Vatchman Carolina

VOL. V .-- THIRD SERIES.

SALISBURY N. C., DECEMBER, 17, 1874

NO. 61,---WHOLE NO. 65

UBLISHED WEEKLY: J. J. BRUNER, Proprietor and Editor .

J. J. STEWART Associate Editor.

BATES OF SUBCRIPTION WEEKLY WATCHMAN. ONE YEAR, payable in advance. ... $2.50 Tri-weekly Watchman.

ADVERTISING RATES ONE SQUARE (1 inch) One insertion $100

Rates for a greater number of insertions moderate. Special notices 25 per cent, more In regular advertisements. Reading notice 5 cents per line for each and every insertion

THE FAVORITE HOME REMEDY Is eminently a Family Medicine; and by being kept ready for immediate resort will save many an hour of suffering and many a dollar time and doctors' bill.

After over Forty Years trial it is still receiving the most unqualified testimonials to its and responsibility. Eminent physicians commend it as the most

EFFECTUAL SPECIFIC For all diseases of the Liver, Stomach and Spleen.

The SYMTOMS of Liver Complaint are bitter or bad taste in the mouth ; Pain in the Back, Sides or Joints, often mistaken for Rheumatism; Sour STOMACH; Loss of Appethe Bowels alternately costive and lax Headache; Loss of memory, with a painful sensation of having failed to do something which ought to have been done; Debility. Low Spirits, a thick vellow appearance of the Skin and Eyes. a dry Cough often mistaken for Con-

Sometimes many of these symtoms attend the sease, at others very few; but the LIVER, the argest organ in the body, is generally the seat of the disease, and if not Regulated in time, reat suffering, wretchedness and DEATH will

For DYSPEPSIA, CCNSTIPATION, Jaunlice, Bilions attacks, SICK HEAD VCH, Colic, epression of Spirits, SOUR STOMACH, leart Burn, &c., &c. The Cheapest and Purest Family Medicine

Manufactured only by J. H. ZBILIN & CO.,

Macon Ga., and Philadelphia. Price $1.00. Sold by all Druggists.

Look out for the cross X mark, au remember that it means that you owe us, or that your time for the paper I is out, or will be out by the first of January next.

No one should be without the Watchman for the next twelve months For all new subscribers the price has been reduced. Send on $2,10 and try the Watchman for one year.

Godey's Lady's Book is the best and most popular Magazine of fashions, besides it contains stories, news. receipts and valuable miscellaneous reading matter. To each subscriber for 1875 is given beautiful Chromo, of The Rescue.

We will furnish the Lady's Book, Watchman and the Chromo to new sub scribers one year, for $4,50, postage paid

We do hope that all our readers vill renew their subscription to the Watchman before the first day of January next. Those behind should pay up promptly. We don't want to strike off any names; We don't twant to put out any claims, but we shall be compelled to do both, if our

An Actor's Sermon.

When John Edwin, an eccentric actor, tramping through the South of Ireand on a professional tour, with three that she has." thers, they requested him (it being Sunday morning) to favor them with a distourse suitable to the day. He began as

In the fifth chapter of Job, seventh wine, you will find these words; "Man on unto trouble as the sparks fly upwards," I shall divide this discourse and consider it under the three following heads: A man's ingress into the world. 2. A man's progress through the world. 3. A man's egress out of the world. 1. "A man's ingress juto the world is ted and bare.

2. His progress through the world His egress out of the world is -- no-

I we do well here we shall do well

THE BACHELOR'S SURPRISE

A chill December evening, with the rain and snow forming a disagreeable sort of conglomeration on the sidewalks. the gaslights at the corner flickering sullenly through the mist, and the wind taking one viciously as one came round the corner Not a pleasant evening to assume possession of a new home; but necessity knows no law, and Mr. Bark-dale put up his night key into the red brick house in the middle of the block, sincerely hoping that his new landlady would have common sense enough to light fire in the grate. "Is it you, sir ?" Mrs. Heman quoth, beamingly. "There's a good fire, and it's all right."

