A Bachelor thus impeaches woman: I impeach her in the name of the great whole of the ocean, whose bones are torn asunder to enable her to keep straight. I impeach her in the name of the peacock, whose strut without his permission she has stealthily and without honor assumed. I impeach her in the name of the horse, whose tail she has perverted from its use to the making of wavy tresses to decorate the back of the head and neck. I impeach her in the name of the kangaroo, whose beautiful figure she, in taking upon her the Grecian band, has brought into ill favor and disrepute.

The New-York Tribune.

The Leading American Newspaper.

FOUNDED BY HORACE GREDLEY.

In the recent elections the people have declared in favor of honesty in politics and independence in journalism. The Tribune, which years ago declared that it was not and never would be a party organ, claims the verdict, as the popular vindication of its course, and recognizes in the results the voice of the people for reform and integrity in government, for candor and independence among newspapers. During the campaign which has just closed the Tribune has fully maintained its right to the title of the "Leading American Newspaper" and its position it has earned and retains for the following, among other reasons:

It publishes all the news, earlier, more fully, and more intelligently than any other paper.

It insists on peace throughout the whole country, the right of local self government, and the protection of all classes in the exercise of their just and legal rights.

It advocates confidence and good feeling between North and South, and labors for an honest and abiding reconciliation.

It maintains fairness and candor toward all public men and questions, and dignity and courtesy toward associations and rival papers.

It publishes scientific news, reports, discussions and discoveries to a degree of fullness and accuracy never before obtained by any paper.

It gives every week ten or more columns of the most carefully prepared agricultural matter during the year, much more in the aggregate than the entire contents of any other agricultural publication in the United States.

It contains an eminent agricultural department of which an eminent agricultural editor said: "It has done more to make good farmers than any other influence which ever existed."

It has published a series of scientific and literary extras which have met a wider sale and more emphatic popular approval than any similar publication of the kind.

WHAT THE SOUTHERN PRESS SAY OF THE TRIBUNE.

We consider THE TRIBUNE a very valuable paper. (At Asheville (N. C.) Citizen.)

The New York Tribune, in its faithful and searching exposure of outrage slanders on Alabama, has done more to bring the truth to the people of Alabama than any other paper.

We thank THE NEW YORK TRIBUNE for its many and powerful efforts in denouncing the wrongs of Alabama—Montgomery (Ala.) News.

The best newspaper in the world is the New York Tribune. It combines the dignity and accuracy of the London Times with the representative news enterprise of America.—(Baltimore Bulletin.)

A paper to be admired for its independence of tone and its reliability of New.—(Episcopal Methodist, Baltimore, Md.)

Any one who wants a first-class paper should keep fully up with the times in literature, science and art should subscribe for THE TRIBUNE, published by the New York Tribune.

The Imperial sheet of the world. The New York Tribune.—(The Jacksonville (Fla.) News South.)

We regard it as the best paper all in all, published in the United States.—(Morristown (Tenn.) Gazette.)

To day the New York Tribune is undoubtedly the first of American newspapers; whatever may be said of its rivals, it has clearly won the precedence of all, and very creditably does it represent the journalism of the country. While dealing with all the topics coming within the range of a newspaper, the Tribune makes a speciality of the great subject of agriculture. It becomes therefore a matter of vital importance to the country that the direction of the ideas of this vast section should be in able and conscientious hands and a matter for congratulation that the farmer's newspaper for excellence has the high standing of THE TRIBUNE.—(The N. Y. South.)

The New York Tribune is doing a great work in popularizing Science by the publication of cheap extracts to that great daily.—(Our Monthly, Clinton S. C.)

American newspaper enterprise is probably at this time more fully illustrated in the daily issues of THE NEW YORK TRIBUNE than in any other journal.—(Wilmington (S. C.) Star.)

Unequaled in culture, dignity, comprehensive breadth, polish of expression and intellectual fervor by no party time, belted into sentences of special beauty with no wild sensations.—(Raleigh N. C. Agricultural Journal.)

Surely the paper has maintained successful high repute, and it is an honor to it, and the name of an able conducted and independent journal, which is now deserving even more justly than at any time during Mr. Greeley's life.—(Petersburg Va. Index and appeal.)

REPRESENTATIVE AND CHAMPION OF AMERICAN ART TASTE!

Prospectus for 1875—Eighth Year

THE ALDINE, THE ART JOURNAL OF AMERICA, Issued Monthly.

Magazine. Bound. Wonderfully carried out.

The necessity of a popular medium for the representation of the productions of our great artists, has always been recognized, and many attempts have been made to meet the want. The Aldine is the first attempt in this country to establish an art journal, and it is the only one which has succeeded in its purpose. It is a monthly publication, and it is the only one which has been successful in its purpose. It is a monthly publication, and it is the only one which has been successful in its purpose.

THE ALDINE, while issued with all the regularity, has none of the ordinary periodicals. It is an elegant miscellany of pure, light, and graceful literature; and a collection of pictures, the rarest specimens of artistic skill, in black and white. Although each succeeding number affords a fresh pleasure to its friends, the real value and beauty of THE ALDINE will be most appreciated after it is bound up at the close of the year. While other publications may claim superior cheapness, as compared with rivals of a similar class, THE ALDINE is a leading characteristic, the productions of the most noted American artists, attention will always be given to specimens from foreign masters, giving subscribers all the pleasure and instruction obtainable from home or foreign sources.

The artistic illustration of American scenery, original with THE ALDINE, is an important feature, and its magnificent plates are of a size more appropriate to the satisfactory treatment of details than can be given by any other publication. The judicious interspersing of landscape, marine, figure, and animal subjects, sustain an unabated interest, impossible where the scope of the work confines the artist too closely to a single style of subject. The literature of THE ALDINE is a feature of great value, and it is a technical disquisition as to no interfere with the popular interest of the work.

PREMIUM FOR 1875.

Every subscriber for 1875 will receive a beautiful portrait in color of the same noble dog whose picture in a former issue attracted so much attention.

"Man's Unselfish Friend"

will be welcome in every home. Everybody loves such a dog, and the portrait is executed so true to the life, that it seems the veritable presence of the animal itself. The Rev. T. De Witt Talmage tells that his own Newfoundland dog, named "Man's Unselfish Friend," is a true friend to man, and no one who sees this premium picture will have the slightest fear of being bitten.

Besides the chromo, every advance subscriber to THE ALDINE for 1875 is constituted a member, and entitled to all the privileges of THE ALDINE ART UNION.

The Union owns the originals of all THE ALDINE pictures, which, with other paintings and engravings, are to be distributed among the members of the Union. The Union is a body of 100 different people, valued at over $2,500 are distributed as soon as the series is full, and the awards of each series as made, are to be published in the next succeeding issue of THE ALDINE. This feature is only applicable to subscribers who pay for one year in advance. Full particulars in circular sent on application enclosing a stamp.
