Last week was Passion week, with the church people, but it was certainly a week of very bad sessions with the outsiders. Like the Beecher Tilton trial, the South Carolina Legislature and other scandulous proceedings, however the fighting element adjourned over Good Friday, and only resumed late Saturday night, when two negroes made night hideous with their wawling, and last strokes of the week's clock were tishered out with the sound of the policeman's pistol shots. This week all is quiet and serene, and we trust for the good of our town, it will remain so.

AT ST JOHN'S, EPISCOPAL CHURCH, Services had been held throughout the previous week, and on Good Friday-the anniversary of the crucifixion-the church was heavily draped in mourning, symbolizing the church's sorrow for the awful sufferings of the God Incarnate, while on Sunday all was beautifully decorated in celebration of the bursting of the gates of death and the coming forth of Christ to fulfil the plan of redemption. From the very appropriate text-"That which thou sowest is not quickened except it die :..... God giveth it a body as thath pleased him, and to every seed his own body" taken from 1st Corinthians XVI .- 36 & 38,-the Rector, Rev. F. J. Murdoch, preached an able and instructive sermon, which we have heard spoken of by competent judges aration, and his arguments are clothed in choicest language, clear, concise and effective. To-day he spoke of the christian's hope in the resurrection from death, unto life eternal, reasoning from analogy, conclusively, that "the righteous hath hope in his death," and that we all shall be raised with our bodies as they are here, except that in the case of the righteous, who shall be glorified and freed from imperfections.