"All right, ch ? said the bachelor, feels ing the blue tip of his frosted nose to see whether it had escaped being frozen off entirely. "Well, I'm glad to hear that. Have the trunks come?

"Oh, yes, sir, and the other things." "What other things?" demanded Mr. Barkdale. But Mrs. Heman pursed up her lips.

I wasn't to tell, sir, please. "Rather an eccentric old lady." thought Mr. Barkdale, pushing past her to the third story front room, which he had solemnly engaged the day before.

It had been rather a dark and dingy little den by the light of the moon; but now, softened by the coral shine of a well filled grate, it wore quite another and a brighter aspect.

"Velvet paper on the walls, gilt paneling, red carpet, and a Sleepy hollow chair,' hought Mr. Barkdale, glancing around. 'Not so uncomfortable, after all. When I got my things unpacked, it will seem quite homelike."

He set his valise down in a corner, de liberately opened it, took out a pair of slippers and invested his tired feet therein. Next he laid off his overcoat. "Now for a cigar," thought he.

But the brown layered weed was yet in his hand, when there was a bustle. and a flutter, and a whisper, and a merry noise on the landing outside, and the door flew open as if by magic, to admit half a-dozen blooming, laughing girls. Mr. Barkdale dropped his cigar and retreated a step or two. "Don't be alarmed," said the tallest and prettiest of the bevy; "it's only a

"A very agreeable one, I'm sure, said our friend, recovering in some degree his presence of mind.

"There's no mistake, I hope," said a vellow tressed blonde. "Your name is not Greenfield ?

"No mistako at all, I assure you," said Mr. Barkdale. "Of course it is not Greenfield. Sit down ladies."

And he pushed forward the Sleepy Hollow chair, a camp stool and two rheamatic reception chairs, which were all the accommodations presented by his apart-

But instead of accepting his courtesy, this strange condition of affairs, they were back again, bearing benches and a tablecloth, dishes bouquets, a pyramid of maccaronies, piled up plates of sandwiches, a frosted cake and a mysterious something like unto an ice cream freezer.

The golden tressed girl clapped her "You needn't think we are doing all his for you, sir," the said. "Oh," said Mr. Barkdale, bashfully, "I-I-hadn't any such impressiou." "It's all a surprise, designed for Kate's cousin." "And how do you suppose we found it all out?' demanded the tall girl with her ing bold; "But I will now, if you say black eyes and scarlet feather in her so.

"I haven't the least idea." "We found your letter to Kate, and we girls read it, and we resolved to take you and her by surprise. She is to be here in half an hour. Barbar-that is Barbara Morris, in the blue merino dress, (turning girl), pretends that she has moved here, ing with Barbara. Won't it be a joke?" "Stupendous," said our hero, gradually | diploma. beginning to comprehend that he was mistaken for some one else. "What will Kate say when she sees you here ?" ejaculated another maiden, merri-

and Kate is to come and spend the even

"Ab, what indeed." said Mr. Barkdale. explain matters.

"Very considerate of you, I am sure, bserved Mr. Barkdale. "She's the sweetest girl in all St. Louis exclaimed the tall damsel, enthusiastic cally. "I am one of her dearest friends. side at Madame Grillard's Hasn't she ever written to you about Alice Moore?" "I-I don't just at this moment recall just sit down and be a good boy while we fix the tables. Aren't those roses monkey had hold of the tip of his tail artonished Kate will be!

Mr. Barkdale, sinking into the Sleepy Hollow chair and passing his handkerchief vaguely across his forehead. "Well, the cage. She never seemed to relax this it's a mere matter of fate; I can't see hold by day or night till the little fellow we may expect another exhibition of how I am to explain myself; and yet was two mouths old, then she let him go. American toadyism. King Kalakua, of "Hush-sh-sh," cried the six pretty ed even then. The cage contained a Francisco Saturday night, and after a few girls all in a hissing chorus, Kate's com- 'happy family' of dogs, cats, monkeys, days rest will visit Washington and the ing; Bessie has brought her. Hush-sh- and guinea pigs, sleeping in one box principal Eastern cities. His Majesty who are in many respects incompatible in sh! Don't say a word Mr. Greenfield. together, so when the little monkey crept says he is merely on a visit to the Presi-The golden haired girl's hand was clasp- out of his mother's arms she would reach dent and will take no part in the nepromptly over his mouth. Alice Moore down into the box and take up a gotiations for the reciprocity treaty. Al-

"Come and kiss him Kate," cred all the others. Now don't be ridiculous, for we shant take any notice. Here he

"Liss who ?" cried Kate, standing still and staring all round her. "Girls what on earth do you mean ?"

