We never like to doubt a young man's veracity, but when he buys a new white vest, has his moustache dyed, ties a bran new white cravat round a latest style collar, and then goes off on the train saying he's only going to see his mother, we can hardly find it in our heart to believe him. Arrest the Scoundrels.-As the r rain from the South on the N. C. Railroad approached within a mile of the city last night, it was thrown into by some scoundrels, one rock striking Capt. Ligon, the Conductor or the leg. A lady from Goldsboro was also cut about the head and face with fractured glass. This is the second time the train has been thrown into recently. We are authorized by Capt. Ligon to offer $25, for the arrest of the scoundrels. They should be detected.

A highly colored Beecher affair came of here last week. A gay Lothario, of ebony cuticle, tiring of his elderly help-meet, who for years had shared his joys and sorrows his bed and and board, left her in Danville, came on here, and was shortly followed by a buxom wench who claimed him as her husband. Smoothly did the course of this illicit love blow, until last week, when suddenly, with thunder on he brow, and the terrors of the law in her hands wife No. 1 appeared on the scene! Then was there howling in the blue season!

She claimed him, proved property and took sea fowl, that measured 7 feet from tip to him away. And now won't he catch it? He won't have a hundred-day trial like his great prototype Beecher, but we'll bet he'll be the worst scratched, worst abused, most bitterly repentant nigger in all the coasts of emancipa-

SUNDAYS'S WORSHIP.

AT ST. JOHN'S LUTHERAN CHURCH. pulpit was filled by Rev. Dr. Davis, President elect of North Carolina College.

The text was taken from latter part of 19. verse of the 2. chapter of Paul's Epistle to the Ephesians :- "Of the household of God." The context fully shows the nature of the discourse, which was an able and interesting one, fully sustaining the high character of the distingushed preacher. "But now in Chirst Jesus, ye who sometime were far off, are made nigh by the blood of Christ. For through Him we both have access by one spirit unto the Father. Now therefore "A horse is a vain thing for safety," says ve are no more strangers and foreigners, but felthe good book, and when you put two of 'em low-citizens with saints, and of the house of

Under the christain dispensation this covenant is not annulled, but the sign or scal is changed, baptism taking the place of circumcision. Here we find a warrant which may well silence al the cavillers at infant baptism The subject of baptism of infants was gone into, and its scriptural authority fully demonstrated, but our space will not permit us to notice the argument at length. The sermon was listened to with much interest by the large congregation.

AT THE FIRST METHODIST CHURCH, the Pastor Rev. Lee. W. Crawford, preached a very interesting sermon from the memorable message of John the Baptist to our Savior: "Now when John had heard in the prison the works of Christ, he sent two of his disciples, and said unto him. Art thou he that should come, or do we look for another? Jesus answered and said unto them, Go and shew John again those things which ye do see and hear; The blind receive their sight, the lame walk, &c." AT ST. LUKE'S EPISCOPAL CHURCH, the sermon was preached by the Rev F. J. Murdoch, Rector, from the text :- "And He said to them all. if any man will come after me, let him deny himself and take up his cross daily and follow me."-St. Luke IX, 23.

The Preacher said: The self-denial of a christain must not be occasional, now and then, but it must amount to a habit. Messus. Editors :- The opponents of Yadkin Rail Road using as an argument against the County making a subscription, that the Carolina Central Rail Road has bought the road from Wadesboro to Charaw. This is not the case-I wrote to Col. B. D. Townsend President of the last mentioned road, and I take the liberty of extracting from his letter of May 28th.

"The reports you speak of are erroneousthere has been no negotiation between the C. & Y. R. R. Company, and the Carolina Central or any other Company. We have finished the grading to Wadesboro, and would have completed the Road to Wedesboro probably this year-but for the unfortunate legislation of N.
