DEATH OF GOV. CALDWELL.

It is with deep regret that we announce the death of the Governor of our State, Hon. Tod R. Caldwell, which occurred at Hillsboro last Saturday evening, after a brief illness. He went to Hillsboro to attend the annual meeting of the Stockholders of the N. C. Railroad, was taken suddenly ill and rapidly declined until he died about 6 o'clock, P. M., July 11th inst. His death will be generally regretted.

He was a man of great firmness of character, and among his political opponents. He was thoroughly devoted to North Carolina and in his official character as Governor, is believed to have desired the best interest of the whole people. He has filled several positions of honor and trust in the State. He is a native of Burke county and his remains will be carried there for interment in the family burying ground, Morganton, N. C.

The Lieut. Governor, Curtis H. Brogden, by reason of this sad event, becomes Governor, and will serve out the unexpired term of two years from the 1st of next January.

The Senate branch of the next Legislature will elect a President who will become ex-officio Lieut. Governor.

Mr. Brogden who is thus raised to the executive chair, is not unacquainted with public affairs or with the duties of his new position. He has considerable experience in public life; and it is to be hoped that he will be sustained in every effort to promote the public interest.

OUR NEW CANDIDATE FOR SENATOR.

Mr. John H. Clement is now announced as the candidate of the Democratic-Conservative party to represent Rowan and Davie in the Senate branch of the next Legislature. We know nothing about Mr. Clement personally, but we are assured that he is a good and true Democrat, honest, straightforward, practical and intelligent. These qualifications are all that we desire, and we shall do whatever we can to secure his election.

At the instance of Capt. Crawford and Price a committee composed of Davie and Rowan men was appointed to settle the matter of a candidate. These gentlemen both having withdrawn. Mr. Clement was agreed upon, and he is, as we understand it, the unanimous choice of the friends of both Captains Crawford and Price, present. Not only so, but he is the candidate of our party, let's lay aside all clashing and elect him.

Our candidates are winning golden opinions wherever they are heard by the people. Mr. Clement, though an entire stranger to our citizens, is not only gaining friends rapidly, but becoming very popular. He is a first-rate man and deserves and will receive the hearty support of the Democratic-conservative party. He is also very popular in Davie, we understand. He is a farmer by profession, and withal a sensible, enterprising, good citizen. He will make a good representative, and will be elected by a large majority. The larger the better, so let every body taro out. Messrs. Bernhardt and McCubbins are too well known to require any word of commendation from us. They are both successful business men, and not only popular but deservedly so. They should receive the full vote of the party. Indeed, men of all parties can not do better than vote for them. But the same may be said of all our candidates. We have the majority sufficient to elect every one of our nominees. Let their be no trading—no swapping off, but let every conservative go forward in support of the ticket. Let Rowan stand firm.

WE DECLINE.

"President" A. N. Smith, who seems to be acting the part of an Amanuensis, is out in another card attacking the editorial reports made by us through the Watchman concerning the Senatorial District Convention at Ford's Mill. These reports were substantially and in fact true in every essential particular, as we can prove by quite a number of as good men as live in Rowan county. Furthermore, "President" Smith, while making broad and reckless assertions has not pointed out a single misstatement.

The last card of the "President," to state it mildly, contains at least a half dozen fearful inaccuracies. Besides it is sniveling, peevish, and we hope that all the Rowan delegates who can will procure a copy. We have filed ours for future use.

It is not true that Mr. Smith requested us to send him the proceedings for revision, as he states.

It is not true that we charged that the Davie delegation was packed.

It is not true that we knew there were more than four townships from Rowan represented.

It is not true that we raised any question as to who made the motion that the delegates and townships be called.

It is not true that Mr. Julian was the first to propose the committee of twelve which was packed.

It is not true that Mr. Smith can prove by us or by the majority of our delegation, even on oath, all he has written.

It is not true that a majority of Rowan delegates were in favor of Capt. Price and acted with his delegates. We do not believe there was a single delegate on the ground from Rowan empowered to act by authority as from a township. If so we would like to know the man, and to see his authority.

But the question out of which this ridiculous mess grew, having been settled, we have nothing to do now but to assist the good people of Davie in electing Mr. Clement. We cannot, therefore, waste space in writing up such as have no other means of securing a little notoriety. We are very charitably disposed toward our fellows, and especially the weaker ones, but we should not be expected to take notice of every scribbler who wishes to attract attention by attacking us through the public prints. The game is not worth the candle.

When a newspaper wrangle is wanted, we must be counted out. If it be desirable to force a personal difficulty, the columns of a newspaper is not the proper field. Hence, we decline to take further notice of "President" Smith through the Watchman.

