

Carolina Watchman LOCAL OCTOBER 29

Bold Out.—Mr. Theo. F. Klutz, druggist, has bought out Mr. Gibson's stock of drugs. Mr. Gibson retiring from the business.

Personal.—We were glad to receive calls yesterday from Col. Camecon of the Hillsboro Recorder, and G. M. Mathes, of the Winston Sentinel.

Chickens.—Cholera is prevailing in this section. The remedies are somewhat like signs of rain in dry weather—they all fail.

New Rock Pavement.—Messrs Crawford and Heilig have had laid in front of their Hardware store, a new Rock Pavement.

New Hardware.—Mr. David Atwell is adding largely to his stock of hardware. Mr. Atwell keeps a general assortment of the best brands, and sell at prices most reasonable.

The Rev. J. C. Williams, late Pastor of the Popewell Presbyterian Church in Mecklenburg Co., is dead.

Changed.—There were two Post Offices in the state, by the name of Lillington. At the instance of Col. Long, the one named Lillington in the County of New Hanover, has been changed to Long Creek.

The Charlotte Fair.—Next week the new Fair of the Carolinas will take place at Charlotte. The efforts put forth by the Charlotte people are very commendable, and from all we hear they will be crowned with success.

On Thursday evening of the Fair grand ball will be given at Masonic Hall, so that the young folks may expect a delightful time.

The Steam Washer, for which the Rev. C. Plyler is agent, has been pronounced by good judges 'the best invention of the kind ever seen in this country. There is a saving of wood, a saving of labor, the washing is done much quicker and better. Call on the Agent and examine and be convinced.

Mr. Plyler is also agent for the beautiful grave covering advertised in this paper.

Rowan Superior Court has been in session nearly two weeks, and our people have had a tolerably fair opportunity of judging of the new officers, the Judge and Solicitor. As public sentiment is generally correct in such matters, we are gratified to be able to say that we have heard but one opinion expressed, and that is highly complimentary to the officers.

Judge Wilson presides with much dignity, fairness and urbanity, and with his popular managers, is destined to prove a favorite with the people.

Mr. Dobson's fearless manner of conducting business, will prove a terror to evil doers and declared to be the right man in the right place.

Our Fair. The two first days of our Fair have not fallen behind our expectations. As usual the attendance was not so large as it will be to-day and to-morrow, but quite respectable. As we write, articles for exhibition are still coming in, and new entries making hourly. Fowl Hall is already well filled and beautiful, while Farmers Hall; but we expect to see them greatly improved to-day.

Thanks to the President and officers of the Association, that good order prevails and things are moving on smoothly.

We shall give a more extended account of the Fair and the articles on exhibition in our next.

How is it?—We are informed by a gentleman from Fulton, N. C. that the Watchman is two weeks reaching that point. 'This is an outrage for which someone is responsible, who is it? The Watchman is mailed here on Thursday evening and ought to reach Fulton on Friday evening or Saturday following, any how, if the mails are run in that direction according to contract. Gentlemen at Fulton and vicinity are having their mail matter from that point sent by way of Lexington, a much greater distance, in order to avoid the annoyances of the other route. How is it?

Fine Music.—The Band at Raleigh added recently to the pleasure of the music. The Raleigh cornet band is a grand one, that of Newbern very fine, but there is none in the State so good as that from Salisbury. Long practice under efficient leadership has placed it beyond the reach of rivalry. And we say this without disparagement to the other daily excellent bands present at Raleigh. Hillsboro Recorder.

We thank the Hillsboro Recorder for the handsome compliment paid our Band, and we can assure him that his estimate is not extravagant. It is what all good judges of Music say who have heard the music.

Wagons from up the country are to be seen encamping in the various camps around the city. This is what the people wish to see. If the waggoners are here, we know they have either brought a load or come for one, i. e. they bring trade, and that is what the people want, all are aware that the trade in the up-country is divided between Winston and Charlotte. This trade should be brought back if possible. How can we do it? is the question. Do it like it was taken from us, is the answer, by advertising and sending out agents or drummers. This in our opinion is the only available means to bring about the desired effect.—Fair week Daily.