"You provoking thing! said Barbara, stamping her little foot. "Do you suppose we are all fools? Why, of course we know all about him! It's Mr. Greenfield-your cousin, Kate-the young M

Kate looked around in bewilderment. "Where ?" "Why, here!"

"Nothing of the sort !" said Kate demurely.

Our hero stood up, feeling himself growing uncomfortably warm and red. "Ladies," he said, "there is some mistake here. I said at the outset my name was not Greenfield."

"There !" cried all the girls at once. "There !" echoed Kate defiantly. "Didn't we tell you?" retorted Kate, "Be kind enough to let us know what our name is sir." "Cephas Barkdale !" said the wretched victim of a misunderstanding. "But," said Miss Moore, "you said was Nott Greenfield." "Of course I did !" said the puzzled batchelor. "It isu't Greenfield, and never will be unless I have it change by act of Legislature.

"Oh h-h !" cried the girls. "Dear. dear, to be sure. And we thought you were Kate's lover-and his name is N-o-double-t-Nott Greenfield." "Do hold your tongues, you rediculous hings!" said Kate, half vexed, half "I think you are very nice." said Mr.

Barkdale, gallantly. Miss Birbara had in the meantime taken a slip of paper out of her pocket.

She uttered an hysterical shrick. "It's all my fault !" she exclaimed. "It was No. 39 instead of No. 36-and the tail of the horrid figures turned the wrong end up-that's all. And the cake and the flowers and everything."

"Stop, ladies, if you please," said Mr. Barkdale, courteonsiy. "Begause the surprise has come to the wrong place is no reason why the right person should not enjoy it. Allow me to give up this room to your use this evening. I will just step across the street and send Mr. Nott Green

"Bot von must return with him," said And Mr. Barkdale was not allowed to depart until he had promised. Mr. Nott Greenfield-a good looking medical student-who had the "sky parlor" directly opposite, came promptly on did the polite thing in introducing Mr. witches, and enjoyed the cake and cream. and coaxed Miss Barbara to pin a little

"I'd like to be surprised like this every night in the year !" said he. "O, you greedy creature !" said Miss

"But there was one time I seriously meditated throwing myself out of the window." said he, "when you told me I was to kiss Kate."

"Dear, dear !" said Barbara, ironically; 'That would have been dreadful, wouldu':

"But the awkwardness of the thing." "I dare say you never kissed a pretty girl," pounted the blonde. "I never did." said the bachelor grow-

"But I don't say so," said Barbara. coloring and laughing. "Behave yourself

Mr. Barkdale went home with the fair Barbara, and they grew to be very great friends, and -where's the use trying to conceal how it all ended? They were her long lashes toward the golden baired married at the year's end, with all the six surprisers for brides maids, Kate Killford included. Mr. Nott Greenfield proposes to

A recent writer gives an amusing account of a baby monkey: "He was little bit of a fellow, about as large as a wandering in what words he could best kitten, and had a tail as long as his mother's, but he looked very old in the face. When I first went to see him the mother monkey was holding him in her arms, but presently he crawled to the floor, then out through the bars and upon my knee. We work our sewing machines side by I thought it strange that the mother was not afraid of losing it; but when I moved my hand to stroke it, back went the little monkey, swift as a dart into his mother's again and then I saw that the mother as a thief. beautiful? My goodness gracious, how with her fingers, and as the little one crawl- pay $50 on demand with interest, who ed away from her she let him go as far as neglects to pay it on demand, with or "She can't be more so than I am," said she could reach, but never let go of his without interest, as a liar. tail; and when anybody moved a hand to touch him she pulled him back into perhaps I ought to explain. Ladies .- " But her mother instincts were very mark. Hawaii, and bis suite arrived at San

