The beneficence of the Good Shepherd, and his care for his flock, as here taught by an expressive figure, was well set fort hin the opening remarks; and a comparison instituted applying the figure to the Church. The minister should imitate the shepherd in caring for his people and they, like the lambs of the flock, should hear and obey his voice. The relative duties of pastor and congregation were finely drawn and well impressed. It was announced that on next Sabbath a Pastoral sermon, further carrying out the figure, would be preached.

in the next three months to keep you a year any unemployed person between the ages of 16 and 70 should take an agency for THE ILLUS-TRATED WEERLY, a large, sparkling, literary and family paper, ($2.50 a year) pure, instructive, and amusing; half of its pages full of beautiful pictures, the other half containing the choicest reading matter. JAMES PARTOR contributing editor. Like that great English paper, the London Illustrated News, it is highly moral, but entirely unsectarian and non-political. During a year it furnishes over 1,100 pictures, and the equal of 9 large octavo colmes of reading matter. IT GIVES AWAY fassimiles of the finest steel engravings, on heavy ing, and are truly a fine art gallery every year. Besides, each subscriber is presented with the chromo. "Gold Fish, Fruits and Flowers," size 2x11 feet, in 27 oil colors, painted by Ramsey. Not only the largest and finest premium ever given, but the most wonderfully beautiful chromo ever pro-duced. It is just the paper for which everybody has been wailing—larger and finer than any other, at half the usual cost. Ite success (nearly 1000 subscribers a day being received) proves this. So complete, so progressive, so full of useful as well as entertaining matter is this paper, that we venture to assert that to every thinking, observant American, a years' subscription costs $1.50 is, in actual, useful value, worth fifty dollars. AGENTS .- This combination is unequalled. It is an instantaneous and pronounced success. Every good American takes at least one paper, of course. He takes this paper because (1) it is the nicest, newest and best; (2) is the cheapest-giving a great bargain-and thus saits the hard times. It sells itself. Be quick, if you want an agency. This time of the I have the largest stock of Drugs, year any agent can make from $10 to $20 per eral terms, with reports from agents, subscribers, and press notices; or, better yet, to save time, make $100 while you would otherwise be waiting. You are sure to take hold anyhow. Mon-Opodeldoc, Caster & Sweet Oil &c. Write orders for specimens, subscriptions, or outfits to T. E. MOORE, Publisher "The Illustrated