A WHOLESALE MURDERER.—A man named Poirer, a wholesale merchant un-paralleled in France since Trotman, was executed September 29, at Chartres. In October, 1871, he went to the farm of a Mme. Lecompte, who had sold off her stock and furniture, and demanded her money. She directed him to the place where it was deposited, and as he was leaving, followed him to the garden and told him she knew who he was. He turned back and killed her with a hatchet. A woman whom she had asked to pass the night with her appearing at the moment, he pursued and killed her also. In January last, he murdered a woman who kept a roadside inn, and in May he murdered a boy and girl, aged sixteen and fourteen, whom their parents had left in charge of their farm. Pretending to sell wood, he got into conversation with them, and murdered one in the stable and the other in the house. Suspicion fell upon him in this last case, and he was convicted of all five murders.

Important Decision about Homesteads.—The following decision of Judge Bond of the U. S. Circuit Court, is what has long been expected, viz: that the Homestead is not exempt from execution and sale for debts contracted before the adoption of the State Constitution which allows the Homestead. Although the Supreme Court of North Carolina—two or three years ago made a different decision (Judge Reed delivering the opinion and Chief Justice Pearson dissenting) it was believed by lawyers generally that the U. S. Courts would over-rule that opinion, and declare that a Homestead law adopted in 1868 could not constitutionally apply to debts previously contracted. We are sorry that any old debtor deceived himself or suffered himself to be deceived. Our readers know that we have warned old debtors of what might be expected from the decision of U. S. Judges. We advised a compromise of old debts. We think that Judge Dick, of the Federal Court in this State, will be as lenient as possible towards old debtors and give them time to make such compromise as is possible under unfortunate circumstances.—Charlotte Democrat

Here is Judge Bond's decision; In re SHIPMAN—IN BANKRUPTCY. This is a motion on the part of creditors to set aside an application for the allowance of a homestead exemption out of property encumbered by judgments upon debts created antecedent to the adoption of the Constitution of North Carolina which provides for that exemption.

It seems to me that this application is similar to that in Gunn vs. Barry, which was made under a like provision in the Constitution of Georgia, and which the Supreme Court, in 12 Wallace, declared with some emphasis could not be allowed; and it is precisely the case of Dillard, decided in the Eastern District of Virginia.

The act of Congress of March 3, 1873, which was passed, as is maintained at the Bar, to over-rule the decision of Gunn vs. Barry, and to give the homestead exemption paramount to the liens of antecedent judgments, was by the same Court, Chief Justice Waite delivering the opinion, in Decker's case, which will be found in the National Bankrupt Register, Vol. X, No. 1, declared to be unconstitutional. This application on the part of the Bankrupt must therefore be refused and the motion to set aside granted.

HUGH L. BOND, Circuit Judge. If the plan suggested by us five or six years ago had been adopted all the trouble, disappointment and ruin that must follow as the results of the above decision, would have been avoided.

Both Homestead and Bankrupt laws lead to the most dishonourable species of repudiation. We advised our people to pay as far as they could and repudiate the balance, and then begin life anew, untrammelled with old debts. If this policy had been adopted both with respect to the State and the private debts, everybody would now be free and prosperous. What a pity this plan was not adopted just after the war? But demagogues and saints would not let the people do it, but now they are forced to do that or worse, for they are not much able to pay now than they were just after the war. This decision of Judge Bond renders still more impatience a Convention.

Your Items.—Civil rights—Oliging answers. Beginning to leave—The leaves. Gilt-edged paper—Forged notes. The most expensive kind of vice—Advice.

When a cat sings does she do it on purpose. A confectioner advertises "paroxysmal kisses." The best kind of trotics—To remain if possible intact.

The acrobats of every household—The pitcher and tumbler. A three months old oyster is about the size of a split pea.

There is no fault in poverty, but the minds that think so are faulty. Nurture your minds with thoughts. To believe in the heroic makes heroes.

What nation is most likely to succeed in difficult enterprise? Determination. If W-o-r-o-e-s-t-e-r spells Wooster, why doesn't R-o-c-h-e-s-t-e-r spell Rochester?

