and children, and the cost of against me, and not on account of crime. I The very dregs of northern vagabondism to Baltimore and do the best I can with manufacturing instead of enriching men were not forced into their highest execu- it."

cepted by the guard, thus depriving me of the and violence, and kept there by the de- hoisted into it, the merchant said, "have thus improve the condition of our own this year-an account which shows every take our especial friend into the hall as right of communicating with my lawyers. I crees of a corrupt judiciary, sustained by this bale insured and directed to W. & State.

and iusurance."

of the people. Then, sir, from under the very shadow I was hurried over the Railroads to their capital in factories becase I enterto me, and I trust their prayers and good ad- of the Capitol there came no despairing Norfolk and thenee by steamer to Balti- tain any nukind feeling for Northern peovice may make my future happy in the world cry from the people to be relieved or pro- more. I was then stored for some time, ple. I have had enough for sectionalism. to come. I have suffered so much that, though tected from the burdens and exactions of when I was sold to an agent of a Rode I was once known as a King Cotton, but the taskmasters set over them by Federal Island Manufacturer. As I passed out my crown if not entirely ruined is badily authority, whom they accused of malfea. I heard the merchant calculating how damaged by sectional difficulties. I only might suppose. I thank the men here who sance and corruption by which their pro- much was due him as storage and com- mention the North because most of our have tried to get me a fair trial; failure does perty was being confiscated, their means missions on my sale. My purchaser was staple is manufactured there. I wish to exhausted and their prosperity destroy- also busy in getting out his insurance on see all our people, North and South, prosme and arranging to pay freight on me

In that "season of profligacy," as it is to Rode Island. stigmated by my colleague, the body- Nothing occurred on the route to my her people learn to raise their own food, made for the purpose, with which I broke the politic was not diseased to its core, so destination worthy of remark. When I that it might be touched no where that arrived at the factory, I found several vile corruption and festering rottenness thousand friends raised in North Caro- Ruleigh Screscent. would not coze forth. In those days lina. I noticed the women and children which had broke off, to my bed, and rolled up spies, informers, and moiety-grabbers seemed cheerful, but none of them wore the blankets to look like a man. When the were not hired and sent forth to prey up. Southern made shoes or Southern made intend to whisper a little to him by the CRESCENT What I want to say is .

Raise your own hoge. Don't buy Wesliable to be at a low price. Sow an acre or two in clover. It will save corn and enletters needed as 'bills of health' for ex- were poorly fed and that as they passed able you to feed your teams better, and posed and depose dofficials. Innumerable the lot gate they eagerly nipped a few will cost you less than Northern oats and cows better, and they will give more and better milk and butter. Your calves will grow larger and make finer cattle. Dou't erer never darkened the door of either the in clover but I need all my best land for keep too many cattle. Raise your own corn and wheat. Don't plant all cotton.

I have nothing very remarkable to tell If your land is poor, sow peas and improve it. Save all your barn-yard manure, compost vour vegetable mold, and

And when I get through whispering to the farmer, I want to say a word to capi-

Cotton must be raised in the South. frequently came to the field, and I saw There will always be a demand for the dent of the United States was not in dresses and that the children were grow- powers in abundance. If Northern Manufacturers can pay transportation and ina thousand miles away will be spent with counsel did not get my letters; they were inter- tive and legislature positions by fraud A dray soon came up, and as I was our own merchants and tradesmen, and

> I do not wish to be misunderstood. do not desire North Carolinans to invest per, but I can see nothing like prosperity for the South - for North Carolina-until manufacture their own staples, and give employment to their own machanics .-

In Paris now, since the Metternich-Montebello duel, before a lady goes to a or, "Eugenie, for Heaven's sake, don't frown at at Count Caskowhiski." The

The guard's name is John F. Agner, who did this. This was great injustice to me. "The ministers here have been very good FEEDING CATTLE .- Two-thirds of the not so much improved breeds of stock that amined the next morning, when most of are wanted as it is improved care of what the worms will be found on the underside we have got. There is no economy in of it and can be readily killed. A corresonly save little hay by the operation. half-a-pound of saltpetre and one-fourth of been lost.

One thing that cattle need and do not he saves his cabbages, or at least he get is plenty of salt; they ought to have thinks so. With club-foot we have no some every day, but many do not get it experience, whether because we always once a month. The best plan of feeding give our cabbage bed a good dressing of is to give from four to five quarts of meal or corn or oats ground together (the finer | we do not know. Wetting the roots and the better) well salted, the first thing in then dressing them with bone meal before night give them all the hay they will eat. it. Club-foot is caused by an insect. They keep in first-rate order on this,

soon again cover the plants by their rapid is pleasant to think that another youth multiplication. Painstaking and perse- may have come to the war-worn veteran verance, however, will save the plants. in life's decline-an Indian summon-a cows kept in the country would produce Then come the worms. We entrap and fresh perfume from early years-a renewmore than all do now if they only had kill them by laying a fresh cabbage leaf al of the past, its tastes, its sympathies. what they ought to have to eat. It is ou the top of the plant at night, to be ex- its blessed inspirations -a return to that sure and see that there is nothing wrong, no sweet banquet to which youth and hope gave zest long ago. Remote from the storm of battle the Captain of our host allowing an animal to get poor; but some pondent of the New England Farmer served the State even to the end, and people seem to think it is all gain if they deals with them in another way: He gets taught us how to serve it.