M. Guizot's Confession of Faith.

The first page of Guizot's will con-tains the following remarkable declara-"I die in the bosom of the Reformed Christian Church of France, in which I was born and in which I congratulate myself on having been born. In remaining always connected with her I exercised the liberty of conscience which she allows her members in their relations with God, and which she herself invoked in eataband which she herself invoked in estabwisdom, his infinite power, which he has enabled us to recognize in their effect, and forbide as from being acquainted with in their essence and design. I thus returned to the convictions in which I was cradled, laughing. "What must Mr. Barkdale self a child in God's hands and sincerely ter, but he has declined to do this, aland weakness. I believe in God and adore Him. I see Him present and acting not only in the innermost life of men's souls, but in the history of human societies, especially in the Old and New Teslaments-monuments of the divine revetution and action by the mediation and sacrifice of our Lord Jesus Christ, for the salvation of the human race. I bow before the mysteries of the Bible and Gospel, and I hold aloof from scientific discussion and solution by which men have attempted to explain them. I trust that God permits me to call myself a Christian and I am convinced that in the light which I am about to enter we shall fully discern the purely human origin and vanity of most of our dissensions here below on divine things."

The Right Sort of Religion.

We want a religion that goes into the mention of the name of Kate Killford, and the dinner from being late—keeps the attempt to prosper in business. Their clouds that were constantly ascending from wife from fretting when the husband tracks policy is to keep the money out of the the pit high over our heads, and the sun Barkdale; and Barkdale ate of the sand- | the newly-washed floor with his muddy | legitimate business of the country that | charging the sulphurous streams with light, the scraper and door-mat-keeps the of the times. The monopolists like the over everything. We heard the commotion mother patient when the baby is cross, greedy vultures delight in devouring a of the element beneath us; it was as though pink rosebud in the buttonhole of his the girls all fluttered out again, giggling, coat, and enjoyed himself prodigious- and keeps the baby pleasant—amuses the fallen victim of misfortune. Money is a the pit were half filled with fat, frying and and in a second, before he could realize by."

children as well as instructs them—wine blessing to the country when employed in sizzling; the air was heavily charged with in its bosom at once the beauty of the tender blossom and glory of the ripened

> We want a religion that bears not only on the "sinfulness of sin," but on the rascality of lying and stealing -a religion tor. that banishes small measures from the counters, sand from sugar, chicory from coffee, beet juice from vinegar, alum from bread, lard from butter, and water from milk caus. The religion that is to advance the world will not put all the big a low rate of interest. strawberries and peaches on top, and al the tad ones at the bottom.

It will not make one half of a pair of shoes of good leather, and the other of poor leather, so that the first shall redound to the maker's credit and the second to

It will not let a piece of velvet that professes to measure twelve yards come to an untimely end in the tenth, or a spool of sewing silk that vouches for twenty vards be nipped in the bud at fourteen follow the example as soon as he gets his and a half, nor the cotton thread spool break to the yardstick fifty of the two hundred of promise that was given to the eye-nor all wool delaines and all linen handkerchiefe be amalgamated with clandestine cotton rags pressed together to be

It does not make window-blinds with slats that cannot stand the wind, and of forming one of the most inconvenient fertilizers.—This settles one point—that olenge to the human race. There were paint which cannot stand the sun, and habits that they can carry alone with them farmers must keep stock, and the nearer they deep traces of sorrow on his countenance, fastenings which may be looked at but ou in after life. When they come to leave what their farms produce, the nearer they no account be touched. The religion that is to sanctify the world pay its

It does not consider that forty cents returned for one hundred given, is according to Gospel, though it may be according to law.

It looks on a man who has failed in It looks upon a man who promise's to

THE ROYAL SANDWICH .- And now

STREET TAPE CONTRACTOR SHEET

An English Sensation.