The racing yesterday was two and a half miles, two best in three. First three races as follows: Norwood's Notre Dame, E. K. James' Boney Belle, M. L. Arey's Gray Frank, resulting in Notre Dame's winning the race, time 53 seconds.

Second two entrances, Norwood's TeLula, and Jno. A. Snider's Lady Reb. TeLula winning, time 58 1/2 sec. This last race was exciting, "Lady Reb" could hardly be controlled, would not start until the third trial. Then keeping a head for something over a quarter, when "TeLula" steadily gained, and passed her. Second round, TeLula a head all round.—Fair week Daily.

Meteor.—A most brilliant meteor appeared near the zenith last evening, and coursing South-west, shed light enough to cast bold shadows; and bursting into numerous fragments, burst out, leaving a dim trail.—Fair week Daily.

From the Raleigh News Oct. 27. SUPREME COURT MATTERS. WASHINGTON, Oct. 26.—In the Supreme Court in the case of the City of New Orleans vs. the New York Steamship Company, the decree below was sustained. The lease of a wharf given by a Governor appointed by the military authority after the capture of a city for a term of years is valid, although extending beyond the war. The Court's theory is that the capture of New Orleans gave the military the same authority as over the capture of foreign territory. Judge Field dissented, holding that no valid alienation, wharf or other property or rights of a city could hold beyond military occupation.

The Court refuses to advance the Granger cases, which involves the right of States to regulate the fares and interest of State railroads. NEW YORK, 27.—Shanks, who was imprisoned some time since for refusing to reveal the authorship of an article which he furnished to the Tribune, has been recommitted to the custody of the Sheriff by the Supreme Court. "Harrah for Shanks."

WASHINGTON, Oct. 26.—The post-office department loses a million of dollars every year by washed postage stamps.

Appointments: Blumenthal Collector of the Customs at St. Marks, Fla., and several Indian agents. The third term was delicately obstructed in the Cabinet to-day. The President did not want to talk. He is represented as thinking an expression on his part as this juncture would be obstructive.

GEN. DIX AND THE THIRD TERM. NEW YORK, October 27th.—At the ratification meeting at Cooper Institute, Hon. Wm. Orton was President. General Dix was received enthusiastically. He spoke of the propriety of giving the preference to candidates who had risked their life for the Union, when opposed to those who were hostile to the Union, or were indifferent. On leaving the hall loud cries were made. "How about the third term?" Gov. Dix said "I did not come here to throw any opinion of mine into this canvass, but since I am asked the question I will answer it frankly, let a misconception should be put upon my silence. I say distinctly that I am not in favor of a third term."

If the Druggist offers any kind of herb-favored alcohol for dyspepsia, biliousness, or any other ailment, tell him that you want medicine, not a bar-room drink. Ask him for Dr. WALKER'S CALIFORNIA BITTERS, the best regulating preparation known, and which you know is free from "Sassafras" and other "hotter" and "wetter" ingredients, and cling to it religiously. There is no medicine that compasses with it.

Pies and Things.—In New York city there is one concern that does nothing but bake pies, or, as the boys call them, "pies an' things." The buildings cover six and a half city lots, and the stables have accommodations for fifty horses. Thirty-seven large wagons are employed to deliver the pies turned out daily, and one hundred and twenty persons are employed all the year round. It has an enormous boiler, in which sometimes five hundred pumpkins per day are reduced to jelly, by steam of course. Near it are two steam mashing machines, capable of slicing up a fabulous quantity of fruit. A little further on is a row of immense brass kettles full of steaming berries, which two men are stirring with great ladles. To the further end of the room women are seated in groups on the floor by heaps of fruit, which they are sorting and cleaning. Eighty bushels of berries a day is the average consumption. 160 barrels of flour a week are used in making the pies, and they use up 8,000 pounds of lard, 1,500 quarts of milk, and 5,000 eggs.

All affections of the bladder and kidneys, diabetes, gravel and Bright's disease are speedily eradicated by Kearney's Extract Buchu. It has no equal in Materia Medica. Depot, 104 Duane Street, New York. Sold by druggists everywhere. Advice gratis by physician in attendance.