"If the advice is heeded and the ex-Some people argue that they could make a pound of copperas, and dissolves it in ample followed ; if we rear a generation it up on grass, not thinking that every half a hogshead of water, and as soon as pure in character, unwearied in study, pound lost is lost, and has got to be re- the butterfly which lays the eggs for the mighty, in argument-a race of scholars placed. Whereas, if the animal had such worms appears, he waters the plants with and patriots and Christains -- we need not feed as it ought to have, it would not have the solution, repeating the operation after fear for the fortunes of our children or each raid of the insects. By this means destinies of our country."

NATIONAL HOTEL .- From our New Berne Attorneys who made the National Hotel, at Raleigh, their abode while in salt and lime, or from some other cause, the morning; then roots, after which the planting is said to be a preventive; so is a accounts of the excellent manner in which cattle are turned into the yard, where they teaspoonful of caustic lime, applied by re- that house is kcpt. Raleigh has made -Newbernian - Rural Carolinian for July.

"And now I have a word more to say in justice to those left behind. My brothers and sisters never gave me any but the best of advice, and are not to blame for my crimes. And now 1y. Then, sir, no wild railroad schemes New York wholesale house, and as I gentlemen, I wish to say that if any in this were fostered by the Government, by went out I over-heard a conversation of crowd are ever on a jury in such a case, be which layman and priest, widow and or- the owner of the mill. He said he was collusion between the parties at the bottom of phan, were plundered and ruined .- realizing handsome profits from his facit. Be sure and trace it back thoroughly.

have no more to say, but that I have forfeited Millions and teus of millions of acres of tory, and besides he was giving employmy life innocently. I am not guilty." "When, he had finished, the cap and noose were adjusted, and Sheriff Wagoner severed the rope with a stroke, at 5 minutes to one o'clock, and John Allen Ketchey, the notorious or muscular contraction, Monuments, scientific schools in honor of the illustrious dead, and memorial halls, are all the rage now at the North.

WM. A. SMITH'S REPORT .- As a malter of information we lay before our reahotel keepers,) we hear complimentary Railroad, showing the operations of the people love to visit that city very much. value on the 20th of April, 1873 -Cres- people. cent.

convicted, and their bondsmen left un- cloth for the New York market. molested by reason of their social and I was hurried through the factory and personal relations with those in authori- came out a bolt of nice smooth cloth I was burried into a bale of cloth for a

the public domain were not given away ment to a hundred families and was one to lawless corporations, without price of the largest tax payers in the State. and for no consideration, and by them I then went to New York to the es farmers in the presence of their sona disused for the enrichment of the inside rings | tablishment of one of the merchants | paraging the pursuit of agricultural. It criminal, was launched into eternity. The fall of gamblers and speculators, who have princes, and was delighted to hear him is this complaining of fathers to some broke his neck, and he died without a struggle brought shame and dishonor upon our say to a clerk, "send this b de to Messra, which sends the latter to the city in crowds Tucker, Raleigh?" As I had passed over and is the cause of thousands of vacant national name and credit.

The manufacturers, trade, commerce, the route before, it was not new to me, farms in Maine to day. Then this most and business generally were not stricken and I safely arrived in Raleigh in less pernicious of all nonsense that school as if by the hand of paralysis, and star- than a week. By chance I was put on committees, doctors, lawyers and minisving men and women did not march the bottom of a large pile of cloth, and ters, to say nothing of teachers, recite to through the streets of our cities crying having nothing else to do, I entered into school children on set occussions, is misfor work or bread, but receiving neither. a little calculation. It was as follows : chievous in the extreme. How wast the that city, during the session of the recent ders to-day the report of W. A. Smith, courts, (Col. Brown is a prince among Receiver of the Western North Carolina and bloated fortunes coined out of the the Raleigh merchant realized his profits recruited, how immense the number of necessities of the people were unknown, and storage. Then the Insurance Agent defaulters and small politicians they have said road for 131 months, commencing and in that day there were no privileged Then the Railpads got their freights, started in business by delaring that a April 20th, 1873 and ending June 1st, classes of bankers and bondholders, whose Then the Steamers got their freight President of the United States, members have a feed of straw and stacks to work moving a little earth from around the plant an enviable reputation for her seminaries 1874. The report informs us that the coffers were filled to overflowing by im- Then the Baltimore merchant got his of Congress, Astors and merchant princes at, and plenty of water to drink. At putting on the lime, and then replacing and hotels. Somehow our New Berne road is worth $47,963,55 more than its munities granted at the expense of the storage and his commissions. Then the were undoubtedly in the schools they Northern railroads got their freights and were then addressing, will not be known, Then, sir, there was republican the Northberg Insurance Agent got his -Portland Me., Press.

induce their timid lords to comply with all their wishes. "Henri, if you don't buy me that bounet, I'll insult M. Trois Etoiles-and he's a dead shot." "Ifippolyte, if you don't bring that diamond spray home this evening, I'll call Baron Saussard a fool."

RESULTS OF AN EVIL-If one goes into a farming community, he will hear