London letter: "The controversy about from the Calvert Central Texan, there the baptism and the confirmation of the must have been at some remote period in Archbishop of Canterbury still continues in the Chuch journals. The facts appear to be these: Dr. Tait was born in Scotland, of Presbyterian parents, who cared little about baptism. When he was an infant he was at one time very ill, and skeleton of one of the giants near Smiley's merchant. When he arrived at an old serviced over the uncarthing of a skeleton of one of the giants near Smiley's merchant. When he arrived at an old serviced over the near Smiley's merchant. woman, baptised him. This baptism liberty which I have received from God, been validly ordained their ordinations are concerning this strange apimal. and which are my bonor as well as my void. - The Bishop of Winchester has right on the earth, but again feeling wy- been asked to take some steps in the matresigned to so large a share of ignorance though admitting that "the subject may be of interest to churchmen."

USURY LAWS. We see that a movement is made in the Legislature to prevent usury - that is exacting more interest than the law allows. Heretofore we have entertained the opinion that no legislation ought to be had on the value of money - that money. like every other article of commerce, was regulated by supply and demand; but recent years' experience has taught the people many lessons on this question. The moneyed monopoly has become an alarming evil-it is arrayed in opposition to labor and tends to paralyse the industry of the country. The rates of interest now exacted by these money sh, locks are greviously outrageous. Money has tendered to the formation boots, and makes the husband mindful of they may better prey upon the necessities a ghastly gloom was thrown for a moment py hours like the Eastern fig tree, bearing it becomes an engine of oppression. The republican institutions. - Western Exposi-it is to be hoped the Legislature will do something for the relief of the people, who are every where suffering for the want of

Plain Diet.

This is what children ought on every account to be accustomed to from the first; it is vastly more for their present health and comfort than little nice things with which fond parents are so often apt to vitiate their appetites and it will save them a great deal of mortification in after life. If you make it a point to give them the best of everything; to pamper them with rich cakes, sweet meats and sugar plums : if you allow them to say with a scowl, "I don't like this or that," "I can't eat that." and then go away and make them a little toast, or kill a chicken for their dainty sold to the unsuspecting public for legal palates—depend upon it you are doing a great injury, not only on the score of denying a full muscle and rosy cheek, but must be returned to the soil in the shape of ness seemed to consist in acts of beneval you they will not half the time find any thing they can eat-and thus you will prepare them to go chafing and grumbling through life, the veriest slaves almost in the world.

Mothers, listen and be warned in time. for the time will come when you will repent; seeing your sons and daughters "Oh, well it doesn't matter," said Alice, arms. Pretty soon he crawled away trade and who continues to live in luxury make their homes miserable by complaint, and raising their children up in the same waya. - Rural New Yorker.

mutual love and respect, with the conciousness that life was meant for duty, and not for pleasure, and with the understanding that, in the close intimacy between man and wife, happiness will be the result of mutual forbearance and mutual service and self-sacrifice, rather than of mutual perfection, the experience of wedded life, even with those to the soiltaste, disposition and education, will be rich in the sweetest and purest joys of earthly existence. Help thou one another, is the promptly over his mouth. Alice Moore grasped his arm spasmondically, and the other four danced a sort of bewitching little feminine war dance about him, while a seventh girl entered—a pretty Madonna faced little creature like a in her motherly arms."

down into the box and take up a gotiations for the reciprocity treaty. Altering a gotiations for the reciprocity and the policy and the pol

THE DRAD GIANT OF THEAS .- If any This is a queer complication, says a credence can be given to the following story

