Southern Society Girls.
This life of gaily does not seem to embarrass southern women in the least. They are, from their tenderest years, educated in social etiquettes up to this point of endurance. Southern children are often in the parlor than inmates of the nursery, and pass the hours which should be cradle-rocked among the evening guests talking, eating and flirting with amusing grace and maturity. Their complexions suffer, as does their health in the after years, and rush to cosmetics, to cover up deficiencies in coloring as natural and necessary as their use of quinine or health-sustaining medicines. But they have the easy, elegant, unconsciously graceful manner of well-bred women of the world, whom no exigency surprises, and who look upon the world as being with roses for their especial plucking. You never see a Southern society girl, least awkward, or look miserably out of place, as did poor Joe Gargery when dressed in his Sunday best. They act natural, because they are as much in their element as swans on the breast of the river.—Washington Letter.

The Secret of Beauty.
It is not in pearl power, nor in golden hair dye, nor in jewelry. It cannot be got in a bottle or a box. It is pleasant to be handsome, but all beauty is not in prettiness. There is a higher beauty, that makes us love tenderly. Eyes, nose, hair, or skin never did that yet; though it is pleasing to see fine features. What you are will make your face over for you in the end, whether nature has made it plain or pretty. Good people are never looking. Whatever their faces may be, an amiable expression shows for all. If they can be cheerful also, no one will love them less because their features are not regular, or because they are too fat, or too thin, too pale or too dark. Civilization of the mind adds another charm to their faces, and, on the whole, if any girl is desirous of being liked by the many and loved by the one, it is more in her power than she may believe to accomplish that object. Cosmetics will not accomplish it, however. Neither will fine dress; though a woman who does not dress becoming wrongs herself. Forced smiles and affected amiability will be of no avail; but if she can manage to feel kindly to everybody, not to be jealous, not to be petty, not to be spiteful, and to encourage contentment, then something will come in her face that will outlast youth's roses, and gain her not only a husband, but a life-long lover.

THE FINANCIAL CONDITION OF THE NORTH CAROLINA RAILROAD.—In response to a request on the part of the Senate, Gov. Brogden has sent in the following special message in relation to the situation of the North Carolina Railroad:

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA, EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, RALEIGH, N. C., Jan. 29, 75.

To the President and the Senate of North Carolina:
GENTLEMEN:—I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of a resolution passed by the Senate requesting me to furnish information in relation to the financial affairs of the North Carolina Railroad, and in compliance with said request, I transmit herewith such information as I have been able to obtain concerning the subject matter of the resolution.

The whole number of State Bonds issued for the construction of the North Carolina railroad, under the act of 1848 '49, chapter 82, and the act of 1854 '55, chapter 32, par value of $1,000 each, 3,000. The number of said Bonds taken up in exchange for stock formerly owned by the State in Raleigh and Gaston Railroad, &c., 206.

Leaving whole number of North Carolina Construction Bonds outstanding, 2,794. Par value of $1,000 each, $2,794,000.

Whole number of North Carolina Railroad Bonds proved in the United States Circuit Court, Eastern District of North Carolina, in the suit of Anthony H. Swazey for self and others against the North Carolina Railroad Company, D. A. Jenkins, king $1,827,000.

Whole number of past due coupons of said Bonds proved up and including those due October 1st, 1874, 25,683, $770,490.

Of this there has been ordered to be paid under decrees of the Court made in the above named suit, at several times, (about) $524,000.

Leaving balance of coupons still due and unpaid, $246,490.

Interest is claimed on these coupons by the holders, and if allowed, will amount to between $175,000 and $180,000.

Balance of Bonds outstanding and not 967, making $867,000.

Estimated coupons past due on these Bonds $1,504, making $945,120.

In addition to balance of coupons on proved Bonds now due and unpaid, to wit: $246,490.

The coupons on these Bonds falling due January 1st and April 1st, 1875, will amount to $54,810.

Total of coupons on proved Bonds due or before April 1st, 1875, $301,300.

I have not yet given any satisfactory reason to change the opinion expressed in my regular message in regard to this matter, as follows:

"The sum necessary to be raised by the present General Assembly to pay the past due interest on the Construction Bonds, and thus save the stock of the State from sale under the decree of the United States Circuit Court, will probably amount to more than $200,000.

HAVE YOU TRIED JURUBEBA. ARE YOU Weak, Nervous or Debilitated

Are you so languid that you feel exertion requires more of an effort than you feel capable of making? Do you feel that your vitality is being sapped? Then try JURUBEBA, the wonderful tonic and invigorator, which acts so beneficially on the sensitive organism as to impart vigor to all the vital forces.

It is no alcoholic appetizer, which stimulates for a short time, only to let the sufferer fall to a low depth of misery, but it is a vegetable tonic acting directly on the liver and spleen and it regulates the bowels, quiets the nerves and gives a healthy tone to the whole system as to soon make the invalid a firm and new person.

THE NEW FAMILY SINGER SEWING MACHINE.

We claim and can show that it is the CHEAPEST, most beautiful, delicately arranged, most adjusted, neatly operated, and smoothly running of all the Family Sewing Machines. It is remarkable not only for the range and variety of its sewing, but also for the variety and different kinds of texture which it will sew with equal facility and perfection, using silk twist, linen cotton thread, fine or coarse, making the INTERLOCKED-ELASTIC-STITCH, alike on both sides of the fabric sewn. Thus, beaver cloth, or leather, may be sewn with great strength and uniformity of stitch; and, in a moment, this willing and never-wearied instrument may be adjusted for fine work on gauze or gossamer tissue, or on tacking of tarlatan, or ruffling, or almost any other work which delicate fingers have been known to perform.

And with its simplicity of construction; ease of operation; uniformity of action; and its capacity for range and variety of work, fine or coarse—leaving all rivals behind it. We with pleasure refer the public to the Gold and Bronze Medals and Diplomas awarded to our Machines in America, France, England, and elsewhere, where we were awarded five Medals, Merit Program, and three for articles manufactured on our Machines. But it gives us much greater pleasure, to present to the public the sworn returns of sale, to which any one can have access) of the different Manufacturers of Machines, for the last four years, made to the receiver appointed by the owners of valuable Sewing Machine Patents, and which shows the precise number of machines sold by each Company.
