The Tri-Weekly Topic. - We have received a copy of this neatly printed little paper, issued from Raleigh, by Mr. J. S. Hampton for 25 cts a year.

Some scape-grace, without the fear of man before his eyes, threw a coat button into the contribution boy, of one of our churches last Sunday.

Mr. Horace Connely of Icards, has been appointed Conductor on the W. N. C. R. R., Vice Capt. Geo., Thomason. Mr. Concely is a polite, upright young gentleman, and well qualified for the position.

The Yadkin River was higher last Friday than it has been since the memory able "fresh" of 1852. The waters were cess. within ten feet of the N. C. R. R. bridge. which is, ordinary forty feet above them.

A Remarkable Coincidence -On the same day the Rump Congress passed the Civil Rights bill, our city mean .- Charlotte Democrat. fathers passed a hog law and an ordinance looking to the confiscation of private property. What next ?
