The Carolina Watchman For 1875.

N order to place this old, popular and well proved family journal within the reach of its old friends and the public, we have concluded to renew the experiment of offering it to all new subscribers for the year 1875, at the following low rates

One copy one year $2 00 Six copies to one address, .. 10 00 Ten copies to one address, . . 15 00

This paper has been the property and un der the control of the present proprietor for 25 years. It has seen the rise and fall of many newspapers in this and other placessome friends, some foes- but it has neither been chagrined at their rivalry, nor elated or gratified at their downfall. So it pro poses in the future, as in the past, to pursue the even tenor of its way, always endeavor-ing to promote the best interest of our State ple. Having decided opinions of its own, it will discuss all questions that may arise with reference to public affairs in fairness and candor, without regard to the interest of individuals, cliques, parties, rings.

Special attention given to the selection of such news and literary matter as shall be deemed of most interest to our readers; Subscriptions are respectfully solicited. The cash must accompany orders.

> Address, BRUNER & STEWART. Salisbury, N. C.

I Look out for the cross X mark, and remember that it means that you owe us, or that your time for the paper I is out, or will be out by the first of January next.

No one should be without the Watchman for the next twelve months. For all new subscribers the price has been Watchman for one year.

Building and Loan Association will hold its regular monthly meeting at the usual place next Monday night.

Do not Fail to read the Special Notice which is the first thing on the 2nd page of this paper.

The Weather has been delightful the last few days-just about bracing enough to make one feel good.