DULY INSTALLED.—Hon. Curtis H. Brogden was duly installed Governor of North Carolina last Tuesday morning. Judge E. G. Reade of the Supreme Court administered the oath of office. After which the new Governor delivered the following inaugural address:

FELLOW-CITIZENS:—By the lamented death of our worthy and eminent Governor, Tod R. Caldwell, the Constitution devolves upon me the powers and duties of the office of Governor of North Carolina. And while I feel sensibly the great loss the State has sustained by the death of Governor Caldwell, and the responsibility thus suddenly and unexpectedly imposed upon me by the Supreme Ruler of the Universe, as my rock and my defense, and in His strength, to enable me to discharge my official duties according to the Constitution and the laws, and to properly represent the interest and majesty of the people, and the character and honor of the State. With a clear conscience, and upright intentions, I shall try to discharge the duties of the high office to which I have been called, honestly and faithfully, as a true and loyal son of North Carolina. I desire the promotion of education, morality and virtue, that the people may become more prosperous and happy under a wise and liberal Government administered fairly and impartially by just and equal laws, thus insuring the full enjoyment of civil and religious liberty. I desire that honest industry and labor may be justly protected and rewarded, and the vast and varied resources of the State may be more fully developed, and that free schools may be established and supported in every township and county of the State. We all know that free governments must repose and exist on the basis of intelligence and virtue. One of our duties is to educate all our citizens so that they may understand and appreciate their duties and cherish feelings of respect and affection for our country, her rights, her laws and institutions. Proud of the historic fame of North Carolina and of that patriotic feeling which has ever marked the character of her people to free institutions, I am anxious to perpetuate and increase that fame by such legislation and such a system of improvement as will lead to the gradual and safe development of all our resources, and of zealously encouraging whatever shall render the people of the State contented and prosperous, her character respected and her institutions prosperous, solid and permanent. In all matters of administration I shall adhere to the maxim of the fathers of economy and simplicity, and of rigid accountability to the people of all public functionaries; and I shall endeavor to illustrate this maxim in my own official conduct. Having spoken thus briefly with a clear conscience, and with a feeling of profound respect for the responsibility devolved upon me, and with an unflinching trust in Almighty God for help and guidance, I now assume my duties as Governor of the State.

SALISBURY is an old town, but quite a substantial one. It is in the midst of a fine farming country. The wheat of Rowan, Davidson, Davie and Forsyth counties looked fine. Clover looked well what little could be seen. This crop is about what neglected. More attention is being paid to growing hay, and meadows gave promise of an abundant yield this year. By the way, some make the mistake of growing, or rather trying to grow tobacco on red lands and cotton on gray lands. The reverse of this is the only plan that promises profitable return. ATLANTIC & N. C. RAILROAD.—The new Board of Directors of the A. & N. C. Railroad met in Newbern, last week and elected Col. L. W. Humphrey President. No change was made in the old employees except the election of John A. Richardson Conductor, vice Page, removed. The private Stockholders' Directors are: E. B. Stanly, C. R. Thomas, W. B. Duncan and J. O. L. Morehead. The Directors on the part of the State are: L. W. Humphrey, M. E. Manly, L. J. Moore, R. W. King, O. H. Harper, J. F. Scott, J. L. Gibbs and John C. Rhodes.

In his speech made at Elizabethtown, Bladen county, on the 26th ult., the Hon. George Davis thus characterized a class of citizens too often met with in all communities: "The citizens who refuse to aid in preventing the government from falling into bad hands is unworthy of citizenship. To suppose the man who makes the silly declaration 'that he takes no interest in politics' a good citizen, is to suppose a parallel to a good judge who feels no concern in justice, or a good Christian, who takes no interest in religion."

Governor Caldwell died of Bright's disease of the kidneys. He was unconscious and somnolent during his entire illness unless he was aroused. He had the best of care, the attendance of Dr. E. D. Burke Haywood, from Raleigh. But it is to be lamented that he passed away quietly an hour before the arrival of his wife, who journeyed to meet him by a special train the moment his dangerous illness was announced.

The Danger to be Shunned.

"There never was a time when the success of the conservative party was more desirable, more important or more certain, if there is the slightest exercise of those qualities of prudence and moderation so essential to success. But these are the very qualities the conservatives seem least inclined to bring into action. So certain does it seem of victory, so sure it is of the demoralization of the enemy that it plays with a toy, and with the eager greed to possess all, runs the hazard of losing everything. Like Early's troops at Fisher's Hill, who swept the enemy before them, and turned to enjoy the sweet delights of pillage and license, but upon whose confused and dispersed ranks the routed foe again threw themselves with gathered strength, and scattered them like autumn leaves; so the Conservative Party, for his own election and the entire ticket, has run the hazard of losing everything. Like Early's troops at Fisher's Hill, who swept the enemy before them, and turned to enjoy the sweet delights of pillage and license, but upon whose confused and dispersed ranks the routed foe again threw themselves with gathered strength, and scattered them like autumn leaves; so the Conservative Party, for his own election and the entire ticket, has run the hazard of losing everything.