lishing herself. I examined, I doubted, would be a good one, even in the eye of and one tooth were brought to town, and prosperous business in the bands of his I believed that the strength of the human the Roman Catholic Church, if it were mind was sufficient to solve the problems done with the proper intention and with some to be those of a human being The mind was sufficient to solve the problems presented by the universe and man, and that the strength of the human will, was sufficient to regulate man's life according to its law and its moral cut. After having long lived, acted, and reflected, I remained and still remain convinced that an Episcopalian, and when he was a student and still remain convinced that an Episcopalian, and when he was a student and still remain convinced that an Episcopalian, and when he was a student and still remain convinced that an Episcopalian, and when he was a student and still remain convinced that an Episcopalian, and when he was a student and still remain convinced that an Episcopalian, and when he was a student and still remain convinced that an Episcopalian, and when he was a student and still remain convinced that an Episcopalian and when he was a student convinced that an Episcopalian and when he was a student convinced that an Episcopalian and when he was a student convinced that an Episcopalian and when he was a student convinced that an Episcopalian and when he was a student convinced that an Episcopalian and when he was a student convinced that an Episcopalian and when he was a student convinced that are the convinced that an Episcopalian and when he was a student convinced that the convinced that the strength of the man being The tooth measured from nice to be those of a human being The tooth measured from nice to eleven inches tooth measured from nice to the tooth measured from nice to t mained and still remain convinced that the universe and man are neither of them sufficient to explain and regulate themselves naturally by the mere force of fixed laws which preside over them and of the human wills which are brought into play. It is my profound belief that God, who is many profoun created the universe and man, governs confirmation cannot be duly given to any it was unearthed, and measured fifteen and preserves or modifies them, whether one who has not been validly christened. feet from the knee joint to the tip of the by those general laws which we call natural laws, whether by special acts which we call supernatural, emanating, like the general laws, from his perfect and free Mr. Tait declined to do anything of the undertake to say it is not. Whatever it kind, and thus the case stands. If he was is, it was a monster in life; and from the not validly baptized, his confirmation was appearance of the jaw, we conclude it void, and all subsequent sacraments ad- could have swallowed a good-sized man ministered to him and by him are void with ease. Some of our citizens are going also. He has ordained about three hun- out to examine it more closely, and we always firmly attached to the person and dred priests, but if he himself has never hope to have something more definite Indian Tickle, Labrador, on the night of

At Vesuvius.

San Francisco Chronicle of the crater of Vesuvius, says:

"We all stuffed our handkerchiefs into our mouths, held our noses, and stepped up on goods, and that after the capture of seve the very rim of the cone. One side was a eral of the Indians they were publicly yawning chasm, so filled with vapor that I chastised by whipping. Their revenge saw nothing; on the other was the precipitous slope of the mountain, down which it when Mr. William J. Morrison and his was easy to cast one's self and slide for two or three hundred feet without much effort. In a few moments we had passed the fiery wounded with bullets.—Mrs. Morrison's or smoky ordeal, and, coming around the throat was cut deeply in several places, windward side of the cone, we breathed once and a bullet pierced her brain. William more the delicious air of the morning. We and Charles Morrison were stabled in the sould now approach the crater with ease and heart, and also shot, but James, the youngs look far down into its hideons-nay, its beautiful depths. It is very beautiful. The inner | life, as his corpse was found on the stairwalls are thickly coated with sulphur, and a Pompeilan fresco is not more brilliant or harmonlous than the rich and splendid greens family, and keeps the husband from being of little, contemptible rings about each and reds and yellows that there combine to troublesome conduct among the Esquispureful when the dinner is late, and keeps town, who conspires against all men who decorate this temple of the fories. Sudden mauxs in Labrador in the memory of the as well as governs -- projects the honey- the legitimate business of the country, but sulpharous gases; we felt the heat of the moon into the harvest moon, and the hapwhen controlled by a privileged monopoly of our boots; in many places we could not philosopher's lamp burned dimly in the touch our hand to the rocks without blistertime has now arrived when capital should ing it. Close by was a hole in the side. a not have favored and exclusive privileges jutting point of lava, into which one of the over the industry of the country. This guides introduced, without the aid of his monopoly is opposed to the spirit of our staff, a large roll of paper, which no sooner touched the spot than it barst into flames; What the Expositor says is true, and The boy brought me a small bit of lava, at which I lighted my eight."

[From the Ohio Farmer.] ROTATION.

A judicious rotation of crops is absolutely pecessary in maintaining the fertility of the soil. This needs no demonstration, for it is universally admitted. But how to rotate, to secure the greatest advantages, is the main question. No specific can be given to suit every case, because "circumstances alter cases" very much in regard to this point. The system that would succeed on one farm would utterly fail in another, and vice versa. er must decide this matter for himself. Each crop extracts from the soil the elements essential to its growth and maturity, and by continuous cropping, however judicious the Bethlebem. Years rolled away and a rotation may be, the soil will eventually be Stranger was seen at Jerusalem. He was some to the most improved sulture.

-corn, oats or barley, wheat, and then wise. grass. In good soil two crops of wheat can be grown. clover being sown on the first, in the spring, which will furnish one grop, and one to plow under for second crop of wheat, on pasture lands. A prominent agriculturist recommends the following six years' rotation : First year, corn, potatoes and roots, with ground heavily manured; second; oats; third, slover ploughed in and sowed with wheat in the fall; then timothy MARITAL HAPPINESS.-When two people of the fourth year; then let it lie in grass two years.

Other systems of rotation have their advantages suited to the surrounding circumstances of soil, climate, ect. In what districts, where the soil rests on linestone or plaster, a simple rotation of clover two years and wheat one, is found to be good, always premising that plenty of manure is returned

The Charlotte, Columbia & Augusta Railroad, has built a capital new turn-Railroad, has built a capital new turn-table near its depot in this city. It is 48 teet long—long enough to turn both en-gine and tender at the same time. It is gives a soul he gets that soul's secrets; when a substantial piece of work .- Charistie he gets a soul's secrets he forgives that soul's

Too Often True.

Some men take too much money out age be retired to private life, to live in-The knee-cap, under jaw, or chin piece, ease and comfort on his income, leaving a

In three years the young man was a bankrupt. He had failed in business and a

Terrible Slaughter of Human

"A terrible slaughter of human lives

nelon, Nov. 22, says:

NEW YORK, Nov. 28th. A private letter from St. Pierre, Mig-was perpetrated at the settlement of the 15th inst., two whole families being the victims. The names of the families are William J. Morrison and his sons Thomas and Herbert, Robert Morrison and wife, and their sons William, Charles and James. It seems that latterly gange of Esquimauxs and Indians have been committing robberies at the huts and stores of those who held large stocks of two sons were foully murdered in their rooms, their bodies being covered with dirk wounds, though they had been first est, seems to have struggled hard for his case leading to the door, near the corpse of an Esquimaux whom he had shot. This is the first instance of criminal or

A Beautiful Extract.

It was night. Jerusalem slept as quiety amid her hills as a child upon the breast of its mother. The noiseless sentinel stood like a statue at his post, and the recess of his chamber. But a moral darkness involved the nation in its upenlightened shadows. Reason shed a faint glimmering over the minds of men like cold and unsufficient shining of a distant star. The immortality of man's spiritual nature. was unknown, his relation to Heaven undiscovered, and his future destiny obscured in a cloud of myetery. It was at this period that two forms of ethereal mold bovered about the land of God's chosen people. They came like sister angels, sent to earth on some embassy of love.-The one of majestic stature and well formed limb which her drapery scarcely concealed, in her erect bearing and steady eye-exhibiting the highest degree of strength and confidence. Her right arm was extended in an impressive gostare upward, where night appears to have planted her darkest pavillion; while on her left reclines her delicate companion, in form and countenance the contrast of the other. She was drooping like a flower moistened by refreshing dews, and her -Governed by general principles, the farm- bright and troubled eyes scamed them with ardent but varying glances. Suddenly a light like the sun flashed out from the Heavens, and Faith and Hope hailed, with exciting songs, the ascending Star of exhausted. Hence the elements extracted a meek unassuming man, whose happihe lived in the practice of every virtue. The most usual rotation is from the sed and was loved by all the good and

By and by it was rumored that the stranger worked miracles, that the blind saw, the dumb spake and the dead arose, the ocean moderated its chafing tide, the very thunder articulated. He was the Son of God. Envy assailed Him to Thickly guarded he slowly ascended the Hill of Calvary. A heavy cross bent bim to the earth. But Faith leaned on His arm, and Hope, dipping her pinions is His blood, mounted to the skies.

They who believed, confessed. They did not confess until they believed. You do not throw away one portion until you begin to get hold of a better. The prodigal, I suppose, kept his rugs closely around his person as long as they constituted his only govering; it is when he gets the fair robe from his father's hand that he casts the filthy garments passionately away. You will never sine.—Arnot.